

Question of Changing Name Stirs up Prohis

United Press Service

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 6.—A widespread move within the ranks of the prohibition party to change the name threatens to cause at least one hot soap when the prohibition national convention meets here July 17 to 21, it was learned today.

The younger element especially favors retaining the party in order, they say, to do away with a name "not broad enough to encompass all policies of the party," a name which is "against rather than for something."

"The prohibition party is for a good many things, and not always against something, as the name sometimes leads people to believe," one in favor of retaining the party declared today. The names American, Liberal, Federal and others have been suggested.

But not all prohibitionists want to do away with the name, which, they say, signifies their stand on "the greatest issue before the American people—the liquor traffic." The party name has come to be looked upon with honor and respect, and it would be folly to change it now, they say.

Those favoring changing the party admit that one of their purposes is to catch votes, to take over the new women's party vote bodily, to adopt the progressive party, and to draw votes from any and all other parties.

Re-christening of the prohibition party will come in for a share of the discussion at the St. Paul convention when on Tuesday, July 17th, a giant "get-together" meeting of men and women representing every reform movement in the United States will meet to talk over "consolidation."

The trend of the debate will be: 1.—That the liquor question is the greatest issue before the American people, requiring immediate settlement.

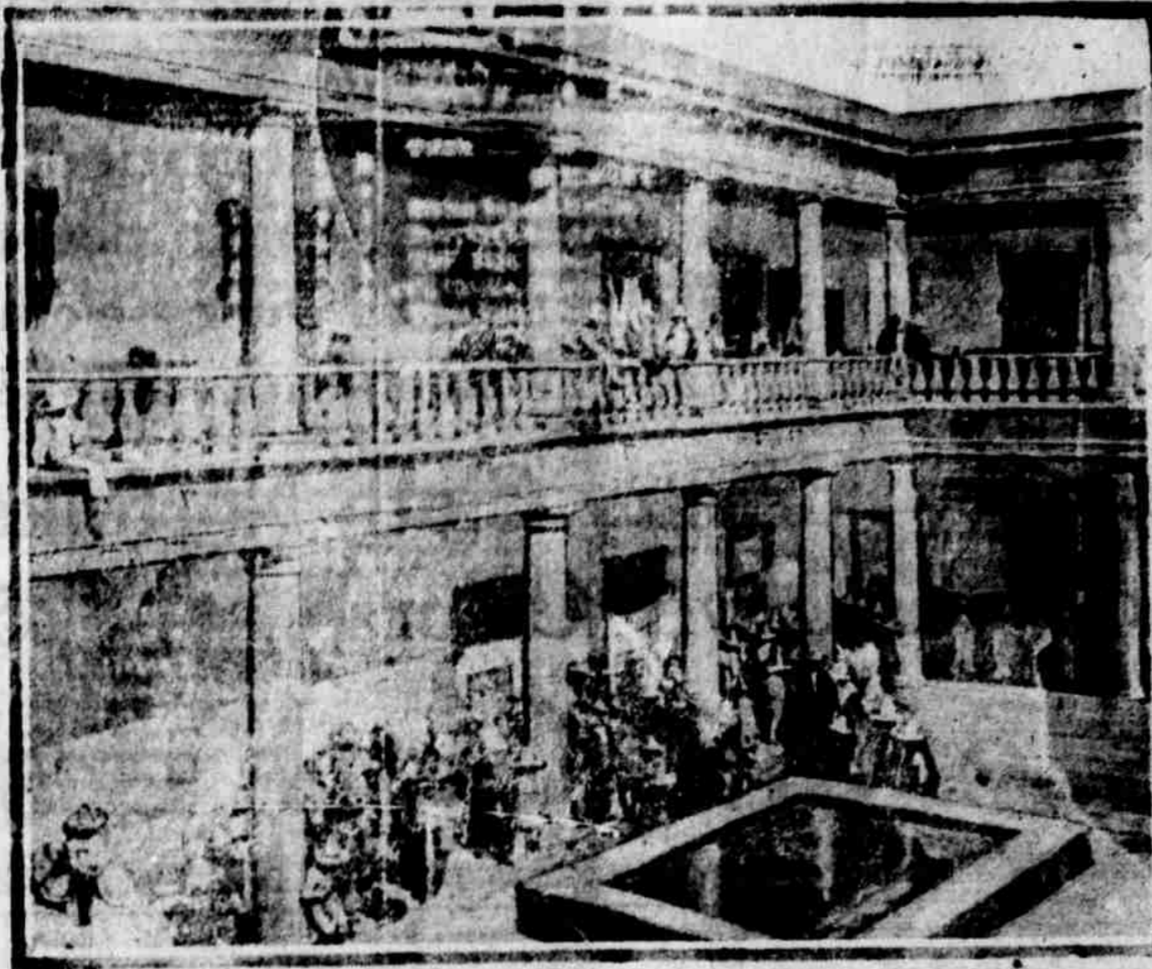

2.—That the issue can be settled only by electing to power a political party in favor of nation-wide prohibition. Only in this way can nation-wide prohibition be enacted and enforced.

3.—That it is impossible to expect a solution of the issue through the republican elephant, the democratic donkey, or the decapitated bull moose.

4.—What political party then shall be put in power to settle the issue, the prohibition party, as such, or a thorough new party similar to the prohibition party, but seeking votes under a different name.

To this get-together meeting the prohibitionists have invited the progressive national committee and other party leaders and 15,000 other reform workers, both men and women.

Educational Matters Are Discussed at N.E.A. Meet

NEW YORK, July 6.—National aid for state normal schools, higher salaries and better pension systems for teachers and better means of safeguarding women co-educational colleges, were the problems discussed by the National Education Association in Madison Square Garden here today.

President J. W. Chabtree of the state normal school, River Falls, Wis., insisted that schools and colleges of education have been unable to meet the demand for trained specialists because they have been "bound and gagged by college practices, traditions and prejudices." The normal school, he declares, is a national asset, even more so than the state agricultural college, and should be so treated by the national government in the distribution of national aid for education.

