

London Raided at Noon Today

GREAT BATTLE OCCURS IN MID AIR OVER CITY

FIFTEEN HOSTILE PLANES TAKE PART

Forty-Nine Killed and Over Two Hundred Wounded—Figures Grow as Reports Received—East End, Where the Poor Live, Suffers Badly—Hospital Full—School Hit, and Ten Killed and Fifty Injured.

LONDON, June 12.—Later reports indicate that forty-nine persons were killed and over 200 injured. It is feared the figures are growing as the reports are received.

LONDON, June 12.—Fifteen hostile aeroplanes raided the East End in London shortly before noon today.

British aviators and anti-aircraft guns attacked the invaders, and a great battle occurred in mid-air.

One bomb struck a school house and killed ten children and injured fifty.

Chancellor Bonar Law announced to the house of commons that thirty-one are killed and sixty-seven injured. It is reported one German plane was downed.

The East End is where the poor of London live, and it suffered heavily. The hospitals of the district are crowded.

LINER RAMS AND SINKS SUBMARINE

AMERICAN STEAMSHIP KROONLAND ATTACKED BY TWO SUBMARINES, MANAGES TO GET ONE—LOSES PROPELLER BLADE

AN ATLANTIC PORT, June 12.—The American steamship Kroonland is reported to have destroyed a German submarine. Two submarines attacked the Kroonland from two sides. By agile maneuvering, the Kroonland rammed and sunk one. The steamer lost a propeller blade.

JUSTICE DUNN OF OKLAHOMA HERE THURSDAY

BRILLIANT SPEAKER HERE FOR ELKS FLAG DAY

Now Resides in Oakland, Calif.—Will Spend Several Days in This Vicinity, Besides Speaking at Exercises in Front of the Elks Temple Tomorrow Night—The Temple Will Be Open to the Public on That Occasion.

Former Chief Justice J. Dunn of the supreme court of Oklahoma, will deliver the patriotic address for the Elks at the annual observance of Flag Day at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Judge Dunn is a brilliant speaker, and was one of the best known public men in Oklahoma until just a few years ago, when, on account of his wife's health, he resigned from the supreme bench and moved to Oakland, Calif. He will arrive here on tomorrow evening's train, and it is expected that he will spend several days here enjoying the fishing, as the guest of local members of the lodge.

The Flag Day services are to be held from the front entrance to the Elks temple. The city council has granted permission to close Main street between Second and Third on the evening of the services, and seats are to be placed on the pavement in front of the building for the audience. The ritual work of the lodge is to be followed, and the altar is to be placed on the second landing of the steps leading to the entrance, and the officers chairs at each end and at the top and bottom. The band will occupy a position at the right of the top landing, while the members of the double mixed quartet will be at the left of the top landing.

While the services will be conducted by the Elks as is their annual custom, they will be for the entire public. Seating reservations will be made for the Grand Army of the Republic, the Woman's Relief Corps and city and county officials. Following the services the Elks home will be thrown open and the public is invited to inspect the building. The program follows: Music—"Star Spangled Banner" Band Introductory Exercises—Elected Ruler and Officers

Prayer—A. M. Worden, Chaplain Double Mixed Quartet—"Song of the Vikings," "Kentucky Babe"—Mrs. Moteschenbacher, Miss Newbury, Miss Calkins, Miss Hollowell, and Messrs. Moteschenbacher, Mehahey, Glaisyer and McFerrin. Mrs. Eumwalt, piano and director. Flag Record—Wilson S. Wiley Music—Band Elks' Tribute to the Flag—George A. Cathey Song—"America" (new tune)—Double Mixed Quartet Patriotic address—Judge Jesse J. Dunn Music—Band Closing

TWENTY MEN JAILED IN OREGON UNDER DRAFT LAW

PORTLAND, June 12.—Twenty men have been jailed in Oregon for failure to register, under the selective draft law. In Washington, thirteen men have been arrested for failure to obey this law.

Chinese Register to Fight for Uncle Sam

One booth for the registration of men under the selective draft law in New York city was established in the heart of Chinatown. It was filled with Chinese all day. Their names were taken by school teachers of the vicinity, who volunteered for the work. They said very few of the Orientals demanded exemption from military duty, and that many of them said very positively that they were ready to go to war.

