an arrangement with Bobbs-Merrill Co. there will be a screen version of the narrative shown in Bluebird Photo-plays at the Orpheus theater Sunday and Monday evenings, with J. Warren Kerrigan, Louise Lovely, Maude George, Hayward Mack, Harry Carter and Marc Robbing interpreting the leading characters. Decidedly interesting is the method Chatfield Bruce adopted to distribute other people's money around the slums and by-ways and just what impelled him to "give over" the habit is the love element that makes the interest in the subject keen and holding throughout the five acts of the photo-play.

The many thousands who have read Eleanor Hallowell Abbott's celebrated story, "Molly Make-Believe," will recognize at once that Marguerite Clark is ideally suited to play the role of the delightful little Molly, one of the most lovable little characters in all fiction. Though the charming story is essentially romantic and comic in its main theme there are some remarkably pathetic scenes and powerful dramatic incidents which combine to make this Famous Players-Laramount Picture an exceptional photo-play. "Molly Make-Believe" is unquestionably one of the most sweetly sympathetic characters Miss Clark has ever played on the screen. At the Star theater tonight.

SHORT SYNOPSIS OF "THE YOKE OF GOLD"

"The Yoke of Gold" is a story of California in the old days of the Spanish occupation. Luiz Lopez, a young man smarting under the yoke of the aristocracy, finally succeeds in arousing the somewhat torpid Jose Garcia to the great injustice that is being done to the people and persuades him to set out on a mission of robbery to get the funds with which they are to free the country.

But on his way to rob the home of Senor Ortega he becomes stranded on the desert without any water. He is rescued from his predicament by Senor Arrelanes and his daughter Carmen, who are going to visit their cousin, Ortega. Jose accompanies them and soon falls before the wiles of the charming Carmen. Ashamed to steal from people who have befriended him, he returns without having accomplished his mission.

When Jose returns Luiz berates him for being so tender-hearted and starts out to take the money himself. But by this time Jose has learned that Luiz wants the money for himself and not for any scheme for the betterment of the people. He hastens after Luiz and succeeds in arriving in time to warn the Ortigas. Jose marries the beautiful Carmen, and Luiz, repenting of his evil ways, retires into the fold of a sheltering monastery. "The Yoke of Gold" will appear at the Orpheus theater tonight.

"THE ESCAPE" COMING TO THE OPERA HOUSE

D. W. Griffith's seven-part film dramatization of Paul Armstrong's famous story, "The Escape," will be shown at Houston's opera house on Sunday and Monday evenings. It is claimed that the story was taken from life and portrays truthful conditions as they exist in the tenement districts of our larger cities. The theme is sex-eugenic science, and the story itself is a strong argument in support of birth control among the poorer classes. While the director has chosen a subject with many thrilling and sensational situations, his main object appears to be to drive home a warning to coming generations. Mr. Griffith has used the principle actors and actresses which appear in his one greater production, "The Birth of a Nation." Blanche Sweet also has a leading part. Seats now on sale at the opera house.

If you suffer from backache; if you have headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular, don't delay—likely your kidneys are sick.

Klamath Falls people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here's a Klamath Falls woman's experience:

Mrs. Chas. F. Stenwell, 911 Lincoln street, Klamath Falls, says: "I am subject to backache and kidney disorders. At times, my back gets very weak and lame and my kidneys act irregularly. In a general way, I feel depressed and run down. After I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills for a few days, my kidneys act regularly and I don't have that awful pain across my back. They act as a tonic to my whole system."

COST OF THANKSGIVING TO BE HIGHER THIS YEAR!

United Press Service WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—If you can't be thankful for prosperity Thanksgiving Day, be thankful for sweet potatoes, unless they too get in on the rise, which they haven't yet.

From cranberries, which a year ago cost 8 cents and now cost 12 cents, to pumpkins that cost 20 cents then and 30 cents now, all the other little items with which the hero of the day is surrounded have been boosted in prices. As for the hero—"Turkey prices? Say, if we could tell you now what turkey prices will be Thanksgiving Day, we could make a fortune," said one Washington dealer.

To day they are only two or three cents above last year's prices, but, as another dealer averred, "We ain't promisin' nothin'."
