

RICH POLICEMAN STILL CLEANING

DETROIT'S CHIEF OF POLICE WORTH $50,000,000, SPENDS OWN MONEY IN BONUSES TO HELP PUBLIC SERVICE.

DETROIT, Dec. 19.—James Couzens, Detroit's $50,000,000 police chief, who is distributing his own money at the rate of $10,000 a year in bonuses for "the good of the service," is credited with working wonders with the force in his cleanup that started with his installation, and is still under way.

Some say Ford taught Couzens. In all events it is applied to the force. Couzens believes in discipline, the enforcement of every law on the books and in rewards for merit. His $5,000 salary and $5,000 additional out of his own fortune will go into these rewards yearly.

That Couzens' system has worked in his own life is apparent when it is recalled that he started his commercial career as a $12 a week bookkeeper in a Detroit coal office. Now $50,000,000 is only approximate. Couzens doesn't know within a million or so, just what his wealth is.

Couzens was appointed just prior to the recent mayoralty campaign when the cry for a cleanup was strong. His first ukase was at the saloons which had been violating the closing hour law. "Obey the law" was his dictum, and it went. The closing law is now faithfully obeyed.

Gamblers who, behind closed doors, had been violating the law almost at will, were driven out, and gambling joints closed.

"Blind pigs, organized under the guise of social clubs, must go," was another dictum. Thirty of such places were closed at once, and have not been reopened.

Couzens listened to thousands of protests when he forbade the parking of automobiles in downtown streets, but he stuck to his guns, saying: "We can't sacrifice the safety and convenience of the general public for the mere convenience of automobile owners." His order still stands.

Couzens is now delving into the social vice situation. He is expected to either eliminate all of the districts, sweeping the city clean of its immoral women, or to establish a single, closely policed district.

Couzens' philosophy on the bonus system is brief:

"Honorable mentions written after an officer's name, may be all right, but a reward that will buy shoes for the children or pay the family doctor bill goes a bit further," he says.

OFFICIALS OF NEW COUNTY ARE NAMED

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 19.—Governor Withycombe yesterday afternoon appointed W. D. Barnes, of Tumalo, as county judge of Deschutes county, and E. L. Smith, of Redmond, and A. L. McIntosh, of Bend, as county commissioners.

The county was created at the recent general election out of part of Crook county, and upon the newly appointed court will revolve the duty of appointing all of the remainder of the county officials, save the district attorney, and also of designating a temporary county seat, the latter to be permanently settled at the next election. Bend will beyond question be named the temporary county seat.

Mother of Austrian Emperor Dislikes Kaiser

ARCHDUCHESS MARIA JOSEPHA

Archduchess Maria Josepha, mother of the new Emperor of Austria-Hungary, is said to have a great dislike for Kaiser Wilhelm, Emperor of Germany. She opposed him at the Austrian court as best she could for many years. What effect this will have on the relations of the central powers in the course of the war is not known.

Allies Must Cross the Rhine to Crush Teutons

By WILBUR S. FORREST

(United Press Staff Correspondent) LONDON, Dec. 1.—(By Mail.—) "The only way the allies can win the war is to cross the Rhine. Germany otherwise will fight to the bitter end."

Professor Masaryk, exiled member of Austria's parliament, now in London, is telling British pacifists today that no mere blockade ever will beat the central empires.

"I think I know the Germans," said Masaryk today. "I understand the psychology of the German people. There is truth behind the German boast that Germany in the end will, metaphorically speaking, arm every cat and dog in the empire. Germany will fight to the last man and the last coin. She will need to be utterly crushed before she will relinquish her grip on the territory she has invaded and on the countries over which she today exercises control.

"If the resources of Germany are proof against the starvation of her industrial population, then the only hope is the invasion of Germany. Germany to all intents and purposes will be beaten when the Rhine is crossed. This is because the great coal and iron producing zone will be then invaded. Silesia alone could hardly meet the great demand for needed food supplies, and the neighboring munition factories, on which Germany is largely dependent, should come easily under the bombardment of the allies, if only from the air. Besides, Germany would have been deprived of all the material derived from northern France and Belgium. She would be hopelessly handicapped."

Professor Masaryk does not believe Germany is faced with a shortage of men. If there is any man-power difficulty at all, it is connected with the enormous output of munitions, he thinks. He is also confident that Germany's allies will fight to the last.

He said: "The spirit of resistance in Austria is not as strong as it is in Germany, but Austria also will go on to the end. The men who make revolutions are in the army and the military machine holds them in an iron grip. That machine is run by Germany.

"Bulgaria will fight to the end. She cannot help herself now. Germany has Bulgaria in her grip and will not let go. Turkey fights on for Constantinople. Both Bulgaria and Turkey want peace, but not on the allies' terms.

"Germany is a long way from being beaten," the Austrian ex-legislator declared. "There will be no revolution in Germany. The military people will see to that. In any case the roots of revolution have poor soil in the submissive population."

The people who preach after-the-war preparedness in allied countries are preaching a wise gospel, said Professor Masaryk.

"If Germany is defeated, my impression is that a defeated Germany will work so hard that the allies, so far from taking things easily will have all their work cut out to compete with her. After the defeat at Jena, the Prussians set to work to organize themselves better and we see the results in the display of strength to which the present war has given rise.

Disabled Gather Homes LONDON, Dec. 19.—Thousands of women and children, unable to perform other war works, are daily combing the misty hills of Scotland and the Irish west Coast for moss for absorbent dressings. Recently they filled an order for 20,000 bandages. The moss is wrapped in cotton gauze and applied to open wounds.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

TAKE A GLASS OF SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS IF BLADDER BOTHERS YOU

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acids in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation. The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Adv.

KLAMATH FALLS OREGON
WHERE PARTICULAR PEOPLE BUY THEIR DRUGS

LIKE ELECTRIC BUTTON ON TOES

TELLS WHY A CORN IS SO PAINFUL AND SAYS CUTTING MAKES THEM GROW.

Press an electric button and you form a contact with a live wire which rings the bell. When your shoes press against your corn it pushes its sharp roots down upon a sensitive nerve and you get a shock of pain.

Instead of trimming your corns, which merely makes them grow, just step into any drug store and ask for a quarter of an ounce of freezone. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn stops the soreness instantly, and soon the corn shrivels up so it lifts right out, root and all, without pain. This drug is harmless and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissue or skin. Paid adv.
