Girl is Strangled in Room by Lover

Woman's Body is Found With Bloody Finger Prints on Face—Man Suspected is Chicago Business Man

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 1.—The police declare they know the name of the man who tortured and strangled Mazie Tolbert, alias Mrs. Grace Roberts, a pretty artists' model, who was found murdered in her apartments here. They declare he is a man who stands high in business circles in Chicago.

The man met the girl a year ago, fell in love with her, and killed her when she refused to discontinue friendships with other men.

The principal clues are a missing diamond ring and bloody finger prints on the girl's face.

OSHEA NOTES

The literary society meeting was well attended Friday night at Orindale, the question being, "Resolved, that the barbarian is happier than the civilized man." The affirmative received the unanimous decision of the judges. The next meeting of the society will be held on January 13th, and instead of a debate a mock trial will be given.

THE HOME OF HART SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES

We Thank You

We wish to thank the people of Klamath County whose liberal patronage has made possible our great growth and the enlargement of our business during the past year. We hope, with your continued patronage, to keep on growing during the coming years, so that we may be able to give better service than ever.

We extend to all our sincere wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year. May 1917 bring you all joy and happiness.

Underwood's Pharmacy

To All of the People of Klamath County:

Do we wish through this medium to express our sincere hope that the next year will be filled with many material good things for all of them. We wish you all, health, wealth and happiness. May Klamath county ranches continue to yield in their abundance, making prosperity general. We wish prosperity to our fellow business men.

To those of you who in the past years have been numbered among our patrons, accept our heartiest thanks, and remember that it is the aim of Mr. Lincoln (Abe), Mr. Woods and myself to continue to make the Star Drug Company the Utopia in the future as in the past, a place where you will receive courteous treatment and prompt attention. We urge our old friends to call more frequent and invite visits from prospective patrons, whether you wish to purchase or not, come in and get acquainted.

Let us all profit from a closer acquaintance and co-operation.

GREETINGS

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO EVERYBODY

Let I sour my disposition and make a loan shark of myself,

RESOLVED

That I will not loan more money this year than last year. However, as I brought over $72,000 of outside capital into Klamath County during 1916, and loaned it on Klamath real estate at 8 per cent, and made friends by every loan, I shall be slow to break off the good habit of being accommodating, and if I can help you to get a loan this year call on me at

517 MAIN STREET

Thanking my many clients who made the last year my most successful one in all lines and with best wishes for all for a HAPPY NEW YEAR.
