CLARKE CAN'T BE IN SUNDAY GAME

HARD-HITTING AND EVER-FIGHTING BACKSTOP OF THE LOCALS IS HAVING TROUBLE WITH INJURED HAND

There is deep, sullen gloom among the fans as a result of the announcement that Jimmie Clarke, one of the best men on the local team, will not be able to help Klamath Falls win against Willows Sunday with his splendid catching, his unerring pegs and his effective stickwork.

In the meantime, President J. H. Carranah and Manager Ray Watt of the local club are burning the wires in an effort to find a man of Clarke's calibre for the job of stopping Bigbee's shoots Sunday.

Clarke is one of the most consistent players on the Klamath team, as well as one of the most popular with the fans. His catching work is always good, and he catches many a man on throws to second, while he works every minute he is behind the bat, taking all kinds of chances for fouls, and keeping up a rapid fire of talk that dismays many a batter and injects pep into the rest of the Klamath team.

Clarke has a wicked eye when it comes to batting, and he always sticks over the .340 mark, pounding out many an extra base swat and scoring many of the runs. He will be on the bench as a pinch hitter and a coach, however, and can be depended upon to do his utmost for a Klamath victory.

DEFENSE RESTS IN THE TRIAL OF YOUTH

United Press Service WAUKEGAN, July 7.—The Orpet defense rested this afternoon. The prosecution at once started rebuttal testimony.

American Aviator Given a Medal

William Thaw, the American, one of the most daring among the aviators with the French army, whose feats over Verdun have often been mentioned in the French official reports, was wounded while fighting a German machine high over the fortress.

LOCAL PEOPLE TO STAR IN MOVIES

"THE STOLEN PIE," A FILM SCREEN, WILL BE ENACTED IN KLAMATH FALLS BY KLAMATH FALLS TALENT

All of the thrills, laughs and excitement attendant at the big moving picture studios, is to be brought to Klamath Falls. For be it known that Klamath Falls is to be the scene of a real movie play—and furthermore, Klamath Falls people will do the acting, so the picture will be shown in Klamath Falls.

John V. Houston today closed a contract with Dan L. Sharitz, a well known motion picture producer, to produce the comedy, "The Stolen Pie." The work of picking the cast will soon start, and our local Pickfords and Bushmans will have a chance to scintillate in screendom.

"The Stolen Pie" is an entirely local situation, and in the unravelling of the laughable plot, local scenes and local celebrities play a prominent part. There will be upwards of fifty people used, and already there is said to be bitter jealousy between Paul Johnson and Bert Hall for the leading role—this meaning the man who steals the pie. Sharitz also reports that Earl Whitlock, L. G. Van Bellen, Kieth Ambrose and other "double-dyed" movie fans have actually offered him cash to use his influence in getting their faces on the film.

A big picnic scene will be staged in the court house lawn, and the other scenes will be taken at other places of interest here. When completed, the film will be shown at the Star theater, and the scenario prepared shows that it will be equal to any comedy offered by the best of the film services.

Here From Drain. Mr. and Mrs. O. Watson and son came in last night from Drain to visit at the Beckley ranch near Fort Klamath.

LAKEVIEW WANTS TO JOIN FORCES

Following the suggestion of Colonel Gantenbein that Klamath Falls and Lakeview co-operate in the organization of a company of volunteer infantry for Gantenbein's proposed regiment, C. H. Young, a Lakeview man of military experience, has written Dr. Hamilton and others here, seeking information. This will be taken up by the local men in favor of a company.

In his letters Colonel Gantenbein suggested the consulting of Dr. R. R. Hamilton of this city, owing to his experience both in volunteer organizations, in active service, and in recruiting and medical service for the army. The work of enlisting men for the proposed company continues, with more signatures added each day.

Frank Expression is Commended

Villista Bandits Are Now Fighting in Chihuahua

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., July 7.—Secretary of State Lansing today replied to Carranza's note. He said the United States is ready to exchange views seeking a practical plan for the elimination of the difficulties causing the Mexican-American controversy.

The American note expresses gratification at Carranza's frank statement regarding the difficulties, and his unreserved expression of desire to reach an adjustment. Mexican Ambassador Arredondo today notified the state department that Villistas practically destroyed the Carranza force at Corralitos, Chihuahua, Wednesday.

FIRE THREATENS LOCAL SAWMILL

BLAZE DISCOVERED IN BOILER ROOM OF THE KLAMATH MANUFACTURING CO.'S SAWMILL IS EXTINGUISHED BY MILL HANDS

What might have been a very costly fire in the sawmill of the Klamath Manufacturing company at Shipington was soon put out last evening by employees of the mill. The blaze started in the boiler room, but was discovered before it had made much headway, and with the use of the company's fire prevention system was extinguished before help from here arrived.

Four or five men were doing extra work in the sawmill and the box factory crew was working a quarter shift when the fire started, about 9 o'clock. A large number of people from Klamath Falls quickly responded when the alarm was turned in.

MARINES EXPECT TO ENTER SAN DOMINGO

They will leave Monday for the Colville reservation, in Eastern Washington, to participate in the big drawing to be held there later this month, when the reservation will be thrown open to entry.

Former Local Doctor is Honored by Belgian King

PORTLAND, July 7.—Chevalier Morrow is on his way home from the wars. To thousands of Oregon people, the chevalier is just Earl V. Morrow, sometimes general practitioner at Klamath Falls, where he had, by diligent heed to the technique of the healing art, won some repute as a doctor. But when he gets back to Portland he will be wearing the decoration of the Order of Leopold, pinned on his breast by no less a personage than King Albert of Belgium.
