THE SPIRIT OF '64 STILL

REMAINS WITH OLD SOLDIER

ATLANTA, July 17.—You can't tell W. A. Ellis that he isn't as good a man at 74 as he was fifty years ago, when he ranged half a dozen countries as a soldier of fortune, and led a company of Georgia volunteers thru the war between the states.

Mr. Ellis, an inmate of the Old Soldiers' home, wants to enter the service of his country and to help beat the foe. So far he has not been allowed to induce recruiting officers in the army to accept him. Until two weeks ago he was a resident of Griffin, Ga., when he was fighting for the Union with Lee Christmas, Confederate, in Central Georgia.

KLAMATH COUNTY NEWS

MALIN MENTION

MALIN, July 17.—Nearly every one is haying here now.

Mr. Herman and Steve Bennett came down from Bryant Mountain saw mill to put up hay.

Love Chandler and Mr. Fredenberg were at Malin from their homestead near Doublehead, Calif., for supplies. Gus Hall from Bryant Mountain and Mr. Stout from Dry Lake were at Malin on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Brotanek, Mrs. Ivan D. Applegate, Mrs. F. H. Brandenburg and Mrs. V. X. Wood were trading at Malin Saturday.

Many are enjoying the bathing in the government canal north of Malin this hot weather.

Dr. A. Soule and wife and baby daughter left this morning by auto to spend a week's vacation at the home of his parents at Little Shasta, Calif.

MT. LAKE LACONICS

MT. LAKE, July 17.—A Red Cross social was held at the church last Saturday evening by the ladies of the district. The program consisted of readings, songs and "The Punkin Center Bugle," which was read by Mrs. McComb. The paper contained many witty and funny articles and jokes, many of the jokes being on some of those present. The entire program was greatly enjoyed by all, and after it was over refreshments of ice cream and cake, candy, soda pop and lemonade were sold. A total of about $15 was taken in for the Red Cross.

C. E. Hunt and family went in their new car to religious services held at Straw, Calif., today.

C. G. Morris of the Klamath Agency is among today's visitors in the city. He is registered at the Hotel Hall.

Another Gould Romance

Three days after attending his brother Kingdon's wedding, at which he was the only member of his family present, George J. Gould Jr., was quietly married in Philadelphia to Miss Laura M. Carter of Freehold N. J. In obtaining the license young Gould stated his age was 31 and Miss Carter said that was her age also.

The only witnesses of the Gould-Carter wedding were Mrs. E. J. Callahan of Ardena, the bride's aunt; Dixon Callahan, her cousin, and Dr.

George A. Coleman, an old friend. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Carter, are both dead. Mr. Carter was a New York business man. For seventeen years the bride has lived with Mr. and Mrs. Callahan. She is a graduate of Freehold high school and an accomplished dancer. She and Mr. Gould became acquainted at an informal tea in Freehold two years ago, and have been engaged three months. The Gould family, according to the new Mrs. Gould, offered no objection to the match.

One Third More Men Than Women Voters

SALEM, July 17.—Male voters in Oregon outnumber women voters by about 60,000, according to a table of statistics made public here today by Secretary of State Ben Olcott. The table, which has been prepared for the 1917-18 Oregon Blue Book, shows there were 181,119 men and 121,578 women registered fifteen days before the special bond election June 4. Registered republican women outnumber their democratic sisters more than two to one, there being 75,840 women registered as republicans and 33,981 as democrats. There are 118,063 men registered republicans and 48,843 as democrats.

In the prohibition party registrations the women outnumber the men, there being 4,786 women registered and 2,295 men. Registered progressives totaled 1,453 when the registration books closed.

Approximately 33,000 voters failed to cast their ballots at the presidential election last November, according to the table.

RALPH WISHARD ENTERS ANNAPOLES ACADEMY

Word has just been received here by Archie Wishard that his brother, Ralph, had passed the examinations successfully for the Annapolis Naval Academy, and is now on his way there to enter school.

Ralph attended the high school here during part of the year 1915, and is well known among the local boys.

DRAFT MACHINERY DELAYED

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17.—Fifteen states had not reported the completion of exemption board organizations. The war department has said that the selective draft could hardly be held before Saturday at the earliest.

Moving Pictures

"Blood Will Tell," at the Star tonight, is a new Triangle-Kay Bee play of love and finance that will cause many thrills and heart throbs as you follow the fortunes of a man who hated business, who was turned adrift by his money-grubbing father, who married a chorus girl and was aroused by her to deeds of daring and energy that culminated in the saving of his own father from his business enemies.

STRAHORN GIVEN CROSSING PERMIT

REVOCABLE PERMIT FOR TEMPORARY SPUR CROSSING WANTLAND AND SIXTH—PERMANENT S. P. CONNECTION LATER

Robert E. Strahorn was last night given a permit by the council to construct a spur from the Southern Pacific Y crossing Wantland avenue and Sixth street to his construction yards below Sixth. The spur, which is to be temporary, will be used to unload his steel and other equipment as it arrives.

The permit granted by the council was revocable, as the spur will probably not be used after a few months as arrangements have been made to tap the Espee line west of Sixth street.

JITNEY DRIVERS WANT LICENSE

WOULD PAY LICENSE AND ESTABLISH SCHEDULE ENDORSED BY CITY COUNCIL—MATTER TO BE ARRANGED THIS WEEK

The jitney drivers of Klamath Falls, who have organized among themselves for protection against outsiders who come in for a few months of the year when the roads are good, and leave with the wet weather, wish to pay a good license to the city for the privilege of operation, and have a fair schedule of prices arranged, endorsed by the council for the different seasons which will be effective.

The question has been brought to the attention of that body, which is favorably inclined to the idea, previously, and was up for discussion again last night, but nothing definite was done, as the proposed schedule was not finally arranged.

Attorney R. C. Groesbeck will meet with the drivers Thursday evening, and have this prepared for the next meeting.

ELKS BECOME TAME BY WINTER FEEDING

LEWISTON, Mont., July 17.—Few persons believe that a herd of elk, considered almost as shy and skittish as deer, would become so tame that they needed a herder, but elk-herding has become an occupation in Lewiston.

A herd of elk turned loose in the foothills near here several years ago failed to remain in the hills when the cold weather appeared, and every winter for the last few years they have returned and raided the grain fields. A solution to the problem was sought, and it was taken up in the Lewiston lodge of Elks.

The organization decided that Elks always behaved better with a herder in charge, so they voted to bear part of the expense of hiring a herder, whose duties will be to keep the herd in the mountains.

Dr. A. A. Soule reports the birth of a baby daughter to Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cornish on July 10th. Mr. Cornish is connected with the Klamath Falls Fire Department.

New Manager of "Pirates"

HUGO BEZDEK

Hugo Bezdek, who has been acting as scout, is the new manager of the Pittsburg National League baseball club, succeeding Hans Wagner, who was acting manager for only two days. Wagner was given the place when Jimmy Callahan was ousted. Bezdek was at one time a star football player at the University of Chicago and afterwards was supervisor of physical instruction and football coach at the University of Oregon.

Fire accident and health policies are the standard. Ask Chilcote. The use of militant "direct action" tactics to the full extent of our power to make good.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR TURN GRAY, FADED HAIR DARK AND GLOSSY

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy, and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.
