COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

MARKERS BEAUTIFULLY AND RESTORES ITS NATURAL COLOR AND LUSTRE AT ONCE

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the sage tea and sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, costing about 6 cents a bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of mess. While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application of two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

REPUBLICAN IDEAS WIN

MR. WILSON ordered the house ways and means committee to provide in the revenue bill for the creation of a tariff commission. Until he changed his mind suddenly last winter the democratic party has always been bitterly opposed to the creation of such a commission. It scrapped the Taft tariff board as soon as it obtained control of the government in 1913. It was entirely logical in fighting the tariff commission principle, since the existence of a tariff commission implies a purpose to adjust tariff schedules to economic needs and to make customs rates harmonize with conditions of trade and production, both in our own market and in the world market. If tariffs are to be levied for revenue only, as the democratic party has contended for many decades, there can be no need of a permanent tariff commission. The secretary of the treasury and congress can easily figure out the income needed without the aid from experts in international competition or domestic cost of production. Republicans will gladly contribute to the creation of a tariff board. They will also cheerfully support the section in the revenue bill which seeks to protect by higher duties the manufacturers who are trying to establish an American coal tar dye industry. By a sensible use of the taxing power such an industry can easily be domesticated, just as the tinplate industry was created here in 1891 by a few lines in the McKinley tariff law.

Organized Sneezers to Hold Convention

United Press Service BETHLEHEM, N. H., July 27.—No-body nose how many members of the National Hay Fever Association will attend the annual convention up here in the White Mountains August 21st. But there are 200,000 sneezers, sneezers and sneezettes enroled, and a good many thousand of them will be here, from all over the country. According to the report of President John R. Pinover, these sneeze-ridden sneezers sneeze some seventy-three sneezes a day, for an average of forty-one sneezy days a year. This gives us 6,003,300,000 sneezes to look forward to this year. Most of these young explosions will, as usual, wait until they catch their victims in the middle of the preacher's prayer, or some place like that before demanding expression. In volume of noise these sneezes will be equal to seventeen European wars and a municipal trolley system. They will necessitate the use of six handkerchiefs per day per sneezer, a total of 1,200,000 fabrics a day for the 200,000, or 450,400 hankies to register the hay fever vote of the eyes and nose for the season. Present and sneezing at the convention will be Henry Altman of East 87th street, New York, the noblest sneezer of them all. Altman has tried 100 remedies, including psycho-analysis, suggestive therapy, Bahamian, Yogiism, astrology, osteopathy, bleeding, hypnotism, auto-suggestion and auto-nobbling, singing, science and scores of others. A number of rose favorites will be among the hayes, the hayes last year deciding by a straw vote to welcome them. The case of a Texas member who sued his insurance company for double indemnity because he suffered complete disability for two weeks as the result of being hit by a sneeze germ while riding on a train, will be discussed.

Moving Pictures

Rather a good program of comedies will be shown at the Star tonight along with the ninth episode of the "Mysteries of Myra." Mr. Frank Daniels will be seen in one of his funniest comedies, "Mr. Jack Trifles," and you are sure of a good laugh at this leading comedian. A Luke comedy, showing his troubles in a studio, will also be seen as well "The Stolen Pie," and don't forget that the Peerless Orchestra will "be there" with the music, as usual.

Forest Receipts This Year Highest Recorded

(Herald Special Service) PORTLAND, July 27.—Receipts from national forests for the fiscal year 1916 reached the high water mark of approximately $2,820,000, according to figures just compiled. This is $341,000 above the 1915 total, which in turn exceeded any previous year. Officials say the gain was due to increased demand for all classes of forest products. There was a decided growth in the revenue from all sources, the largest being that of $203,000 in timber sales. Grazing fees showed a gain of $77,000. Receipts for water power development were over $12,000 more than in 1915. Sales of turpentine privileges and charges for special uses were both considerably in excess of the previous year. Officials say that the national forests are important factors in the prosperity of the regions in which they are located, on account of the large amounts of timber, range and other resources which they hold available for use as needed. Business conditions are reflected in the receipts of the forests. Consequently the showing for the past year is regarded as an index of increased business activity throughout the sections where the national forests are found.

Yuan Shi Kai's Children Scattered as Per Will

PEKIN, July 27.—In accordance with the late President Yuan Shi Kai's final instructions, sons and daughters of the dead ruler are preparing today to be sent to many widely separated places in charge of government officials. Before his death, Yuan Shi Kai directed that his eldest, second and third sons and all his daughters and concubines should return to his native place to be cared for by Yuan Shi Fu, his fifth youngest brother. His fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh sons were ordered sent to England in charge of Yen Hsiu, former minister of education, for their schooling. His four youngest sons were entrusted to the care of Hsu Shihchang, former secretary of state. Several weeks having elapsed since the death of the ruler, the tension at foreign legations here is decreased, and fear that a disturbance similar to the Boxer war, might be imminent, has been dissipated. For some time after Yuan's death foreigners believed danger near. At several of the legations entrenchments were thrown up, machine guns placed at advantageous positions, and large stores of food prepared for a siege. Foreigners were warned to be ready to seek the shelter of their legations at a moment's notice.

Figures in Immigration Fight

Representative William S. Bennett made serious charges in the house of representatives against Frederick C. Howe, immigration commissioner in charge of Ellis Island, where nine-tenths of the foreigners who come to America enter. He said the island was badly mismanaged, and that the commissioner was inefficient and negligent and that immigrants arriving there were not treated properly. Mr. Howe is from Cleveland. He had been known as a social worker and at the time of his appointment he was at the head of the People's Institute, a charity and social society in New York city.

DEAREST PUBLIC

Just returned after communing with nature. This is accomplished by allowing all the different kinds of insects to parade the shape of will and use one for a pasture, and eat a lot of self-cooked grub, not food, and lie around the campfire and groan from sheer misery in bed, and get up so tired that you can hardly walk, and go fishing and get no fish and get wet as the devil, and take a fresh cold, and live in a prohibition state, and come home with a dome filled with sweet reminiscences of fir trees and blue jays and a lot of places partially healed on the chassis. Who said B. V. D.'s? This is to remind you that we have some seasonable articles that we would like to have you "fall" for before fall. And, Florence, we have still some diamonds, so you had better have this guy get busy, 'cause it won't be long before we will again be fast in the grasp of "Winter's mitts." Have you the time? We have, in various forms. "Time is money," so sayeth the wise guy, so you can make a trade with us if you have the money. We got a new batch of Ingersoll watches. A big new line of Tiffany diamond mountings. Fine new stock of French Ivory. We have no money, and ask your assistance. No. 511 Main street, between heaven and earth in this city. This is the scream of poor McHATTAN.
