GRENADA, NEWEST TOWN OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA IS DOING WELL, ACCORDING TO ARTICLE IN ASHLAND TIDINGS.

Grenada, the new townsite in northern California, is flourishing.

It is expected that the new hotel at Grenada will be ready to open some time this month. The building is now well along toward completion and one can get a fair idea of what the structure will be when finally opened. It will be strictly modern in every particular.

Material for eight new bungalows has been distributed at various points about the townsite and work on the new 40x100-foot warehouse along the Southern Pacific track is making good progress.

The Southern Pacific Company has a crew of men at work laying a new siding and men are also at work digging trenches for water mains and sewers.—Ashland Tidings.

Tariffs Suspended

The interstate commerce commission has suspended until March 1 the eastbound transcontinental freight tariffs, which were to have gone into effect December 30. Advices to this effect have just been received from Joseph N. Teal, who is now in Washington arguing rate questions before the commission.

The tariffs newly suspended carried advances on coast rates of about 10 cents per 100 pounds. The commission is now conducting a general investigation of transcontinental rates, one of the hearings having been held here this week, and it is supposed the body deemed it wise to hold up all advances until final adjustment could be made.—Oregon Journal.

Beebe & Kinney's store, one of the historic business establishments of Ashland, is to close its doors in a few days. Away back in the '80s this store was McCall & Mills, the original owners and both Ashland pioneers. Then Vaupel, Norris & Drake became owners of the store. Mr. Kinney then replaced Mr. Norris, then Mr. Beebe replaced Mr. Drake, as as the final change Mr. Vaupel sold out, leaving the business in the hands of Beebe & Kinney.—Ashland Tidings.

Athletics Flourish in South American Nation

By H. B. ROBERTSON (United Press Staff Correspondent)

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 25.—(By Mail.)—All of Brazil's athletic sports except a peculiar form of rough-and-tumble boxing, are imported.

Of course, football (soccer), horse racing and rowing are the most popular. Bull fighting, current belief in the United States to be the contrary notwithstanding, is not a Brazilian pastime. It has not been tolerated since the days of the empire.

"Pelota," a Spanish version of handball played with a basketwork racket on the player's hand, although prohibited on account of its gambling tendencies, has a large following. It is remarkable principally for the lightning rapidity with which it is played. An American handball artist would find himself fairly bewildered at the speed with which the pelota players handle the ball.

The Brazilian's love of horse flesh has built fine tracks in every city and town of the country. The Derby and Jockey Clubs of Rio de Janeiro are famous all over this continent. Horses, costing huge sums, are imported from England, France, Argentina and the United States to run for worth-while stakes in this city and Sao Paulo.

The season opens in April and closes in November, and every Sunday and holiday crowds numbering up to sixty or even a hundred thousand go to the courses to play their hunches. Large amounts change hands each race at the government controlled betting stalls.

A race crowd at Rio is a gorgeous spectacle, the elite and common people mingling in the enjoyment of a common passion. The trotters and pacers, product of road and highway, are unknown to Brazil. The races are running races. The Brazilian is a rider, with no superior in the world, not a driver. Outside of the large cities a carriage is a curiosity in Brazil.

There are in this city scores of athletic clubs with thousands of members. These clubs make football their chief drawing card. When the Flamengo, Fluminense, Botafogo, America, Villa Isabel and Sao Christovao teams play off the championship series of this city, the winner of which plays teams from Argentina, Paraguay, Uruguay and Chili for the international cup, the excitement is as intense as it is among fans during the baseball world series. It is the "back lot" game of Brazil.

The bay of Rio de Janeiro affords ideal facilities for the development of the art of scull and oar and the regattas here draw enormous crowds of enthusiastic supporters. Great ferry boats and hundreds of smaller craft gaily decorated in partisan colors follow the races and the whistles of nearly all of the steamers in the harbor greet the winning shell.

Should Brazil ever enter the Olympic games she would pin her faith to her tennis players to make a showing. Tennis is played with enthusiasm and skill in every city in the country, the climate making it enjoyable the year around.

At Campo Sao Christovao, the home of the American club, every Saturday and on the frequent holidays, may be heard that music to all American ears, "Slide, He's Safe! Kill the Ump!" Baseball is being introduced to the Brazilian fan.

War's By-Product Not Wanted RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 19.—Chief of Police Aurelio Leal declared himself today in favor of Deputy Bassano's bill restricting the admission to Brazil of mutilated European war veterans. In his opinion, the chief says, "such invalid persons, besides being useless, are noxious and unsuited to new countries as an element of work and production."

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

DRUGGIST SAYS LADIES ARE USING RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it, and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre, and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Ad.
