

RUSSIAN FORCES CAPTURE BRODY

BILLINGS ADMITS HE IS "IT" IN BOMB EXPLOSION

AUSTRIANS RETIRE BEFORE RUSSIANS

REGIMENTS ANNIHILATED IN THE POZIERES FIGHT

Dutch Paper Says Fryatt Execution Surpasses Cavell Murder in "Cold-Blooded Ferocity"—Zeppelins Shell English Towns, But Do Little Damage and Kill None—One Raider Is Driven Away.

United Press Service LONDON, July 29.—General Haig this afternoon reports that two violent German counterattacks in the Delville woods have been repulsed. Evidence that several German regiments were annihilated in the hand to hand struggles north of Pozieres continues to reach London.

United Press Service PETROGRAD, July 29.—The Russians have captured Brody. General Brusiloff has resumed the offensive and is throwing back the Teuton lines onto Rovlech.

The Teutons have retired south of the Dniester. The advance of the Russian forces in the Caucasus mountains continues unabated. A German attack northwest of Sokal was repulsed this morning.

United Press Service BERLIN, July 29.—It is officially announced that a strong British attack on Pozieres this morning failed. The Russians have penetrated the advanced lines around Tryten, causing the Germans to cross the Stockholm River.

United Press Service LONDON, July 29.—Dispatches from the Dutch newspaper Maastricht, say that Kaiser Wilhelm confirmed the sentence of Captain Fryatt, who was executed yesterday. It says the execution surpasses that of Edith Cavell in "cold-blooded atrocity."

United Press Service ROME, July 29.—It is officially announced that the Italian liner Retalvia, en route to New York, beat off a submarine in the Atlantic Ocean and continued her journey.

United Press Service LONDON, July 29.—It is announced that three Zeppelins participated in a raid on Lincolnshire and Norfolk last night, dropping thirty-two bombs. There were no casualties and little damage done. Anti-aircraft guns routed the raiders at one point.

To Give Entertainment Militiamen's Families

To raise money for the dependent families of Oregon militiamen on the border, the Klamath Commercial Club plans to give an entertainment at the Houston opera house next Friday evening. All the money made from the entertainment will go to the militiamen's families. This action is being taken in response to an appeal from Governor Withrow.

TEN AUTOMOBILES RECEIVED TODAY

SIX ARE CHEVROLETS AND FOUR BUICKS—NEARLY ALL OF THEM HAVE BEEN SOLD, BUICKS IN LAKE COUNTY

Ten new automobiles were received at the local depot this morning by the White Pelican and Central garages. In the car for the White Pelican garage were three Buick sixes and one 1917 model Buick four. All of these cars have been sold in Lake county, one of them to Ernest Clark, cashier of the bank of Lakeview. Six Chevrolet were received in the other car for the Central garage. Five of these were the $490 fours and the other a Baby Grand four. One has been sold to Jeff Riddle and one to Stephen DeValentine, and deals for the sale of the others are pending.

MCCORNACK FUNERAL IN SALEM SUNDAY OR MONDAY

The funeral of the late Eugene McCornack, who died of heart disease in Salem yesterday morning, will be held tomorrow or Sunday in Salem. Rufus S. Moore, Mrs. C. S. Moore and Andrew Collier left this morning for Salem to attend the funeral.

Many at Eagle Ridge.

The following guests are registered at Eagle Ridge Tavern, the popular summer resort on Upper Klamath Lake conducted by Mrs. Mary Griffith: Mr. and Mrs. Morgan A. Gunst, Mrs. M. A. Cohen, Miss Rose Cohen, Mrs. M. A. Jacobs and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Cushing, Miss L. Vanderhurst, Miss M. Griffith, San Francisco; Dr. R. F. Rooney, Auburn, Calif.; J. H. Burnham, Folsom; L. L. Green, Oroville; Emery Oliver, Boyd Oliver, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Koepfle, Joseph Koepfle, Miss Koepfle, Irving James, Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Lantorm, Lloyd Lantorm, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. John Shannonhouse, Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Jannau, Edith L. Jannau, C. Annette Ripley, Kathryn J. Williams.

Files Suit

Suit to recover $1,500 was filed in circuit court today by Clara Ream against Edward Ream. Plaintiff is represented by Stone, Gale & Cress.

Paralysis Cured by Juice of Plant Centuries Ago

United Press Service NEW YORK, July 29.—Believing that infantile paralysis was the disease ravaging in China centuries ago and which was cured with the juice of an Oriental plant, five Chinese physicians today asked permission to study the disease with the commission of American experts.

Night Shift Stopped.

Pelican Bay mill has discontinued its night shift for a few days on account of the crowded condition of the yard, due to a shortage of cars. It is expected the mill will resume night operations again next Tuesday.

Beginning next Wednesday evening,

a series of at least six dances are to be given at the pavilion for the benefit of the players on the Klamath Falls baseball team. These dances are dated for August 2, 16, 30, September 13, 27, October 11.

