

ENGLAND WOULD AVOID A CRISIS

COMMERCIAL ADVISER IS INVESTIGATING EFFECT ON AMERICAN BUSINESS OF BRITISH MAIL CENSORSHIP

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—Announcement that the commercial adviser for the British embassy here is going to New York soon, to confer with leading financiers regarding the effect of British mail censorship on American business, is believed to be an indication that England is determined to prevent the censorship from reaching a diplomatic crisis.

The adviser already has conferred with Secretary of State Lansing and outlined the British plan for a satisfactory settlement.

Bird Reserve on Lake Malheur is Threatened

(Herald Special Service)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—The destruction of one of the largest, if not the largest, federal bird reservation in the United States is threatened, according to an announcement made here today by T. Gilbert Pearson of New York city, secretary of the National Association of Audubon Societies. The reservation threatened is at Lake Malheur, in Southeastern Oregon, and is a breeding place for hundreds of thousands of wild ducks, wild geese and other wild fowl.

Application has been made to the federal authorities for permission to drain the lake in order to secure the land it covers. The lake is six miles wide, by fifteen miles long and is about six feet deep. It supplies an ideal breeding place for wild water fowl, Mr. Pearson says, and, therefore, it attracts wild geese and ducks from Canada in large numbers. Its destruction, he declares, will leave thousands of young waterfowl without a home.

Secretary Pearson has taken the matter up with the officials of the general land office, who have promised to investigate. It is understood that those who plan the destruction of the bird preserve have already secured the co-operation of the state land board of Oregon. For that reason, Mr. Pearson regards the situation as imminent, and believes it will require quick and earnest appeals to the secretary of the interior from those who believe in the protection of wild birds to prevent the destruction of the colony.

"There are about 5,000,000 guns in the United States," said Mr. Pearson, "and the only way to preserve our migratory game birds is to have a few sanctuaries—areas in which they can never be killed, under any circumstances."

PERJURY ARISES IN STRANGE CASE

GREEK PEDDLER AND ATTORNEY HELD IN CASE INVOLVING PARENTAGE OF TWO GIRLS. MOTHER IS DEAD

United Press Service
CHICAGO Sept. 23.—At the conclusion of the hearing of Edward Morrison, Chicago millionaire, charged with being the father of the children of Joseph Bernsteina, a Greek peddler, Federal Judge Landis ordered Bernsteina and his attorney to be held for perjury.

Morrison adopted the children, two girls, after their mother's death, Bernsteina swearing that their mother told him on her death bed that Morrison was their father.

Morrison's estate loses a large fortune if he dies childless, according to the will of his uncle.

CHRIST STUDIED ONCE EACH WEEK

SPECIAL WEDNESDAY EVENING SERVICES AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IS DRAWING MUCH INTEREST AMONG ATTENDANCE

Much interest is being manifested in the Wednesday evening services that are being held each week at the Presbyterian church. Jesus is the subject of each service, but each night a study of his relation to some particular phase of life is taken up. The public is invited by the church to all these special programs.

- Following is the program for each Wednesday until December 27th:
- September 27—"Jesus and Politics." What was the political status of this Galilean teacher?
 - October 4—"Jesus and the Church." What was his ecclesiastical position?
 - October 11—"Jesus and Unbelief." Does it make any difference what we believe?
 - October 18—"Jesus and Marriage." What does the home life of America need most today?
 - November 1—"Jesus and Women." Did Jesus recognize what we call the dual standard?
 - November 8—"Jesus and Children." What is the difference between Christianity and the non-Christian religions as to the place and rights of the child?
 - November 15—"Jesus and Private Property." What did he teach about private ownership?
 - November 22—"Jesus and Riches." Did he discourage wealth?
 - November 29—"Jesus and Poverty." Did Jesus recognize lines of class feeling against either the rich or the poor?
 - December 6—"Jesus and War." Is war ever justifiable?

Maxwell

$595

The world's record—twenty-two thousand and twenty-two miles without stopping the motor—in held by a Maxwell coach touring car.

NO other car at any price has ever approached this wonderful record of endurance.

In addition to this proven sturdiness, remember that the Maxwell averages between 25 and 30 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Moreover, the Maxwell is complete. It has electric starter and lights; demountable rims; one-man mohair top; speedometer; roomy, comfortable seats and an attractive appearance.

Are you particular about details? Do you demand evidence of value? If so, you will investigate the Maxwell, the features, record and reputation of which proclaim it the world's greatest motor car value.
