

INDUSTRIAL WORKER HANGED WORK RUSHED ON STRAHORN RAILWAY

FIRST CAR FOR NEW ROAD IS NOW HERE

Freight Car No. 300 Is Now in This City

First Car for the New Municipal Railroad Comes Loaded With the Rails Over Which It is to Travel. Three and One-Half Miles of Grade Are Now Completed. Fifty Men Work Between Klamath Falls and Olene.

Freight car No. 300 of the Klamath Falls Municipal Railroad is on the ground. The first car for the new municipal line now under construction here has arrived and has commenced its useful career already. It reached Klamath Falls filled with steel for the second ten miles of the first link between Klamath Falls and Olene, accompanied by another with a like load.

Every evidence of activity is now shown along the new right-of-way and the work is going ahead as rapidly as was anticipated. Two cars of silver plates, enough for the first twenty miles and enough barbed wire to fence that distance of right-of-way has been received.

Several miles of ties are now ready and one of the local mills is getting out more as fast as possible. Over three and one-half miles of grading is now completed between Klamath Falls and Olene, ten miles east. In addition to a considerable stretch at Pine Flat.

Good progress is reported on the heavy rock cut, this side of Pine Flat. Contractor Guy Walton reports that he has fifty men now at work between this and Olene and that the grade should be completed by October first. With the harvest of the hay crop the scarcity of horse feed has been relieved.

HEAVY CROP AT MIDLAND

JUDGE WILLITS REPORTS LARGEST ALFALFA CROP IN COUNTY'S HISTORY. HAS FINISHED PUTTING UP FIRST CUTTING

The largest hay crop ever harvested is reported by Judge Willits who has just returned from his Midland ranch after completing the harvest.

He estimates that his first cutting is as large as his total crop last year and declares that the yield all through that section is tremendous.

New Manager of Plan to Fight Submarines

Immediately after Major General Goethals and Chairman Denman of the shipping board handed their resignations to President Wilson he named in their places Edward N. Hurley as chairman of the United States shipping board to take the place of Mr. Denman, and Rear Admiral Capps for the place held by General Goethals. Mr. Hurley was formerly the chairman of the federal trade commission, from which he resigned to go into business. Admiral Capps is a naval constructor of renown.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gilroy and son, Warren, left this morning for Redding on account of Mr. Gilroy's health. Mr. Gilroy was an employee of the Ewauna Box Factory.

CAMP OPENING DELAYED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 1—Delays in preparing the National Guard Mobilization Camps will postpone their opening for about a fortnight, according to official announcement made today.

FLANDERS BATTLE MAY LAST MONTHS

TREMENDOUS OFFENSIVE NOW STARTED WILL BE ONE OF THE GREATEST CONFLICTS OF WAR. RESULT VERY SIGNIFICANT

PARIS, Aug. 1.—A tremendous movement has now commenced on the western front of the European war theater by the allies. That this offensive is one that has been given much preparation, and that it will be one of the greatest, if not the greatest, battle of the war is believed by many of the leading observers.

The battle of Flanders is expected to last weeks and perhaps months. Prominent authorities say that it is not too much to hope, with the success already secured, that the Germans may soon be cleared from French Belgian Flanders.

By Associated Press
With over 3,500 prisoners and a wide stretch of territory in their hands as a result of the new offensive, the French troops last night consolidated their positions.

FOOD CONTROL BILL SETTLED

SENATE COMMITTEE AGREES TO STRIKE OUT AMENDMENT PROVIDING FOR CONGRESSIONAL COM. ON WAR EXPENDITURE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 1.—The deadlock of the conferees on the Food Control Bill has been broken. A complete agreement was reached when the Senate conferees consented to strike out the amendment proposing the Congressional Committee to supervise the war expenditures, which President Wilson had opposed.

First Photograph of German Airplanes From British Soil in the Recent Raid on London

This remarkable photograph was taken on the outskirts of London July 7th shortly before the German flotilla of airplanes began to drop bombs on London. The flotilla remained in this regular formation till it was attacked by British airplanes and the anti-aircraft guns below.

Russ Army Needs 100,000 Yankees

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—The presence of American troops on the eastern front would be fatal to Germany, according to General Michel Yassukovich, chief of the Russian military commission, who was here yesterday.

