EDDIE BOGART MAY NOT PLAY BALL TOMORROW

CARMAN WILL STAY WITH KLAMATH FALLS CLUB

Alten and Nelson Will Be Switched. Trying to Get Shortstop From Weed. Prineville Here With Fast Team and Confident Fans—Game Sure to Be a Fast One, With Klamath's Not Overly Bright.

With Eddie Bogart, shortstop, unable to play because of a lame foot, with no one available to fill his place, and with Prineville confident and backed by loyal fans, things do not look extra bright for a victory for Klamath Falls at Modoc Park tomorrow afternoon.

Bogart cannot wear a shoe today because his foot was pierced a few days ago by a nail. Sam Jolly will not be here for the game. Clarke, however, probably will be able to work behind the plate.

Most of the Prineville players and fans already are here. The first carload arrived this morning. The visitors expect to walk away with the long end of the score, and some of the fans with them say they are willing to chance a little lucre on their team.

The line-up for tomorrow's game, as announced today noon by Manager Watt, will be as follows: Clarke catcher, Bigbee pitcher, Alten 1st base; Nelson second, Bowden third, Palmer left, Johnson center, Carman right. This may be changed, pending securing another player.

Local fans are rejoicing over the news that Fred Carman has decided to stay with the local club, instead of going to Seattle or Chico. It is understood that at the meeting Thursday arrangements were made that wholly satisfy him.

At the Orpheus

The husband and father was too lazy to work, too shiftless to even look for work with any intention of securing employment. When he once in a while made pretense of seeking a job, he would leave the house, buy a dime novel and wife took in washing to support him; his daughter worked in a cheap store, half-slave, long hours, for a pittance, to add more to the meager sum that should sustain life in their small family—and provide the lazy father with money to sit on a bench in the park until time to come home to his meals. This male's novels, with the "price of a can of beer" and his pipe and tobacco, satisfied him. The girl needed shoes; there was no money left from her weekly pay envelope which she took home unopened, to her mother. The stern decree of poverty confronted her—she simply must have shoes, for the ones she had worn for months were literally falling from her feet. And shoes she got—at the greatest price woman can pay. Such, in brief, is the outline of the greatest sociological lesson ever spread before the eyes of any community—the Bluebird photoplay, "Shoes," with Mary MacLaren playing the role of the sorely tried shop girl, is the attraction for the Orpheus theater on Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Nellie Wattenburg, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, was the guest of honor at a reception given by Prosperity Rebekah Lodge 194, I. O. O. F., last Wednesday evening at the Odd Fellow's hall. This was the first time that the members of her "home lodge" had had an opportunity of meeting Sister Wattenburg since she was elected president of the assembly in May, as the duties of the new office have kept her away from home until last Monday. In the receiving line with Mrs. Wattenburg were Sisters who served by the young ladies of the lodge. The remainder of the evening Alice Goeller, Alice Baldwin and Dolly Uehrling, all Past Noble Grands and charter members of Prosperity Lodge, and Sister Myrtle Martin, Past Noble Grand of Merrill Rebekah Lodge. After all had greeted the president, she was escorted to a seat of honor and a short address of welcome was given by Noble Grand Elmer Garcelon. Sister Wattenburg responded in a pleasing and sincere manner, and said that although she had met with kindness and hospitality at every place she had visited since assuming the duties of her office, there is, after all, no place like home. Later in the evening Sister

Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg
President Rebekah Assembly

Wattenburg gave a most interesting account of the different lodges she had visited officially, of the many kindnesses that had been extended to her, and also told of her visit to the Washington Assembly at Everett. An interesting musical and literary program was rendered, and later refreshments were served in social converse and cards. The committee in charge of the affair was composed of Sisters Elizabeth Hamsby, Mary North and Jennie Hurn, and the success of the evening was due to their efforts. The lodge rooms in the I. O. O. F. hall were beautifully decorated with a profusion of flowers. Following is the program:

Address of Welcome—Eddie Garcelon
Response—Mrs. Wattenburg
Vocal Solo—Mrs. Carl Cofer
Reading—Frank Armstrong
Piano Duet—Misses Vera Houston and Greta McMillan

Solo—Mrs. Vernon Motschenbacher
Instrumental solo—Mrs. C. Garcelon

A miscellaneous shower was given last night by several friends for Miss Elsie Steinhilber, who is to be married next month to Harry Shepherd, a lands cape architect of Los Angeles. The party went in automobiles to the McCracken ranch on Upper Klamath Lake, and there enjoyed a picnic supper. Later they returned to town and went in a body to the show. Miss Steinhilber received many beautiful presents. The girls who attended were Miss Dorothy Weeks, Mrs. Margaret Motschenbacher, Miss Ione Steinman, Mrs. F. T. Patrick, Miss Alice Duncan, Miss Alice McCourt, Mrs. Elsie Steinhilber, Miss Jennie Low, Miss Marie Rambo, Miss Maude Newbury, Mrs. Marjorie Wheeler, Miss Dewey Weeks, Mrs. Pearl Martin, Miss Pearl Bovin. Presents were sent by the following girls who could not attend the shower: Miss Elizabeth Houston, Miss Josie Van Ziper, Miss Elsie Orem, Miss Barbara Goeller, Miss Hazel Goeller, Miss Lillian Van Ripper, Miss Walva Jacobs and Miss Mabel Martin.

The Mills Addition Priscilla Club spent a delightful day at Bartlett Springs on Wednesday. After a picnic dinner, to which all did justice, the ladies spent a pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Ray Taylor, who lives near the springs. Before leaving for home Mrs. Taylor served ice cream and cake. Those present were Mrs. Ben Owens, Mrs. J. H. Potter, Mrs. Geo. Ball, Mrs. Catherine Bell, Mrs. Frank Beard, Mrs. Elmer Smith, Mrs. R. L. Alexander,

Mrs. Jess Bailey, Rose Owens, R. L. Alexander and Nelson Smith.

A jolly party consisting of R. L. Alexander and wife, Mrs. John Koontz of Mt. Laki, Mrs. Jennie Dow of Tucson, Arizona, Mrs. George Biehn and daughters, Pearl and Freda, and Rex LaPrairie, motored to Crater Lake last Sunday. As the road to the rim was closed most of the party hiked to the lake, and although they had to go through slush and over snow drifts, the view of the lake was enough to pay for the exertion put forth to get there. All returned declaring it a perfect day and outing.

Mrs. W. Paul Johnson entertained at her home in Hot Springs Tuesday afternoon in honor of her mother-in-law, Mrs. S. S. Johnson of San Francisco.

Mrs. William Hurn was hostess to the Thursday Bridge Club this week at her home on Washington street to members of the club and a few invited guests. She was assisted by Mrs. V. T. Motschenbacher. The high score of the afternoon was made by Mrs. S. S. Johnson of San Francisco. The following attended: Mrs. L. F. Willis, Mrs. Silas Obenchain, Mrs. Louis Gerber, Mrs. E. W. Gowen, Mrs. George Hurn, Mrs. F. J. Williams, Mrs. W. Paul Johnson, Mrs. S. S. Johnson, Mrs. George Watt, Mrs. G. A. Krause, Mrs.

W. M. Duncan, Mrs. E. B. Hall, V. T. Motschenbacher, Mrs. F. White, Mrs. G. H. Merryman, Mrs. Smith and the hostess.
