

TIRES

We have the friendship of a majority of Klamath motorists.

We want to hold it and add new friends whenever we can.

For that reason, the TIRES we handle express the policy of our institution: Value given for value received.

We sell tires on the basis of the good that is in them, and on nothing else.

And the money you pay us for tire value buys tire value, and that alone. If you have been using our tires you know already that the cost per mile has been lower and the freedom from trouble less.

If you have not been using our tires you owe it to yourself to learn what it can mean to you—in temper, time and dollars saved.

In Society's Realm

By MABEL MARTIN

Klamath folks society was this week largely devoted to the tendency of travel receptions to Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Reames. In addition nearly every club in the city had Mrs. Reames as a guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Reames have lived here almost thirty-seven and a half years. Their resident has always been on Link river. Mr. Reames left for their future home this morning near Palo Alto, Cal. Mrs. Reames leaves next Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Martin entertained with a delightful luncheon Friday afternoon at her home on High and Second streets in honor of Mrs. E. R. Reames. The rooms were decorated in purple and yellow. The guests were Mrs. F. R. Reames, Mrs. George Baldwin, Mrs. Frank I. White, Mrs. L. F. Willits, Mrs. J. P. Lee and Miss Maud Baldwin.

A few friends surprised Mrs. E. E. Magee Friday evening with a very pleasant surprise party in honor of her birthday. Later in the evening a lovely dinner was served and those partaking presented Mrs. Magee with a beautiful cutglass dish. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Magee, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs, Miss Waive Jacobs, Master Rudolph Jacobs and Bruce Jefferies.

Virginia Boudoin entertained at few of her friends Friday afternoon at her grandparents' residence. Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Stearns, the event being in honor of Miss Boudoin's thirteenth birthday.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Evan R. Reames, who are leaving shortly for California, a reception was given at the White Pelican hotel Monday night.

The dining room was beautifully decorated with carnations, ferns and potted plants, the general color scheme being pink. Over the door, ingeniously woven out of ferns and tiny electric lights, was a large horseshoe for good luck.

Beneath a bower of flowers and colored light, Mr. and Mrs. Reames made a charming picture as they received their many friends. Mrs. Reames wore an old rose silk gown and carried a bunch of pink carnations.

Mr. E. B. Hall presented Mrs. Reames with a gorgeous bouquet of American beauty roses from the members of the Elks lodge, of which organization Mr. Reames is a member.

Miss Edna Wells added to the pleasure of the evening with a clever recitation of "An Old Sweetheart of Mine." Then, to the music of the Peerless orchestra the guests danced for some time, following which everybody joined in singing a number of old-time popular and patriotic songs. Mrs. E. B. Henry sang "A Perfect Day" in a charming voice, which was greatly enjoyed by everyone, as shown by the hearty round of applause that followed.

At the close, all those present joined in the old favorite and, in this case, very appropriate "Auld Lang Syne."

The hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ankeny, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brockenbrough, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. English, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerber, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gowen, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Obenchain, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. The members of the Eastern Star gave a farewell reception and banquet Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Reames. The hall was beautifully decorated with potted plants, ferns and spring flowers, and in the center was a large bouquet of American beauty roses. The tables were decorated with yellow daffodils and Easter novelties.

TAKE SALTS FOR THE KIDNEYS IF YOUR BACK HURTS

We Should Drink Lots of Water and Eat Less Meat, Says
Noted Authority on Kidney Disorders

Recommends a Spoonful of Jad Salts In Glass of Water Before Breakfast to Stimulate Kidneys and Eliminate the Uric Acid

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy, the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