First Meeting of the Men Who Will Manage the Campaign of Charles E. Hughes

This photograph shows the first meeting of the republican national campaign committee, the members of which will be responsible for the campaign of Charles E. Hughes. George W. Perkins, late manager of the progressive national convention, is conspicuous in the front row.

First row, from left to right: Charles B. Warren of Michigan, Alvah H. Martin of Virginia, Senator John W. Weeks of Massachusetts, William R. Wilcox of New York (chairman of the republican national committee), Cornelius Bliss Jr. (treasurer of the republican national committee), Oscar Strauss of New York and George W. Perkins of New York.

Second row, from left to right: Senator Reed Smoot of Utah, R. B. Howell

of Nebraska, James B. Reynolds (secretary of the republican national committee), A. T. Hert of Kentucky, Phillip B. Campbell of Kansas, Fred W. Upham (Western treasurer of the republican national committee), F. W. Estabrook of New Hampshire, James R. Garfield of New Hampshire, Beverly R. Robinson (assistant treasurer of the republican national committee), Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas, Jas.

A. Hemenway of Indiana, Senator Thomas Sterling of South Dakota and Birch Helms.

Third row, left to right: John Monk, Herbert Parsons of New York, Senator James W. Wadsworth of New York, John T. Adams of Iowa, Harold L. Icks of Illinois, C. Bascom Slomp of Virginia, Richard W. Austin of Tennessee and Senator Everett Colby of New Jersey.

NEW EXCURSION RATE TO FRISCO

A daily round trip summer excursion rate between Klamath Falls and San Francisco of $21.55 has just been announced by the Southern Pacific company. This rate will be offered until October 31st.

At present there is a special Friday and Saturday round trip rate to San Francisco of $17.75, but this not good for passengers leaving Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Sunday. The regular fare to San Francisco and return is $26.50. The daily round trip rate of $21.55 will be good after August 8th.

The Southern Pacific also announces that the train leaving Klamath Falls at 12:01 p. m. is now making stops, both ways, at Dorris, Macdoel, Mt. Hebron, Bray and Grass Lake. When this train was first put on it made no local stops between Klamath Falls and Weed.

PARALYSIS CURED BY JUICE OF PLANT CENTURIES AGO

United Press Service NEW YORK, July 29.—Believing that infantile paralysis was the disease ravaging in China centuries ago and which was cured with the juice of an Oriental plant, five Chinese physicians today asked permission to study the disease with the commission of American experts.

Night Shift Stopped.

Pelican Bay mill has discontinued its night shift for a few days on account of the crowded condition of the yard, due to a shortage of cars. It is expected the mill will resume night operations again next Tuesday.

Beginning next Wednesday evening,

a series of at least six dances are to be given at the pavilion for the benefit of the players on the Klamath Falls baseball team. These dances are dated for August 2, 16, 30, September 13, 27, October 11.

Strahorn Will Arrive in Klamath Falls Monday

Robert E. Strahorn, builder of the proposed railroad from Bend to Klamath Falls, will be in Klamath Falls next Monday. The White Pelican hotel last night received word to this effect. Some of Mr. Strahorn's baggage arrived yesterday from Bend. Mr. Strahorn is accompanied by his wife and today is somewhere between Bend and Klamath Falls, having left the former place several days ago. It is not known how long he will remain in Klamath Falls, and arrangements for his entertainment will not be made until he arrives and expresses his wishes.

FLOWER SHOW WILL BE HELD

To make preliminary arrangements for a flower show, a meeting of the members of the civic department of the Women's Library Club has been called for next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Louis H. Bath, president of the civic department. The flower show will be given at the Hotel Hall, in conjunction with Klamath Commercial Club, and is to be a part of the city beautiful contest. Details of the show have not been decided upon, but will be arranged at the meeting Monday afternoon.

Want Delegation here.

Efforts are being made by Klamath Commercial Club to have the delegation from the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce that is to tour Oregon next month, stay a few days in Klamath county. The delegation is coming as representatives of the Chamber of Commerce of the Bay City. Its itinerary is not known, but representations are being made in advance to have the delegation include Klamath in its trip.

NOTED MUSICIAN HERE NEXT WEEK

Through the efforts of Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, Mr. H. B. Passmore, a musician of national reputation, who is to be in Klamath Falls next week on his way to Crater Lake, will spend a week here. Mr. Passmore while here will give private lessons to several of Mrs. Zumwalt's pupils and to a few other local musicians. At the White Pelican hotel a reception will be tendered Mr. Passmore next Saturday evening.

Rev. Richards Returns.

Rev. E. C. Richards and wife will return this evening from Ashland where they have been for the last month on a vacation. Rev. Richards will fill his pulpit in the Methodist church tomorrow morning.

Leave for Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Paul left this morning for Ogden, Utah. Mr. Paul for some time has conducted a paint store in the west end of town.

YUMA, Ariz., July 29.—The battalion of twenty-first infantry is leaving here today, following indications of further trouble with Mexicans in Lower California.

