KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 1916

AT PUBLIC EXPENSE

THE fact that Secretary McAdoo's speech, delivered at Raleigh, N. C., was thrice printed at Government expense—twice in the same edition of the Congressional Record, and once as a public document—indicates that the democrats have crowned McAdoo the prize Munchausen of the democratic party.

This speech will be sent all over the country as a campaign document, and will not pay postage. Several tons of democratic publicity matter will be franked this year. If the taxpayers delight in fiction, the democrats think they should pay the freight.

HUERTA didn't salute the flag. Carranza didn't give a statement of his intentions. The party making the demand in each instance was Woodrow Wilson. Yet Huerta was malignantly pursued to his downfall and death, while Carranza is given another chance, almost his hundredth, and is to be provided with American funds. Wonder why.

Edward B. McLean, son and heir of the late John R. McLean, who is believed to have left between $50,000,000 and $100,000,000, has begun a remarkable suit in Washington to prevent letters received by his father from being made public. Mr. McLean, who was publisher of the Cincinnati Enquirer, received personal letters from at least three ambassadors and many prominent Americans, including two prominent women who proposed to him. The publication of these letters, the younger McLean asserts, would bring humiliation on many well known persons. It has even been said it would result in the immediate recall of one ambassador at Washington.

The first automobile to reach the rim of Crater Lake this year was the stage from Kirk to the lake, and carried passengers from Klamath Falls. The party in the car was composed of R. J. Smith, district freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, and friends. They made the trip Monday, returning yesterday.

A few hours after they reached the rim several cars from Medford also reached it, expecting to be the first ones this year.

Mr. Smith is here on official business. He says he believes the best way to reach Crater Lake is via Klamath Falls, and that he is going to do all he can to advertise the lake and the Klamath Falls route to it. The Southern Pacific is now running trains to Kirk Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and an auto stage takes passengers from there to the lake.

About August 5th Mr. Smith is to return on a pleasure trip to the lake and other Klamath attractions with a private party of several California people. Those who were with him in the first car to the lake Monday were Mrs. E. M. Moore of Philadelphia, Miss Ines M. Green and Mrs. Joseph Daniels of San Jose, and Captain George E. Goodwin, engineer in charge of roads construction in Crater Lake National Park.

Conditions in the county jail are good as they can be made, according to the prisoners now confined there. The jail is kept sanitary, the bedding is clean and comfortable, and the food pure and plentiful, say the prisoners.

"We are treated very well by Sheriff Low, and have no complaint," said James Midkiff, who is under indictment for non-support of his wife. "We do our own cooking, and when we need food we tell the sheriff, and he orders what we want."

"The confinement, of course, is hard to bear, but we can't find fault with our treatment."

Four thousand, eight hundred and eighty-two miles with but one puncture and no other trouble whatsoever, is the record of L. E. Ross and party of Texarkana, Texas and Arkansas. They are making a tour of the entire West, including Yellowstone Park, Crater Lake and California in a Packard twin six.

"Texarkana is cut in the middle by the Texas and Arkansas state line," said Mr. Ross this morning. "The state line runs through the very middle of the postoffice and the depot. One half of the depot is the Iron Mountain and the other half is the Texas Pacific. A row of white bricks in the street marks the state line. If you live on one side of that line you must get your mail from that side of the post-office, and vice versa."

With Mr. Ross are William Buchanan and W. B. Brazelton.

MAN WHO DIED IS ALIVE TODAY

HEART STOPPED ON OPERATING TABLE, BUT PHYSICIANS OPENED SIDE, FONDLED HEART, AND BROUGHT BACK LIFE

United Press Service LONDON, July 1.—(By mail)—Lance Corporal Maves, Queen's Westminster regiment, lives today to be able to say that he died. A German shell clipped off part of Maves' right arm at Ypres last Christmas. Eventually he landed in a London hospital with a stump of an arm that threatened blood poison. An operation became necessary.

Under an anesthetic the soldier's heart collapsed and ceased to beat. The patient was dead. The surgeon in charge tried a quick experiment. He made an incision large enough to admit his hand in Maves' side. He lifted the diaphragm, reached the heart, and gently massaged the organ with his fingers. The heart responded and resumed pulsations.

Maves is now on the road to complete recovery. In another month he will be wearing an artificial arm and learning to use it in a trade which he will be taught by the government.

No man or woman who eats meat regular can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become over worked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.
