A wedding of features distinctive in several ways was that of Miss Agnes Stevenson and Calvin Dean Hoatson at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stevenson, of 446 Pearl street, on Friday. The hour of the ceremony was 7 o'clock a. m., and the bride's costume a white sport suit, which she wore when she left with her husband by train for Portland shortly afterward. A wedding breakfast preceded the ritual, which was read by William Moll Case of the Central Presbyterian church. The Stevenson home was filled with many roses in shades of pink and white with potted plants, and although there were no bride's maids or bride's bouquet, the minister was presented with his choice of the flowers. Only the immediate family of the bride attended. Miss Stevenson had been home but a week from San Francisco, where she is one of the four teachers who completely supervise physical training work in the public schools of San Francisco, having in her section of the city 400 teachers under her instruction. She was one of the small group who instituted this system of work in San Francisco two years ago. Her college education was gained at the University of Oregon, where she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta fraternity. Mr. Hoatson is actively interested in mining at Sutter Creek, California. From here the bride and groom went to Chicago and to the summer home of Mr. Hoatson's parents in Michigan. In August they will return to California. —Eugene Register.

Mrs. Hoatson was one of the first graduates of K. C. H. S. and taught for a number of years in the city schools. She is a sister of George E. Stevenson and Mrs. A. D. Addison, both of this city.

Wednesday evening a party of friends were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kinney. The occasion was a birthday dinner given in honor of Mr. Kinney's 31st birthday. The dining room was decorated in white and pink. After dinner the evening was spent in music and conversation. One of the many beautiful presents Mr. Kinney received was a scarf pin with his birth stone. This was presented him by Mr. and Mrs. Baker, who will spend the summer with the Kinneys. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Grimes and Ivan Nell.

The First Aid Society will meet next Wednesday at the White Pelican hotel at 3 o'clock, as usual.

Mrs. G. A. Bellman and Mrs. A. A. Bellman entertained a few friends Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Myrtle Maddox and Mrs. W. C. Hansenback, sisters of Mrs. Percy and S. B. Evans. They met first with Mrs. G. A. Bellman, where fancy work and music were enjoyed. Then about 5 o'clock they went to Mrs. A. A. Bellman's, where delicious refreshments were served, the color scheme being carried out in yellow and lavender. Those present were Mrs. Sidney Evans, Mrs. W. C. Hansenback, Mrs. M. P. Evans, Miss Myrtle Maddox, Mrs. A. M. Worden, Mrs. Burge Mason, Mrs. John Parker, Mrs. Joe Ward, Mrs. H. N. Moe, Mrs. Margaret Pitts, Mrs. Joe Evans, Mrs. A. A. Bellman and Mrs. G. A. Bellman.

Mrs. Henrietta Melhase entertained a few friends in honor of Mrs. Bridges, who is leaving shortly for the summer, at her home on Fifth and Klamath, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Melhase arranged a very clever game. She took Mrs. Bridges' name and mixed the letters all up, spelling the name Birdsog—the ladies having to guess what this was and how many rivers in Klamath county, and how many times this word was connected with each river. Mrs. Van Bellen solved the problem and won the prize, which was a small bridge set. Mrs. Plath won the consolation prize, which was a bridge tablet, then Mrs. Melhase presented Mrs. Bridges with a special prize. Those present were: Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Whitlock, Mrs. Chas. Martin, Mrs. L. L. Truax, Mrs. Fred Schalllock, Mrs. Carl Plath, Mrs. C. H. Daggett, Mrs. H. N. Moe, Mrs. Marple, Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mrs. L. J. Van Bellen, Mrs. Van Riper, Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. Garrett and Mrs. Bridges.

A kitchen shower was given for Miss Maude Newberry Thursday afternoon, who is to be married shortly. About 5 o'clock the crowd took cars and went into the country, where a picnic dinner was had, and Miss Newberry was showered with the useful kitchen things, among them was an electric toaster. Those invited were Miss Josie Low, Miss Marie Rambo, Miss Alice Duncan, Mrs. Kathryn Glaisyer, Mrs. Marjorie Wheeler, Mrs. Pearl Martin, Mrs. Elsie Siemens, Mrs. Claudia Brett, Mrs. Ruth Gowen, Mrs. G. Biehn, and is employed here by the Western Transfer company. The bride is the half sister of Ralph Jennings, the present sheriff of Jackson county. The couple will make their home at 123 Lewis street, West Klamath Falls.