"If America will send 100,000 men to Russia she will furnish an army that will be the nucleus of a million men that may be grouped with fatal results to Germany," declared General Yassukovich. "Germany will not be able to face such a combination in the eastern theater, while France, Great Britain and America press her in the west. There is no doubt that splendid Russian armies of a million men each, organized, stiffened and encouraged by the presence of our troops, can be built upon the foundation of each 100,000 Americans sent to our front."

Superintendent for New Hospital Training School Here to Take Hold

Miss Gladys Steele, the new Superintendent of the Blackburn Hospital and Training School for nurses arrived last night to take up her new duties here. Miss Steele comes highly recommended by Mrs. O. E. Osborne, president of the State Board of Training Schools. She is a graduate of the Northwestern at Minneapolis and has been superintendent of the Wilamette Sanitarium at Salem. The Blackburn Hospital has now been placed on the accredited list of Training Schools of the State. The new term will open September first. Applications will be received now at any time.

Calls American Soldiers "Scabs in Uniforms"

WYTHECOMBE TO CREATE BOARD

STATE BOARD OF ARBITRATION TO BE NAMED BY EXECUTIVE IN FEW DAYS TO SETTLE CAPITAL AND LABOR DISPUTES

SALEM, Aug. 1.—Governor Withycombe said recently that he would announce in a few days the personnel of the board of arbitration he intends to appoint for settlement of disputes between capital and labor.

"I am absolutely convinced that such a board is the proper solution for disputes between capital and labor," said the governor. "In fact, I have for years had such an opinion. Employers have not yet signified their approval of such a board, but laboring people have, and I intend to appoint a board. The board will consist of seven members; three from labor and three from capital, the seventh to be the chief justice of the supreme court. I will appoint on the board only men whom I consider broadminded enough to cope with all problems that may come before the board."

YUCATAN GOVERNOR WILL EXTERMINATE THE BANDITS

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 1.—General Salvador Alvarado, Governor of Yucatan, who was called to the capital some time ago for a conference with President Carranza, has returned to Yucatan to assume full charge of military operations for the extermination of bandits in the states of Yucatan, Tabasco and Campeche. It was generally rumored when General Alvarado arrived here that he was to assume a place in Carranza's cabinet, but his departure seems to have put an end to such rumors.

Miss Myrtle Griffen, who has been with the Golden Rule store for several years, left this morning for Springfield, Missouri, to visit her parents for six weeks.

AGITATOR RECENTLY ARRIVED FROM ARIZONA TAKEN FROM ROOM BY MASKED MEN AND HANGED TO TRESTLE

BUTTE, Mont., Aug. 1.—Six men-masked, took Frank Little, a member of the executive board of Industrial Workers, out of his room here before dawn, piled him into an automobile and hanged him to a railroad trestle in the outskirts of the city.

Little recently arrived from Arizona, where he was a prominent agitator.

In speaking here, he attacked the government, calling American soldiers "American scabs in uniform." He urged men to "close" the Butte mines.

Little recently addressed Governor Campbell of Arizona from Salt Lake, protesting against the deportation of the men from Bisbee, and was believed to have been one of Secretary W. D. Haywood's chief lieutenants. Little was lame, and was half-carried and half dragged to the machine, not given time to dress.

SEATTLE CAR STRIKE SETTLED

AGREEMENT IS SIGNED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF COMPANY AND STRIKERS. WILL BE RATIFIED AT MEETING TODAY

SEATTLE, Aug. 1.—Street cars will probably start in Seattle and Tacoma tonight and tomorrow.

The company has now signed an agreement with the strikers which will settle the differences of the two factions. The men are to meet this afternoon in both cities to ratify the contracts.

It is expected that the five hundred strikebreakers will be returned to New York immediately.

Agitator Vultch Is Up on a Federal Charge

MAN SENTENCED FOR VAGRANCY IS ALSO ALLEGED TO HAVE VIOLATED ESPIONAGE ACT—IS RELEASED, LACK EVIDENCE

Charged with violating the espionage act, Martin Vultch, one of the men sentenced yesterday morning by Justice E. W. Gowan on a charge of vagrancy, was later brought before United States Commissioner Bert C. Thomas by Assistant U. S. Attorney J. H. Carnahan.

The evidence at hand was not sufficiently conclusive to bind him over to the federal grand jury, however, and he was released from the charge.

Vultch was given six months and a fine of $100 on the vagrancy charge.
