GLOSSY

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tes and Sulphur, properly compounded and preparing it for a stable governbrings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, phur Compound." You will get a large ottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it, and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time: by morning the gray hair disppears, and after another applicae or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, titlek and glossy, and you ok years younger. Wweth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful tollet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention

THE RAILROAD CONTROVERSY

NOTHING can be gained by the interference of commercial orpanizations, business men and s'ep pers generally in the controversy now going on between the railroads and the employes. The problem is now up to the president and congress, and they should be allowed to work out some solution without outside pres-

Everyone realizes that a strike such as is contemplated by the railroad employes would be one of the greatest calamities that could befall this country. It would be disastrous to every industry and every class. While the American people believe in arbitration, they just as strongly believe in the eight hour day as the basis from which all wages must be figured. There can be no arbitration of the eight hour day. It is the recognized basis on which all work for the govcrament is figured, as well as that of the majority of the big and small cor porations employing labor.

The president attempted to reach ettlement of this problem two years ago, but the results secured through arbitration were unsatisfactory to the employes, as is evident from the presmet squarely at this time, and a solution found that will be lasting. The eight hour day must be recognized eventually by all employers of labor. and then it is up to congress to enac such legislation as will enable such disputes to be settled in the future without jeopardizing the business and prosperity of the whole country.

THE New York World argues for Wilson's re-election on the ground that if he is defeated there will be four months-from election day to inauguration day-when none of the European belligerents will know what our foreign policy is to be. That however, will not trouble them. They have not known at any time within the last three years what our foreign policy was to be from day to day.
