MANY ATTEND BACCALAUREATE

SPECIAL MUSIC RENDERED BY CHOIR, SOLOISTS—REV. COX POINTS OUT NECESSITY OF FIXING AIM.

A large crowd attended the high school baccalaureate service at the Opera House last night. Special seats were reserved for the members of the graduating class, which numbers forty-six in all, the largest class that has yet graduated from the local high school.

Special music was given by the Presbyterian ladies' chorus, by Mrs. Don Zumwalt, Miss Augusta Parker and Miss Clara Calkins. Mrs. C. E. Hogue sang "Dry Those Tears," the violin obligato being played by Harry Borel.

Rev. W. H. Cox, of the Emanuel Baptist Church of this city, delivered the sermon. He pointed out the advantages of fixing the aim on some point of life and to move toward it in a straight and determined way. He brought out the utterments received from a Christian life and showed the graduates that if they wish to succeed, they must follow the straight course.

In closing, "America" was sung by the audience.

STRAHORN HAS 65TH BIRTHDAY

KEEP ON WORKING AT DAILY TASK; DO IT BETTER, ADVISES RAILROAD BUILDER IN FEATURE IN SPOKANE CHRONICLE.

(Spokane Chronicle, May 18, 1917)

Work at your daily task harder and do it better than ever before is the advice of Robert E. Strahorn, railroad and empire builder and millionaire, who today is quietly celebrating his sixty-fifth birthday anniversary with his family at his palatial home in Browne's addition.

"Hammer away at the thing you're doing and do it as you have never done it before," said Mr. Strahorn today. "Do the things that are reasonable, but do them with a might and so well that they will stand out as your contribution in this time of stress and strain."

"Believing that a man of 65 can render no greater service to the country than to conservatively persist in any reasonable development program he adopted before we entered the war, I am celebrating my anniversary by pushing my new railway project, designed to open up for production many millions of acres of rich lands in central Oregon and northern California and Nevada.

"We will build only so much of the system as was arranged for before war conditions became so acute, but this will encourage production and afford an outlet for large quantities of grain and other provisions and

Are you one of the many users of these tablets in Klamath Falls.

They prevent the formation of carbon in your motor, give it more "kick" and power.

On May 21st the new law goes into effect allowing the gasoline producers to sell a lower grade of gasoline than was legal heretofore. This no doubt means a poorer grade of gasoline and we recommend using these tablets to get results.

THE TABLETS ARE PUT UP ONE HUNDRED IN A BOX, ENOUGH TO TREAT ONE HUNDRED GALLONS OF GASOLINE FOR $1.00.
