Norwegians and Swedes are not particularly fond of each other, and in the recent neutral alliance it was more a feeling of self-preservation than anything else which brought about the union of Sweden Norway and Denmark. For here one does not hear much talk of a beautiful peace in the near future in which all the nations of the world will have a hand. Nor does anybody seem to believe that this is the last great war; or that after this war is over little nations will be safe from molestation by the big.