United Press Service

SAN DIEGO, July 29.—The Mexican consul here gave notice today that no more mining concessions will be granted in Mexico until a review of tax rates is completed. Drastic changes in the rates is indicated. It is believed that the object is to prevent speculators from holding mining claims and to force development of them.

Railroad Men Here.

F. E. Batturs, assistant traffic manager, W. B. Kirkland, trainmaster for the Shasta division, and F. N. McPhee, chief dispatcher of the San Joaquin division of the Southern Pacific railroad, left yesterday with W. Paul Johnson for Crater Lake and other scenic attractions in the northern part of Klamath county.

From Crystal Creek.

Miss Jessie Rose returned yesterday to her home near Crystal, after a short business visit here.

LOCAL YOUTHS TO PLAY DAIRY COWBOYS SUNDAY

To play a game tomorrow afternoon with the Dairy Cowboys, managed by Ross Sutton, nine Klamath Falls youths will leave tomorrow morning for Dairy, with C. T. Oliver, who has gathered the local team. The boys who will play for Oliver tomorrow are Noel, Simmers, Montgomery, Messner, Page, Hardenbrook, Hurn, Steiger, and C. Arnold. Hardenbrook, Hurn or Steiger will pitch.

Rev. Richards Returns.

Rev. E. C. Richards and wife will return this evening from Ashland where they have been for the last month on a vacation. Rev. Richards will fill his pulpit in the Methodist church tomorrow morning.

Leave for Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Paul left this morning for Ogden, Utah. Mr. Paul for some time has conducted a paint store in the west end of town.

YUMA, Ariz., July 29.—The battalion of twenty-first infantry is leaving here today, following indications of further trouble with Mexicans in Lower California.

United Press Service

CHICAGO, July 29.—Crazed by the extreme heat, Edgar Foster today killed his young son and fatally wounded Miss Bertha Brown.

There is no hope for relief from the heat for another week, say weather bureau experts. Seventy-two deaths were reported in the twenty-four hours ending at midnight last night. Thirty-five of these were outside of Chicago.

At Belvidere, Ill., the thermometer is at 104 degrees in the shade. Factories in Belvidere closed at noon, the employes threatening to strike on account of the heat.

Iowa corn crops are withering to the ground under the intense heat of the sun.

The temperature in Chicago this afternoon is 98 degrees. Factories are shutting down and stores are closing early. Several hundred prostrations are reported. Horses are dead in the streets. Forty-four babies less than a year old have died during the day from the heat.

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29.—The weather bureau officials here predict that the Middle West hot wave will continue for several days. Warmer weather also will come in the West.

TWO SUSPECTS OFFER TO MAKE REVELATIONS

Believed Billings Has Offered to Confess—Arrests of Three More Suspects Promised by Monday, One a Ringleader—Prisoners Communicate With Each Other While Confined in Jail.

United Press Service

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—It is believed that Warren K. Billings has offered to confess to the bomb explosion last Saturday. After a severe cross examination of Billings this morning, District Attorney Fickert said: "Billings has admitted that he was 'it.'" He declined to interpret "it." Fickert declares that two other suspects have offered to make revelations if offered immunity. The offer was rejected. The authorities say they have learned all they want to know from the pair.

Captain Matheson says he expects to arrest three more suspects before Monday, but will not say who they are, but believes one is a ringleader in the gang that perpetrated the outrage of last Saturday.

It is believed that Billings took orders from "higher ups."

District Attorney Fickert admits that he believes that the suspects are able to communicate with each other, although held in separate parts of the jail.

The newspapers are quoting Billings as saying that he would trust to luck to get him out of his trouble.

LOCAL YOUTHS TO PLAY DAIRY COWBOYS SUNDAY

To play a game tomorrow afternoon with the Dairy Cowboys, managed by Ross Sutton, nine Klamath Falls youths will leave tomorrow morning for Dairy, with C. T. Oliver, who has gathered the local team. The boys who will play for Oliver tomorrow are Noel, Simmers, Montgomery, Messner, Page, Hardenbrook, Hurn, Steiger, and C. Arnold. Hardenbrook, Hurn or Steiger will pitch.

Rev. Richards Returns.

Rev. E. C. Richards and wife will return this evening from Ashland where they have been for the last month on a vacation. Rev. Richards will fill his pulpit in the Methodist church tomorrow morning.

Leave for Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Paul left this morning for Ogden, Utah. Mr. Paul for some time has conducted a paint store in the west end of town.

Thermometer Says 104 Degrees in Belvedere

At Belvidere, Ill., the thermometer is at 104 degrees in the shade. Factories in Belvedere closed at noon, the employes threatening to strike on account of the heat. Iowa corn crops are withering to the ground under the intense heat of the sun. The temperature in Chicago this afternoon is 98 degrees. Factories are shutting down and stores are closing early. Several hundred prostrations are reported. Horses are dead in the streets. Forty-four babies less than a year old have died during the day from the heat.