Bigger Men Than You Are Wearing White This Summer

SEN. ROBERT L. OWEN, OKLA. SEN. JAMES D. PHILAN, CAL. SEN. JOHN K. SHIELDS, TENN. SEN. JAMES A. REED, MO. SEN. FRANCIS E. WARREN, WYO. SEN. MARCUS A. SMITH, ARIZ.

The United States senate, taken individually believes in white in the summer time. Here are six staid senators, most of them being from the West and South, who refuse to imprison themselves in black in a Washington summer. If white does not harm their dignity why should it hurt that of the everyday man who has no hope of going to the United States senate.

South America is Sitting on a Powder Magazine

By CHARLES P. STEWART (United Press Staff Correspondent) BUENOS AYRES, Aug. 1.—(By cable)—South America's republics today are sitting over just such another powder magazine as the one which exploded two years ago in Europe. In many ways the situation recalls the situation existing in Europe just a few years before the outbreak of the present struggle. The recent hint of war between Venezuela and Peru and Colombia and Ecuador brought South America to sharp attention. They might easily do what the Balkan group did to Europe. There is the same feeling that a widespread clash cannot be prevented, the same conflict of interests, same warnings, same preparations, same groaning under the weight of these preparations and the same undercurrent of international ill-feeling. If and when war comes the two principal belligerents probably will be Argentina and Chile.

Not a country in South America lacks a boundary dispute with some other country. Each is a little Alsace-Lorraine. Chile and Argentina had a nasty dispute of the kind in 1898. It reached a point of mutual mobilization. England interfered and arbitrated. Argentina got a large area of land in Southern Patagonia which Chile claimed should have gone to the latter. This has rankled ever since. Chile is very poor. If she could take by force of arms that land, she might get another portion as indemnity. It would give her all of South America along her present western boundary as far south as the latitude of the Chubuk River, which is about 1,000 miles north of Cape Horn, and thence to the southward, the whole continent from the Pacific to the Atlantic. This would transform Chile into a moderately rich nation, for Southern Patagonia is a fine cattle country, and there are stories of rich petroleum deposits there.

This would mean war with Argentina. Here is where Peru would get into the situation. In 1879, as a result of war, Chile annexed the two southern Peruvian provinces. Peru has been longing ever since for a chance to get them back.

Bolivia is an inland country, with an ambition for a "window" on the Pacific. The two provinces Chile took from Peru are bounded on the west by the Pacific and on the east by Bolivia. On their coasts are the ports of Tacna and Arica. These would constitute a "double window," if Bolivia could get them. Chile probably would turn them over to the Bolivians to defend from Peru. Peru would be too strong for Bolivia, but Ecuador and Colombia would help give Peru a trouncing to keep the latter from trying to enforce claims on parts of the Putumayo rubber country, concerning which Sir Roger Casement made a report a few years ago.

Paraguayans have lost territory to Argentina, and are wild to recover it. Many South Americans believe Paraguay could count on military support from Brazil.

There is no particular reason why Uruguay should be dragged into such a conflict except that, wedged in between Brazil and Argentina, she probably would be coerced into taking a hand against Argentina, owing to outstanding differences of opinion relative to the delimitation of the waters of the River Plate estuary.

Bolivia yearns for a tract in Northern Argentina, and undoubtedly would try to get it if she considered herself strong enough to fight on two fronts simultaneously.

Such a struggle would be bigger, territorially, than the one in Europe. Experts figure that the South American republics could put the following forces into the field:

Argentina, Brazil and Chile, 150,000 each, 450,000; Peru, 90,000; Colombia, Venezuela and Bolivia, 50,000 each, 150,000; Ecuador, 20,000; Paraguay and Uruguay, 10,000 each, 20,000. Total 720,000 men.

WILL VOTE ON JOHNSON TODAY

BIG FIGHT IN CALIFORNIA PRIMARIES TODAY IS BETWEEN JOHNSON AND BOOTH FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 29.—Whether Governor Hiram Johnson or Willis H. Booth of Los Angeles is to make the race for United States senator on the republican ticket next November is the chief matter to be decided by republicans of California in the primary election today.

Governor Johnson is certain to be in on the finale in November, for he has no opposition as a progressive candidate. If he wins over Booth for the republican nomination he will have one opponent less in the final election, being pitted against George S. Patton of Los Angeles, democrat; Walter T. Mills of Berkeley, socialist, and Marshall W. Atwood of Pasadena, prohibitionist. Patton, Atwood and Mills have no opposition for the nominations. If Booth wins today, however, Johnson will run only as a progressive. Judge Walter Bordwell of Los Angeles announced himself as a republican candidate, and went so far as to have his name put on the ballot before he decided he didn't want to make the race.

Besides the nominations for senator, there are eleven congressional nominations of which nine are candidates for re-election: John E. Raker, C. F. Curry, Julius Kahn, John I. Nolan, J. A. Elston, Denver S. Church, E. A. Hayes, C. H. Randall and William Kettner. Raker, Curry Kahn, Church and Randall are certain to qualify for the November election.

Hot Water Each Morning Puts Roses in Your Cheeks

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which, if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Girls and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation, should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while bowel pores do.

Women who desire to enhance the beauty of their complexion should just try this for a week and notice results. (Advertisement)