more College advocated a reasonable salary increase and a joint teacher assessment and public taxation plan of pensioning public school teachers. Josephine Corlies Preston, superintendent of public instruction of the state of Washington, outlined a definite plan by which cottage homes for teachers may be provided in every rural school district.

The progress in Chinese education was discussed by V. K. Wellington Koo, ambassador from China to the United States. Mary Beal House, dean of women, Mt. Union College, Alliance, Ohio, in an address before the conference of deans of women, advocated as close supervision of the recreation hours of women as of their duty hours in co-educational institutions.

The nominating committee elected by the delegates from all states, will report the officers for the ensuing year at the general session tomorrow.

EVEN SANG-FEST IS HIT BY WARS

ON ACCOUNT OF THE WAR, CANADIAN SINGERS OF SCANDINAVIAN ORIGIN CANNOT BE AT BIG GET-TOGETHER

United Press Service GRAND FORKS, N. D., July 6.—The Norwegian-Canadian chorus was the only one in the organization not represented today when the National Norwegian Singers Association choruses came here for the annual meeting and sangerfest.

Eight hundred singers, picked from the 3,000 delegates will sing in Scandinavian and English during the three days' session which opened today. Delegates came from Minnesota, both the Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois, New York, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Hampshire and Massachusetts. The Canadian contingent of Winnipeg is, almost to a man, in the trenches of fighting Europe.

Professor J. H. Flaten, Duluth, Minn., will direct three monster choruses, which will sing during the meeting. Julius Jaeger, Chicago, president of the association, is here.

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR REALIZES THIS SO FULLY THAT HE HAS HIRED AN EXPERT DISPLAY AD WRITER

United Press Service

CLEVELAND, O., July 6.—Ohioans are witnessing something new in the way of political stunts this summer in the gubernatorial campaign of display advertising used by George W. Shaw of Cleveland. Shaw, lawyer and business man, is a candidate for the republican nomination for governor, against Governor Frank B. Willis.

"One of the greatest advertising men in America is helping me," said Shaw. "This man has made a certain point a household word. I stand for certain definite reforms in government. We're advertising to the people of Ohio my brand of politics. If they like what I stand for they can vote for me, if they don't like, they can vote for Governor Willis. I have no political organization."

"I'm running for governor because I don't have to work all the time to make a living," said Shaw. Shaw, in his college days, was famous as half back on the Western Reserve football team.

URGES EVERYONE TO QUICKLY GET ON WATER WAGON

DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST TO WASH OUT POISONS

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact, to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidities, and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.—Adv.
