Letters from the People

To the Editor: In Mr. Sheets' somewhat lengthy article in last Friday's Herald it seems he is endeavoring to square himself with the public for his action at the last meeting of the council, wherein he, Mr. Mathews and Mr. Doty, turned down the franchise that the people had voted in favor of at a recent election. In this article he takes to task two members of the council for being present at a mass meeting of angry citizens, and giving their views, when called upon at said meeting.

I wonder why Mr. Sheets, Mr. Mathews or Mr. Doty were not there? Did they manifest a yellow streak at the last moment? Surely they were invited. If Mr. Sheets and his co-workers of the Oregon-California Power Co. had been present at that meeting, or had asked any person who attended it, they could have found out who was the instigator of the meeting. Does it take a club in the hand of some angry citizen to awaken my friend Sheets to the realization that he is a mere servant of the people, and that he and his two confederates, who meet in secret, and do not even show to the writer and Mr. Struble the courtesy of extending them an invitation to meet and discuss how they can defeat the will of the people? Perhaps my friend Sheets will wake up some morning to find that the citizens will not stand for such raw work.

My friend Sheets speaks of the city having been worked by some previous company in the past. I wonder if he was not connected with the old company as its manager? Who knows?

Now as to the amendments he speaks of: Surely they are not creatures of his fertile brain, as he persisted to the last that the present franchise as voted upon covered all points, and he could not find any fault with it until he was forced to go on record and vote. I am like the old Scotchman, who was a hard drinker and always broke, and who boasted that he could suck three dozen raw eggs if given a drink! The boys thought they would have some fun with him so procured a rotten egg for the last, and when he gulped it down the old Scotchman, with a wry face, said: "Boys, I have my doots about that last egg." So, good people of Klamath Falls, I have my serious "doots" about the sincerity of my friend Sheets in the matter under discussion.

On last Tuesday morning, on my way to the office at about 8 o'clock, Mr. Sheets stopped me in front of his place of business and I told him that he had made a great mistake in his action the previous evening in turning down the franchise; that he had practically placed in the hands of the Kern brothers a chance to get a franchise of their own making, as the council would have no right to go into the matter at all if they took it before the people by way of an initiative petition; that the people were in a frame of mind to grant any kind of a franchise to set aside the action of the council. He informed me at that time if the matter could be delayed until after the legislature met in February there was a bill going before that body to take away the power of all municipalities to grant public franchises and vest the same in the Public Service Commission. My eyes were then opened and I could see why my friend Sheets had rendered unto Caesar that which was Caesar's a servant of which he must be. We all know, and Mr. Sheets knows, that the Public Service Commission is averse to having two public utilities of the same character operating in the same city. I leave it to the general public if it does not look like Mr. Sheets is in cahoots with the present company operating here.

Why all the solicitude on the part of Mr. Sheets at this time to try and explain his actions? I question very seriously the sincerity of Mr. Sheets when he put the franchise up to the people, whether at that time he did not have in mind the delay. Mr. Sheets was the framer of this franchise voted upon by the people, and he was the one who insisted that it go to the people. I will remember what a cheery attitude he assumed at the time he brought it into the council chambers, and swelled all up at his handiwork. Did he not have in mind the delay so that his friends could get in their work before the legislature? Why is Mr. Sheets at this time trying to inject certain useless amendments into the franchise when he well knows that the Public Service Commission is all powerful and it would be up to the commission whether the same could be enforced?

I wonder if my friend Mr. Sheets thinks he can work the good people of Klamath Falls and square himself at this time for his action in this matter and his past actions in regard to the proposed Strahorn railroad? Did he not try and block in the committee-room the bonding sale ordinance of the proposed railroad? I don't think he will deny that he had his little paper all prepared at that time, and he informed Mr. Struble and myself that he had consulted five different attorneys regarding the ordinance, including the present circuit judge, and he had been informed that the ordinance was illegal. I subsequently found out that he was mistaken.

German Writer Drops Dead

Professor Hugo Munsterberg, long professor of psychology at Harvard, dropped dead while lecturing before a class of young women. Since the war began he has been the champion of German ideas in the United States, and has been attacked by others at Harvard who resented his statements and action.

I want to know if Mr. Sheets is acting for the people to carry out their wishes, or is he lining up with their enemies?

Mr. Sheets, can't you get on the right side of the fence? It is not a fact that you will grow as business comes to you, and don't you think as you grow you can get the capital to build up your business? I wonder if Mr. Sheets thinks that if the Kern brothers were given the franchise, and they got the business, that they could not get the necessary capital to carry on their business? He knows, as well as I do, that any person can get capital to carry on legitimate business.

I would like to know if Mr. Sheets thought he was putting "one over" on the Oregon-California Power Co. when he got up the new street lighting system, which is a creature of his own making, and he allowed the poyer company to litter our Main street with unsightly poles? Did he have in mind to keep all other competing companies off of Main street?

I have gone over Mr. Sheets' senseless twaddle very carefully and can see nothing to it but to try and pull the wool over the eyes of our good citizens, and if he thinks this is sane legislation, then I am very much in error in my judgment.

Let the public be the judge. A. D. MILLER.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

GRUGUST SAYS LADIES ARE USING RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wright's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it, and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wright's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre, and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wright's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease. - Adv.
