SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK WHEN MIXED WITH SULPHUR IT BRINGS BACK ITS BEAUTIFUL LUSTRE AT ONCE Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur Compound restores its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored, and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1916

A LITTLE LATE

THE Klamath Commercial Club has received a petition from farmers and settlers of the Redmond district in Crook county, the home of Denton G. Burdick, candidate for state representative, asking help in defeating Burdick at the November election, and suggesting that Klamath county bring out an independent candidate. It is claimed that it has just been discovered that Mr. Burdick is an employee of certain irrigation corporations which are opposed to the best interests of the settlers and homesteaders of that section.

Of course, the Klamath Commercial Club will not be so unwise as to permit itself to become mixed up in any political controversy. It is purely a business organization, and could ill afford to destroy its influence by taking active part in any election.

The republicans of Crook county, as well as those of the entire district, nominated Burdick as one of the candidates for representative, by a very substantial vote, and it is too late now to change the result of their ballots. Mr. Burdick and Mr. Forbes will be elected in November, and there is very little danger of Mr. Burdick doing any great damage in the way of enacting any new legislation that would be harmful to the settlers of Crook or any other county in the district.

It takes the united and efficient action on the part of all the representatives of Eastern Oregon to secure favorable action on any bill demanded by this section. Mr. Forbes has honestly and ably represented the settlers of this section for four years, and he will continue to do so at the next session. His opposition alone would defeat any local bill that might be advocated by his colleague, in the improbable case of his attempting any legislation against the interests of the settlers. We do not believe that Mr. Burdick has the least intention of working against the interests of his own people, and this fear on the part of the farmers of Redmond will be found to be purely imaginary.

As to an independent candidate from Klamath county, such a thing would be folly. Klamath county has not enough votes to elect a representative from this district, and the only possible chance of securing one, until the district is divided, is for Crook, Grant and Jefferson counties to permit it by only putting up one candidate from that section.

Autos Are More Welcome Than Babies in England

United Press Service LONDON, July 12.—Babies refuse to come into the world full of automobiles, for the simple reason that new automobiles usually are more welcome than new babies. Babies and autos don't go together. Muriel Viscountess Helmsley gives this explanation for the falling birth rate in England. Autos, according to the viscountess, create an appetite for amusement and, as babies furnish little amusement, in the twentieth century way of thinking, they are considered an interference with the pleasures that the automobile affords.

Fall of Bagdad to Mean No Cotton for Germany

United Press Service LONDON, July 12.—With British and Russian forces converging on Bagdad, military experts pointed out here today that the fall of the great Turkish stronghold probably will follow one of the most decisive battles of the war. The reason is cotton. Far more important, say the experts, than the encircling of the Turkish division in the middle reaches of the Tigris is the fact that for months since American cotton has been denied to Germany the Bagdad region has been the chief source of cotton for German arsenals. Cotton from this district, probably the last avenue to Germany open to this vital necessity for Teutonic explosives, has been steadily crawling over the Bagdad railway since the British blockade observed American cotton as contraband. It is the opinion here that Germany will order the Turks to hold Bagdad at all costs and probably will send large numbers of men to aid the Sultan's fighters. The point is declared, from the German standpoint, to be one of the most vital of the war. With the Tigris floods abated, an active and relentless Anglo-Russian campaign against ancient Bagdad is believed to have already commenced.

JACKRABBIT FUR MADE GOOD HAT

CONGRESSMAN SINNOTT HAS A HANDSOME HEADPIECE THAT SHOWS OREGON RABBIT FUR WILL MAKE GOOD HATS

High grade felt hats can be manufactured from the fur of Oregon jackrabbits. This is no longer a theory, but a demonstrated fact, and Representative N. J. Sinnott of Oregon is proudly wearing the first and only felt fedora ever manufactured in the country from jackrabbit fur. Last winter Mr. Sinnott discovered that felt hat makers were embarrassed because their supply of German rabbit fur was cut off with the war. It occurred to him that jackrabbit fur might be substituted, and he sent to Oregon for a consignment of jackrabbit skins. These he turned over to the largest and best known hat manufacturers in the East, with the request that they experiment with the rabbit fur, and determine its suitability for hat manufacture. A long strike occurred in the factory in which the rabbit fur was sent, delaying the experiment, but eventually Mr. Sinnott received by express a handsome pearl gray fedora, made from the fur shipped to him from Eastern Oregon. He at once donned his new headgear, and exhibited it to other congressmen from the West, telling that he had at last found a market for the jackrabbits, or at least for their fur. The jackrabbit hat seems to be the equal of any $5 felt hat on the market. It is of fine, soft texture, smooth to the touch, and clear in color and grain. Members who examined it pronounced it a first class headpiece, and one that ought to command a good price in the market. There was some jealousy on the part of the other Western congressmen, however, because Mr. Sinnott "beat them to it," and found a market for what had been one of the great waste products of the West. Mr. Sinnott was told by the manufacturers, who entered upon the experiment with some doubts, that the Oregon jackrabbit fur made a much better hat than they had anticipated. He also learned from them that jackrabbits to be valuable for hat manufacture must be killed in the winter months, when their fur is heaviest, and must come from the colder portions of the West. Fur of rabbits from the Southwest has previously been tested and found unsuitable.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

WE EAT TOO MUCH MEAT, WHICH CLOGS KIDNEYS, THEN THE BACK HURTS Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged, and need a flushing occasionally else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness, and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. The famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithiawater drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications. A well known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.
