The Liberty Loan
Its Terms and Objects

outlined to extend additional credit at the rate of a hundred million dollars a week.

This move for temporary relief completed, the Secretary of the Treasury set about the main task of war financing provided in the bond act. He announced the issue of two billions of dollars worth of bonds to be distributed June 15 and for which subscriptions would be received up to that date.

The response was indicative of the patriotic spirit of the nation and its ability to pay. Through the first day after this issue was offered to the public, subscriptions came by telegraph at the rate of a million dollars an hour.
It was the plan of Secretary McAdoo to make this loan representative of the spirit of the people and to that end he decreed that the bonds should be issued in as small as $50 denominations so that the laborer, the man in the street, and the shop girl might participate in it along with the banker, the broker and the merchant. In this particular it was kept true to its name, a loan in which all of the lovers of liberty could participate.

Offers to buy bonds did not constitute the only evidence of the nation's enthusiasm and loyalty. The offers to perform active service in making the loan a success were overwhelming.
The law creating this loan provided that no commissions for the sale of bonds should be paid, but this restriction was superseded. Bond brokers, bankers, investment houses, merchants, express companies and other volunteers to act as agents without charge.
Many large employers of labor or even volunteered to buy the bonds outright and let their employees re-purchase them on the installment plan.

To further exemplify the popular character of the loan, Secretary McAdoo created a woman's committee to assist in the sale and distribution of the bonds. To add to the attractiveness of the bonds as an investment they were made tax free (except as to inheritance tax) and the interest is payable semi-annually, June 15th and December 15th.

Federal Reserve Banks were designated as fiscal agents and authorized to mean committees at each Federal Reserve Bank district to have charge of the distribution of the bonds.

THE JUNE AMERICAN MAGAZINE

In the June American Magazine Booth Tarkington has a stirring and timely article on "Middle Western Apathy." It explains the former attitude of the Middle West in regard to the war and predicts its future course.
"Now that the flag is up."

"The Story of a Wife-Made Man," by an anonymous writer, is a frank discussion of the effect of marriage on business success. "A Top-Notcher" at 39, by Alfred Grunberg, tells the story of Matthew C. Brush, once a newsboy, now the head of a great street railroad system. Among the other articles are: "What Men Would You Bet On as Being Honest?" by Fred C. Kelly; "Acting—Part-time Job," by Walter Prichard Eaton; "Massachusetts," by William Roscoe Thayer; "Is Your Job Keeping Up With Your Age?" by B. C. Dean; "Up from Obscurity," by an ex-U. S. Senator and
"The Old Stone Mason," by David Grayson.

MY TIRED FEET
ACHED FOR "TIZ"

LET YOUR SORE, SWOLLEN, ACH-ING FEET SPREAD OUT IN A BATH OF "TIZ"

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crushed, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait.
Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart plait of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

LEMONS BRING OUT
THE HIDDEN BEAUTY
Make this lotion for very little cost and just see for yourself.

THE MAGIC FLUID
Few drops and corns or calluses loosen and lift off with fingers. No pain!

The world owes thanks to the genius in Cincinnati who discovered freestone, the new other drug.

Tiny bottles of the magic fluid can now be had at any drug store for a few cents.
You simply apply a few drops of this freestone upon a tender, aching corn or a hardened callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose and shriveled that you lift it off with the fingers. No bit of pain or soreness is felt when applying freestone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the skin or flesh.

For a few cents one can now get rid of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, as well as painful calluses on bottom of feet. Everyone who tries freestone becomes an enthusiast because it really doesn't hurt or pain one particle. Genuine freestone has a yellow label. Look for the yellow label.—Adv.
