BIGBEE, CARMAN BEAT DUNSMUIR

FORMER CLOUDS HOME RUN, ALLOWS BUT TWO HITS, AND MAKES FOURTEEN STRIKE-OUTS FOR MCCLLOUD

Allowed only two hits, struck out fourteen batters, and knocked a home run over the fence. That is what Lyle Bigbee did Sunday at Sisson in the McCloud-Dunsmuir ball game. Bigbee pitched for McCloud. Dunsmuir was humbled by a 3-to-0 score.

Bigbee was taking revenge on Dunsmuir because that team cancelled a game with Klamath Falls which had been scheduled for last Sunday. It would appear that he did the thing up brown.

Fred Carman helped lead Dunsmuir to the slaughter. He and Bigbee got about all the hits, and made about all the runs credited to McCloud. Bigbee's homer was the second ever made on the Sisson field.

Wrong Man Named.

The Herald has been informed that D. Ivanikoff and not C. Ivanikoff, is the man who set his 10-year-old son on a hot stove in a fit of anger. The Herald makes this correction in fairness to Mr. C. Ivanikoff.

Moving Pictures

Vicious traits inherited by a youth, which environments and careful upbringing fail to remedy, form the foundation for "The Stain in the Blood," Robert A. Dillon's unusually powerful drama in which Edythe Sterling and Norbert Myles, as sister and brother, appear to splendid advantage. Pointing out a logical way in which criminal tendencies, as well as insanity

Edythe Sterling, Star in the Signal-Mutual Masterpiece, De Luxe Edition, "The Stain in the Blood," and disease, can be passed from one generation to another, this gripping drama combines a novel treatment of a live subject of discussion with an absorbing heart interest story. Mary and Joe Thompson are made orphans by an Indian raid on the wagon train which is carrying their family westward. Joe early develops vicious traits which finally lead him to high-
