French Slowly Closing in Close to Chaumes

By HENRY WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE FRENCH ARMY
SOUTH OF THE SOMME, Oct. 14.—Drawing their encircling noose in from the west, north and southwest, the French have advanced their lines at several points to within a few hundred yards of the important town of Chaumes.

The town was already seriously menaced by the French advance on Tuesday when German positions were taken on a three mile front. The French are pocketing it in the same manner in which the allies drove the Germans out of Comblès.

Chaumes, to a certain extent, holds the same important relation to the German line south of the Somme as did Comblès north of the river. It is a point of support, the junction of several important highways, and its capture will enable the French to dominate the surrounding country for several miles.

Aerial torpedoes and secretly dug trenches gave wonderful aid to the French in their movement to encircle Chaumes. On Monday I visited the first line trenches near Denicourt, three miles northeast of Chaumes, to watch preparations for the great attack launched on Tuesday.

The French were secretly digging a new trench, running parallel to the German positions. It was from this trench that French infantry was destined to make the attack, thus reducing the width of the fire zone it was necessary for the soldiers to cross before reaching the German trenches.

While the usual terrific artillery preparation was going on, the French were systematically destroying the German wire entanglements with their new aerial torpedoes. These they launched from little trench mortars.

Unlike the screaming, whistling of the shells, the passage of these torpedoes is noiseless, but they are visible to the naked eye throughout their entire course. They described beautiful arches above the French line, then darted downward with lightning like rapidity into the German trench. The havoc and consternation was so great that the French soldiers, without hesitation, poked their heads out of the trenches to watch the destruction, though the Germans were only 150 feet away.

From the depths of this first line trench, seventeen French sausage balloons and thirty observation aeroplanes could be observed directly above the French line. These were constantly protected during their observation work by a squadron of smaller, faster aviators de chasse. It is to this duty that all the American volunteer aviators on this front are assigned.

During the day only two German aviators appeared, seizing favorable moments to direct their machine guns at a French trench. The German flyers consistently refused to fight the French aviators, who were constantly engaged in chasing them back to their own lines. Soldiers in the first line trenches said that nothing gave them greater confidence or a greater feeling of security during a battle than the ability to always look up and see French sausages and aeroplanes hovering protectively above, undisputed masters of the air.

As we were returning to the rear, toward dusk, the Germans evidently were getting ready for the attack made by the French the next day. They launched a terrific barrage fire near Denicourt, though the French made no effort to attack during the night, and did not leave the trenches until the following day.

Ship Lines Merge

Thirteen large passenger and freight steamships of the Pacific Coast Steamship company and the Pacific Alaska Navigation company are included in a merger of those concerns, the amalgamated concern to be known as the Pacific Steamship company, perfected at Seattle, Wash., recently. The value of the steamships is given at $12,000,000 and their tonnage as 55,000.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS IF BACK HURTS OR BLADDER BOTHERS

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink.—Adv.
