Moving Pictures

What is considered the best of the Triangle feature photoplays to be presented here up to date will be introduced at the Star Theater tonight. "The Coward," a six part lince production, based on an incident of the Civil War, is one of the most spectacular war pictures ever thrown on a screen, the story being an unusually strong one, and the cast one of the best ever seen in any picture. Frank Keenan and Charles Ray head an exceptionally large cast. Mr. Keenan and Mr. Ray sprang into prominence in a day through their wonderful portrayal of their respective roles in "The Coward." Today Mr. Keenan is considered the greatest character actor the screen has ever produced. "The Coward" has played more return engagements in first class theaters than any other known feature. It is the only picture that has ever played two return engagements at the Paige theater in Medford. Eddie Foy and the seven little Foyes will be seen on tonight's program in the two part Keystone comedy, "A Favorite Fool." In an endeavor to create more interest in the Monday night programs, the management has arranged for a series of the strongest Triangle attractions and Keystone comedies. These programs will be presented on Monday only.

A NOVEL COMBINATION

Excellent Attraction Booked at the Opera House

Richard Jose singing "Silver Threads"—five words sufficiently comprehensive and emphatic to guarantee a capacity house anywhere. Of the many popular singers throughout this land, Richard Jose is the peer of all; compelling admiration from both old and young, and thrilling their hearts with his melodious voice in songs of heart and home.

"Silver Threads Among the Gold" is a six part photoplay adopted from the famous ballad of the same name. Assisted by a galaxy of well known movie stars, Mr. Jose appears in a prominent role in the film drama, and during each presentation of the picture he appears in person and renders a series of the songs which has endeared him to the hearts of all.

This double attraction is announced at the Houson Opera House tomorrow evening only. Reserved seats for the event are now on sale at the ticket office. Phone 131.
