

LEGISLATURE MAY PREVENT STRIKE

12,000 POLICE ARE READY FOR STRIKE

HOME DEFENCE LEAGUE WILL HELP KEEP ORDER

Streetcar Companies Insist on Right to Deal Individually With Men and Not Through Their Unions—President Gompers of American Federation of Labor Says Fight is Vital to Labor Unionism.

United Press Service
NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Although they have issued a letter to the public saying there is no reason to expect violence as a result of the sympathetic strike called for next Wednesday, the police department will have 12,000 men ready for service Wednesday morning.

Members of all unions today are voting on the order of their executives for suspension of work.

Members of the New York legislature will meet Monday to consider calling a special session to pass laws that will prevent a strike.

The interborough street car company officials said this morning there was no change in the decision to deal with the employees as individuals and not through their union.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 23.—President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor says the New York unionists are prepared to stay out all winter, if such action is necessary to win the right to organize.

He says unions in every city are pledging their support to the New York workingmen, as the fight is recognized as vital to unionism.

Republican Campaign to Be Opened Monday Night

The republican campaign in Klamath county will be opened next Monday evening at Houston's opera house, when a rally of all republicans will be held. Music will be furnished. The principal address will be made by Honorable Wallace McCamant of Portland, a speaker of national reputation, and one said to be well versed on the issues of the 1916 campaign.

MEDFORD MAN IS SHOT FOR DEER BY KIRKENDALL

ACCIDENT OCCURS WEDNESDAY NEAR BROWN'S CABIN

Kirkendall Sees Brush Moving, and Believing a Deer is Behind Brush, Fires His Rifle—Bullet Entered Jaw and Came Out Behind Ear, But Did Not Kill Victim—Is First Accident of 1916 Hunting Season.

The first accident of the 1916 deer season occurred Wednesday evening at Long's prairie, four and a half miles from Brown's cabin, when E. E. Kirkendall of Klamath Falls shot George Van Auken, a farmer and guide of Medford.

According to a hunter returning to Klamath Falls last evening, Kirkendall saw some brush move, and thinking a deer was moving the brush, fired his rifle. The bullet entered Van Auken's jaw and emerged behind his ear. The accident will not prove fatal.

The shooting occurred about 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, when Kirkendall and Van Auken were hunting in the Brown's cabin and Silver camp country. Dr. R. R. Hamerton of this city arrived at Blue Creek the same evening to hunt deer, and was found soon after the shooting. He cared for the wounded man until a doctor from Medford arrived and removed Van Auken to Medford.

To Prove All Suffragists Are Not Spinsters

MRS. GUILFORD DUDLEY AND CHILDREN MRS. FRANK A. VANDERLIP AND SON MRS. WALTER McNAB MILLER AND GRANDSON

Officials of the National American Woman Suffrage Association offer their picture of well known women and their children to prove that belief in woman suffrage does not make spinsters of women nor tend against motherhood. There are no stronger advocates of woman suffrage in the country than Mrs. Guilford Dudley, president of the Tennessee Equal Suffrage Association; Mrs. Frank A. Vanderlip, wife of the president of the National City bank, the strongest national bank in the United States, or Mrs. Walter McNab Miller, who was the first auditor of the National

32 KILLED IN VILLISTA RAID

BANDITS RAID OIL CAMP AT TUXPAM—VILLA IS 20 MILES FROM CHIHUAHUA CITY, AND IS NOT BEING PURSUED

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 23.—General Trevino, Carranzista commander, today made vigorous denial of the statement that Villa's attack last Saturday on Chihuahua City was successful. He declares the Villistas were routed and captured nothing of importance.

It is reported that Villa is now twenty miles from Chihuahua City. Carranzistas have not resumed their pursuit of him.

Two Englishmen and thirty Carranzistas were killed yesterday when Villistas raided an oil camp at Tuxpam.

Tourist Season Brings $25,000 to This City

By far the busiest tourist season in the history of Klamath county is being experienced this year, if the number of automobiles passing through this section is an accurate criterion of the tourist trade.

Crater Lake Park opened nearly a whole month late this year, yet the stream of tourists during July, August and September has eclipsed anything experienced heretofore.

Conservative estimates place the number of automobiles stopping overnight in Klamath Falls at fifteen, with as many more passing in and out the same day. An accurate count was kept at Fort Klamath during the last week in August, and an average of 50 cars per day were found to pass

COMMISSIONERS AT NEW LONDON GROW SKEPTICAL

Failure of General Trevino to Pursue Villistas After Chihuahua City Raid Saturday Throws Doubt on Ability of Mexico's Provisional President to Help Patrol International Border.

United Press Service
NEW LONDON, Sept. 23.—It was reliably learned today that General Trevino's failure to pursue the Villistas after the attack last Saturday on Chihuahua City is causing the American members of the joint commission in session here to question Carranza's ability to control the border. This doubt may result in a big change in the tentative plans for cooperative border control.

United Press Service
JAUREZ, Sept. 23.—The Carranza garrison here is heavily reinforcing, following Villa's threat that he would attack the city.

A large band of Villistas are encamped twenty miles from Chihuahua City.

Passenger service has been discontinued between Jaurez and Chihuahua City.

All armed civilians in this city are being arrested.

HUMPHREY'S CAR SEEN YESTERDAY

REPORT RECEIVED THIS MORNING SAYS LLOYD ALFORD SAW CAR BELIEVED TO BE HUMPHREY'S IN DUNSMUIR

Word that an Oakland Six touring car, resembling the one stolen from George Humphrey last Sunday night at Crescent, was seen in Dunsmuir yesterday, was received here this morning. Lloyd Alford, son of R. A. Alford of this city, is reported to have seen the car, and believes it was Humphrey's. Alford is said to be familiar with Humphrey's car.

The Oakland Six was going through Dunsmuir when seen by Alford, according to the report, and did not stop in Dunsmuir.
