Moving Pictures

If asked to name an example of the French novel, most of us would say "Fanny Constantine," for certainly no other book in the French language is so well known outside its own country. This simple, sentimental story of two lovely American women in a little French village holds its own triumphantly. The charm of the tale is increased in the version which has been prepared for the screen by E. J. Claw son, and produced under the skillful direction of Rupert Julian in "Betinna Loved a Soldier." The cast is altogether a remarkable one, and merits the much abused term, "all star." Besides Louise Lovely, Francella Billington and Director Julian, it includes George Berrill, Elsie Jane Wilson, Douglas Gerrard and Little Zoe Rae. This Bluebird photoplay will be shown at the Orpheus Sunday and Monday.

When "The Dust of Egypt" is seen on the screen it will show a picture of Egyptian manners, costumes and scenic embellishments that looks as if it might have been transplanted from a city by the Nile and preserved for 3,000 years, that picture fans of today might form an idea of how the swells of those early days lived, loved and had their being. As produced by the Vitagraph company, "The Dust of Egypt" is the most important of this company's comedy releases. It is in six parts, and was taken from the well known English farce by Alan Campbell, pictured for the screen by Marguerite Bertsch. At the Star tonight only.

MUSIC'S RE-CREATION—WHAT IS IT?

Music's Re-Creation is Thomas A. Edison's new art. The word Re-Creation was adopted by America's leading music critics to distinguish from talking machines the perfect musical result accomplished by Mr. Edison's new invention

The NEW EDISON

We want you to hear examples of this new art. Come to our store, and let us play literal Re-Creations of the world's great singers and instrumentalists.

Zenatello has recently been knighted by the King of Italy

"A voice of golden tone, prodigal in its expenditure, yet responsive to every emotional shade." This great Italian tenor's voice has just been Re-Created by Edison's wonderful new art. In this picture you see the great Zenatello actually singing in direct comparison with Edison's Re-Creation of his voice, and proving conclusively that his living voice and Edison's Re-Creation of it are indistinguishable. Zenatello is one of the many great artists who have similarly proved the absolute perfection of Edison's new invention.

HEAR EDISON'S RECREATION OF ZENATELLO'S VOICE AND THEN HEAR ZENATELLO HIMSELF WHEN YOU HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY
