KLAMATH STUDENT

VISITS FACTORIES

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Dec. 8.—Francis Brown of Crystal was one of the twelve members of the chemistry society which recently made a trip to Portland and Oregon City to visit the factories and laboratories in those cities.

The purpose of the trip was to have the students become better acquainted with many commercial problems. The men were gone three days and during that time they visited the leading manufacturing plants at Oregon City and Portland. Saturday noon they were the guests of the Union Meat Company for luncheon.

Mr. Brown is a senior and is taking the chemical engineering course.

Henley in Town.

James T. Henley is spending a few days in the county seat from his ranch on the Merrill road.

Campbells Visit.

William Campbell of Langel valley and Oscar Campbell of Sprague river are transacting business in Klamath Falls today.

BABY'S GRAVE IS TOLD IN LETTERS

SHERIFF GETS MYSTERIOUS LETTERS TELLING OF MURDERED MAN AND BABY AND OF THE GRAVE OF EACH.

ST. HELENS, Ore., Dec. 8.—After being informed by mysterious letters that a man and baby had been murdered and buried in a field near Kerry, Ore., the sheriff began investigating and this afternoon found the baby's body in a shallow grave at the spot designated in the letters. No trace of the man's body has been found. The search for it is being continued.
