TUTS INTO RHYME AMERICAN PUNITIVE EXPEDITION UNDER PERSHING AND NOW ALL THE BOYS ARE SINGING IT.

COLUMBUS, N. Mex., Dec. 19. Life with Pershing's expedition in Mexico is by no means a giddy whirl. Neither is it a vacation "far from the madding crowd." Every officer, soldier and truck driver has tried to describe it. But it has remained for a dusky troubarour of the famous "Black Tenth" cavalry to put the daily life of the soldier into verse.

At once the song jumped into favor and the whole expedition from Palomas to El Ealle is singing it. As rendered by the Twenty-fourth Machine

Economy Through Quality

They will afford him months and months of absolute comfort and the pleasure which every live man takes in wearing shoes which have no superior in quality or style. And your gift will cost you less than you would pay for many other articles—commonplace and mediocre in quality.

A practical hint: (1) Obtain the exact size—length and width; (2) or bring one of his (comfortable) old shoes. If by any chance the shoes are not quite right in fit, we will gladly exchange them after the holidays for the Nettleton last which exactly suits him.
