AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR TURNS GRAY, FACED HAIR DARK AND GLOSSY

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it, and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy, and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

MEN WANTED FOR THE U. S. ARMY

RECRUITING OFFICER IN KLAMATH FALLS FOR PURPOSE OF RECRUITING MEN FOR REGULAR SERVICE

Sergeant Samuel Henderson has opened a recruiting station at the postoffice. He will be here for a week, to accept all men who can pass the required examination.

Sergeant Henderson stated today that he will accept all young men of 18 years or over without first obtaining the consent of their parents, and young men under 18 years will be accepted with consent of their parents, provided they can pass the examination. He also stated that any man between the ages of 19 and 22, who has served at least one year in the army, has an opportunity to take an examination for admission to the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, in which case all expenses will be paid by the government.

On account of the large increase in the army, men enlisting now will get very rapid advancement. Men with less than one year's service will be eligible as sergeants and first sergeants, whereas it formerly took several years to reach those positions.

All who apply for enlistment now will be sent to San Francisco at the expense of the government. The time to make application is while the recruiting officer is here.

Led the Australians

General Sir William R. Birdwood was the commander of the Australian troops who rushed German trenches at Pozieres in midnight attack. The Australians raced forward through the darkness and stormed their way over the German defenses, finally gaining a footing in the village, which they extended, until within a few hours they held all the positions on one side of the main street. After the first fury of the fighting had passed the conflict settled down into a series of charges and local attacks; the German artillery started firing to cut off the Australians from the British lines with a curtain of fire. At almost the same time the British artillery tried the same tactics to cut off the Germans in the village from reinforcements or supplies. The British guns started another curtain of fire at the other side of the village, and the Australians and Germans who remained fought it out, encircled by a wall of exploding shells and flying bullets.

Night Bathing in Lake Michigan Saved Many

Night bathing in Lake Michigan was the only way they had to cool off saved thousands of persons during the recent hot spell in Chicago. Parts of the lake front swarmed with women bathers till late hours of the night. It was the only way they had to cool off from the great heat of the day. The custom may now be so well established that night bathing will become a regular feature of the summer.

Only an Allied Peace Will Satisfy the Italians

Fighting for Freedom From the "Industrial menace" of Germany, Control of the Adriatic—Won't Hear Peace Until She Obtains These Things.

By JOHN H. HEARLEY

(United Press Staff Correspondent) ROME, July 5.—(By mail)—Only an allied peace can satisfy Italy. The war will continue until only an allied peace can be obtained. This is today's sentiment in Italian diplomatic circles. It is repeated by King Victor in the field. It is endorsed by the people of the Kingdom. In Austria, Italy fights a hated and an hereditary foe. In Germany she opposed an "industrial and commercial menace." The Italians are naturally liberty loving. This characteristic began their war, and will continue it, they declare. To Italy anything, even the greatest bloodshed and the greatest sacrifice, is preferable to a German domination. "Austrians!" she hisses at the house's socialistic deputies who cry for a change in government. She frowns on ex-Premier Giolitti's alleged attempts to return to power. Giolitti has been called Italy's peace-at-any-price. War certainly has sobered and hardened the people. It has made sturdy, stubborn patriots of all classes, especially of the women and children.

Generally Italy wars to save her allies and herself from "oppression." An unselfish allied patriotism seems to have been born of the travail of strife. Particularly she fights to win her own "geographical and marine liberty." As a condition of the allied peace she will press the "correction of her northern border." She will seek, as she always has sought, the return of her "unredeemed lands," Trent and Trieste. The natural fortifications of the Alps, which are now entirely in Austrian territory, must be divided. Italy must have something besides frontier plains and valleys to insure her a peaceful and prosperous life. The almost insurmountable difficulties of her mountain warfare, she asserts, have proven this to her beyond a shadow of a doubt. The "threat" of an armed Austria, looking down upon her, must be forever removed.

In the Italian opinion the Austrian control of the Adriatic also should come to an end. Owing to the unevenness of the balance, Italy declares that her Adriatic commerce has amounted to a practical nothing. On the other hand, Austria, it is asserted, has thrived on her unjust control, and prevented fair competition. Under the spur of such possessions Italy dreams that much of the power of old Rome would return to her. Something of the spirit of that ancient mistress of the world has lately been born again in her. It is showing itself in a thousand and one plans, suddenly formulated and aimed at the acquisition of industrial, commercial and artistic greatness.

The presence of the pope in Rome apparently has done little to complicate the Italian situation. Benedict has made at least one direct plea, and not a few indirect pleas, for a general peace. His efforts have been diplomatically resisted by all the allies, including Italy. The peaceward inquiries of the holy father, it is said, always meet with a unanimous allied response. "We are ready for peace, but only for an allied peace," the allies invariably are reported to reply. The Italian papers generally give but little if any space to the pope's peaceward utterances. Consequently they do not come into the constant thought of the people. The possibility of any marked effect is therefore eliminated.

However, the general belief here is that Germany is seeking to effect peace through the holy father. Papal representations to the central powers are said to have laid the conditions of a pax Germanica before his holiness. The conditions, it is rumored, were felt to be unsatisfactory to the allies on their face. But, as the story goes, the vatican regarded the matter as a starting point. Many believe that they invited President Wilson's recent academic discussions on peace and the apparent interest of the king of Spain.

Italians generally view the alleged performance as a show of German weakness and an enemy plea for an early peace. These can be the necessary preliminary steps that possibly may reach peace, it is admitted. The ball, however, can be and probably will be on the roll for many months, it is rumored. If it is on the roll at all, comes the constant Italian repetition, it is on the roll, not toward a pax Germanica but toward a stable allied peace.

When will the war end? Italian speculation gives the question many answers. The vatican, it is felt, is making a stupendous effort to end the strife before winter. The pope, it is rumored, has not given up hope of accomplishing his purpose. The military apparently does not look for final triumph before 1918. The people guess everything, ranging from five more months to five more years. The Italian government, however, does not speculate. It leaves that to the others.

MAY NATIONALIZE CANADIAN LINES

TWO CANADIANS AND NEW YORK RAILROAD OWNER FORM A COMMISSION OF INVESTIGATION TOWARD THAT END

United Press Service

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 11.—Investigation of Western Canada's railways, with a view of possibly nationalizing transcontinental lines, as least so far as the handling of mail is concerned, was started here today.

Alfred H. Smith, president of the New York Central lines; Sir Henry Drayton, chairman of the Canadian board of railway commissioners, and Sir George Paish, well known British statistician, formed the commission of investigation.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS IF BACK HURTS OR BLADDER BOTHERS

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink.—Adv.