Work Outlined for Red Cross Committees Here

A tremendous drive for the Red Cross throughout Klamath county in co-operation with the nation-wide movement, will start next Monday morning, and be concluded the Monday morning thereafter.

This week has been set aside by special proclamation of the president of the United States for the purpose of securing for the Red Cross $100,000,000. Klamath has been urged to do her share, and every patriotic citizen should lend his utmost assistance to the movement. Funds must be provided.

Plans for a most exhaustive canvass of the entire county have been carefully worked out under the leadership of R. H. Dunbar, chairman. There have been seven teams appointed to work, and the exact personnel of the workers will be published within a day or two.

The work that will be undertaken by each team is as follows: Team 1.—Klamath county outside of Klamath Falls. Team 2.—House to house canvass of Klamath Falls. Team 3.—Solicitors for downtown business men. Team 4.—Booths at prominent places in the city. Team 5.—Publicity. Team 6.—To arrange announcement of the campaign and explain need of funds at all churches, lodges and public meetings.

Russo Commission Here At Pacific Port

WASHINGTON, June 12.—A Russian Mission to America has landed at a Pacific port. The commission will stop first at Seattle, and then proceed directly to Washington. There are forty members in the party.

PERSHING NOW ON FRENCH SOIL WITH HIS STAFF

DUE TO ARRIVE IN PARIS TONIGHT

Flying Stars and Stripes and Conveyed by Destroyers and Hydroplanes, Ship Carrying Party Across Channel Docks at Boulogne—Met by French Officials and Depart for Paris on a Special Train.

PARIS, June 12.—General Pershing has arrived in Paris.

PARIS, June 12.—General Pershing has landed at Boulogne from the English channel steamer Invicta, and will arrive in Paris tonight.

General Pershing, representing the French government, and other military and naval officials, met him at the British soldiers lined the quays and rendered military honors as the Invicta, flying the stars and stripes and preceded by destroyers and accompanied by hydroplanes, steamed into Boulogne, while bands played the Star Spangled Banner and the Marseillaise.

The American staff departed immediately for Paris by special train.

OREGON PASSES ITS BOND QUOTA TODAY, REPORTED

KLAMATH'S TOTAL NOW ABOUT $40,000

Total Loan Nears $2,000,000,000 Mark, Due to Small Subscribers—New York Announces More Than $1,000,000,000 at 11 o'Clock—Portland Announces More Than $10,000,000—Local Bank Takes $5,000

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Small subscribers, investing $50 and $100 in Liberty Loan bonds, have swelled the total to near the $2,000,000,000 mark.

The New York headquarters announced their total at $1,000,000,000 at 11 o'clock this morning.

Secretary Wilson issued a statement today urging everyone to buy Liberty bonds.

PORTLAND, June 12.—Oregon's Liberty bond subscriptions passed the $10,000,000 mark today. The state's quota was $5,500,000.

Klamath county's total subscription to the loan was boosted yesterday afternoon and today to near the $40,000 mark.

The First National bank took $5,000 more of the bonds today, and the number subscribing is considerably larger. Among those subscribing again is Wm. B. Freer, who has taken out his second bond.

In order to facilitate the selling of the bonds, the local banks will remain open tomorrow, so that persons desiring to purchase them may do so, and thus aid Klamath county in bringing her share of $500,000 nearer the goal.

FLOATS ARE TO BE ELABORATE

MILES GOES TO SAN FRANCISCO FOR MATERIAL—MISS PEARL BOVIN HAS BEEN NOMINATED FOR GODDESS

Several elaborate floats are to be constructed for the Strahorn railroad dedication and Fourth of July demonstration by F. D. Miles of the Miles Sign company.

Mr. Miles, who has had a great deal of experience in this line of work in large cities during years past, has been at work for several days on artistic designs, and last night there were submitted to the committee.

They were warmly endorsed by the committee, and Mr. Miles was instructed to proceed with the construction. He left for San Francisco this morning to purchase material.

Miss Pearl Bovin has been nominated as candidate for Goddess of Liberty, making a total of four now in the race. Nominations close Friday night, the 15th, and the election closes Friday, June 20th.
