SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

WHEN MIXED WITH SULPHUR IT BRINGS BACK ITS BEAUTIFUL LUSTRE AT ONCE

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur Compound restores its appearance a hundredfold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored, and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

RULED BY REASON

THOSE anxious folk who are disturbed by the idea that the republicans are lacking in enthusiasm for this campaign should remember that the members of a posse who are hunting for a gang of burglars who have pillaged a town are not generally bubbling over with frivolous expressions. They are out on a serious errand.

This is the animating spirit of republican action this year. It was the controlling emotion of the party convention at Chicago. The delegates were there to name the next president of the United States—and they did it. The party at large is now engaged in the task of electing the next president of the United States—and they will do it.

This campaign will not be carried for Hughes and the republican party by red fire and torchlight parades, nor by oratory and frenzied cheering. It will be carried by a sober and reasonable appeal to the people—an appeal the nature of which is not dissimilar to that which had to be made in 1896, when so many people thought it would be impossible to take to our voters a cold and naked economic question, and to receive from them an adequate and satisfactory judgment. But the campaign of education which Mark Hanna inaugurated and carried forward that year found lodgment in the public mind and the reply of the people to the plea of those who were arguing for the nation's financial honor was emphatic and without reservation.

The plea this year is for the national honor in a wider sense—and the administration is seeking to cloud the issue by a specious appeal to the cupidity of the voter, who is this year, for the first time in a democratic administration, living in a land where prosperity has any foothold at all. In 1896 a like spurious appeal was made to the debtor and to the unemployed to seek by legislative fiat a reduction in the volume of his financial burden. Superficially, that plea was of weighty effectiveness. Essentially it was dishonest, and, when exposed, it became repugnant to the honest men who compose the American electorate. But it took months of close and effective campaigning to convince the people that the real remedy lay in the restoration of the republican party to power, though the lesson, when learned, was not forgotten for sixteen years.

So it will be this year. The country must be taught that Wilson has not "kept us out of war," and that it is war, and not he, that has the credit for such industrial and financial activity as we enjoy. This means an appeal to reason—which, ultimately rules in this land. And appeals to reason are not achieved by noise.

REVENUE BILL, WITH AMENDMENTS, IS DIRECT RETALIATION TO BLACKLIST AND MAIL INTERFERENCE BY ENGLAND

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 6.—The senate today adopted an amendment to the revenue bill, empowering the president to use such parts of the army and navy as he deems advisable to prevent preference by belligerent nations against American firms and shippers.

The senate also adopted the Phelan amendment refusing the right of American mails, express, telegraph cable to citizens of any belligerent country which discriminates against Americans.

These amendments empower the president to take these steps whenever during the existence of a war in which America is not engaged, the President is satisfied and has reasonable ground to believe that "belligerents have denied lawful rights to American citizens."

The measure is admittedly a retaliation to the British black-listing of American firms and interference with American mails.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

TAKE SALTS AT FIRST SIGN OF BLADDER IRRITATION OR BACKACHE

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder troubles.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Adv.
