

War Brings Want and Suffering to All Women

United Press Service

LONDON, July 15.—Despite the provisions the British government is supposed to make for the wives and families of its men at the front, an expose in the Labor Herald today would indicate that some of England's women and children feel the pinch of poverty during wartime quite as much as thousands of American militiamen's wives and children feel it since their breadwinners have been called to the Mexican border.

The allegations concerning the alleged pension evils are attracting the attention not only of labor union, but of government officials.

The Herald gives a long list of inadequate pension and says: If this kind of thing happens while the war is on and men are needed, what must happen when peace is declared and the services of men in the army and navy are no longer required?

"Some of the cases are: 'A horse-shoer who could easily earn $20 a week, was wounded in 1915 and discharged. He is still under a doctor's care and some days cannot work at all. He has been granted a pension of $2.70 a week and has a wife and seven children, the oldest 14 years and the youngest three weeks.

"A private in the army service corps with a wife and four children, the oldest 14 years and the youngest eleven weeks, was discharged as medically unfit and suffering from general debility. His pension is $1.16 a week for six months.

"Another soldier, shot through the arm, who cannot get work because one arm is disabled, was awarded a pension of $1.30 a week for six months.

"Another soldier who had been in the army for twelve years, discharged this year, is very ill in a London hospital, while his wife and five children, who found themselves unable to live on his pension of $1.16 a week, are being cared for by the poor board.

"Another human wreck from the Royal marines, discharged for nerves, following fever, must try to keep his wife and five children on a pension of $2.80 a week."

MRS. HETTY GREEN
"ASTOR WILKS"

E. H. R. GREEN

Colonel E. H. R. Green, son of Mrs. Hetty Green, and Mrs. Matthew Astor Wilks, her daughter, inherit all the fortune of their mother. They split the estate variously estimated from $60,000,000 to $100,000,000, except for $5,000,000, which is given to Mrs. Wilks. Colonel Green explained that bequest was made to even up for property his mother had given him during her lifetime, because she wanted her two children to share and share alike in her property.

Moving Pictures

Photoplays have no fury like a jealous prima donna, and basing the principal motive for an exciting and intensely interesting story on the results of a prima donna's hatred of a chorus girl, who has won the love of a college boy who has been spending his money freely upon the leading lady, Bluebird Photoplays present "Bobbie of the Ballet" at the Orpheum theater on Sunday and Monday, with Louise Lovely appearing as the star. Gretchen Lederer impersonates the jealous leading lady and the studied craftiness of a jealous woman will be superlatively demonstrated in Miss Lederer's artistry. Equally effective will be the work of Miss Lovely, pretty as her name implies, and an established favorite with devotees of Bluebirds. Counterplot intensifies the exciting interest in the main story; there is the humane action of an out and out crook contrasted with the degrading conduct of a man presumed to be a "gentleman"; and there is a highly moral purpose to a photoplay that will grip the interest of the observer to the very last foot of the film.

Burr McIntosh, an author and writer of national fame, and the man who dedicated the White Pelican hotel, is featured in the big five reel photodrama, "My Partners," to be shown at the Star Theater Monday night only. The plot of the story is laid in Klamath county, and should be of special interest to local people.

Richard Travers will be seen at the Star tonight in a six-part Essanay feature entitled "The Man Trail." This feature will be found to be one of Essanay's best production, and will find Richard Travers in his best role. An all-star cast supports Mr. Travers, making it a sure winner.

Joe Knowles to Have Six Eyes

United Press Service

NEW YORK, July 15.—Six modern eyes of unknown identity are determined to accompany the modern Adam, Joe Knowles, when he leaves his palatial apartment here today to plunge, nude, into the woods of the Adirondack hills on another of his famous back-to-nature jamborees.

Knowles lives this way a month a year. When he goes in the only thing wrapped about him is his expression. When he comes out he is well fed on fruits, nuts and herbs, and clad in a dervish suit.

Knowles didn't want the women with him, so he chose one of them, Mrs. Emily Davis, whose husband was killed in the fighting in Northern France recently, and who is an experienced woodswoman, to take charge of the six eyes after he has chosen a camp for them and left preliminary instructions in the art of finding edible roots and how to make snares, traps and fish nets of grasses and fibre.

This cornetless, unharpinned and non-mirrored sextette of eyes will live for a month in the secret camp in the Adirondacks, then Knowles will go back to get them.

IF KIDNEYS ACT

BAD TAKE SALTS

SAYS BACKACHE IS SIGN YOU

HAVE BEEN EATING TOO MUCH

MEAT

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region

it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well known authority.

Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood, and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy.

When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scales and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take before breakfast in a glass of water for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to cleanse and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a delightful, effervescent little water drink.

DEAREST PUBLIC
This is to let you know that I am starving.

Pretty, tho, isn't it?
Why don't you come in and get a net of those ice tea glasses. Sure, you can use them for beer on water—anything you like; and they are cheap.

We also have the ice tea spoons, and they have the same disease—cheap.

Science has just revealed that most of the "peaches" hang round on their limbs. No, I mean twigs.

If you wish to have your Parisian Ivory engraved bring it in, as Mr. Davis is the champion at this work.

We will have a sample of the work in the window this coming week. If you are going fishing you should have a set of nested drinking cups, as they are useful and sanitary, and prevent pollywogs from going down the catchpots.

And, Dorothy, if you ever are going to crave love, it should take on you noon. We have a stock of diamond rings and a big bunch of "slavery" rings in the latest patterns.

We can reset your diamond while you wait, and you are foolish to let it go, for when you do lose it the clock is not great that you are going to find it again.

If 'tis a watch you crave see our stock. Solid gold wrist watches for $15.00.

You ought to have a Thomson bottle if you go to the moon.

When is love the youngest?
I shall be old you for life if you don't get a move on, and hurry to my aid, as I am starving right now.

Please come over and buy a diamond. MANHATTAN.
