Oregon Will Take Woman War Census

How Women May Best Aid Nation Will Be Determined By Census Of All Women and Girls Over 15 Years. Gov. Wythecombe Will Proclaim September Fifteen For Registration

Oregon is to take a war census of its women. A national movement was started in New York, under federal supervision, recently, and it will be carried out along the same lines here. September 15th will be proclaimed by Governor Wythecombe this week as Housewives' Registration Day, and every female more than 15 years old will be asked to register. The object is to determine exactly what the women of the state can do and how they may supplant men who will leave their civilian status to take part in the great conflict in Europe. The matter of registration will be a voluntary one. Every woman will be asked to register from an economic standpoint. Whether the registration will be conducted by a house-to-house canvass or whether polling places will be established is a matter yet to be determined. The former plan is meeting with much approval, and if it is adopted, volunteer workers will be assigned to certain districts to gather the data. The registration cards have been printed, and they contain an exhaustive series of questions, showing exactly what every woman can do. These blanks will be filled out and the government will take them over, placing them on file in the war census bureau at Washington, D. C. This will be the only official census of housewives taken. At the time of registration, it is probable that the Hoover food pledges, setting aside certain days when meat and white flour will not be used in order to conserve the supply, will be distributed. This work is under the direct supervision of Dr. W. J. Kerr, president of the Oregon Agricultural College. The parent-teacher associations, every woman's religious organization of the various creeds, the patriotic relief division, and similar organizations will take an active part in the taking of the housewives' census.

WILLIE ILICH IS NO SLACKER

YOUNG MAN EMPLOYED AT LOGGING CAMP HAS WITHDRAWN EXEMPTION CLAIM AND WILL GO TO THE FRONT

Willie Ilich, one of the young men recently drafted is not a "slacker," and rather than be known as such he has withdrawn his claim which he expected to file for exemption on account of caring for his dependent father and mother, and go to the front with the rest of the men as soon as they are called. Ilich came down yesterday from the Johnston camp of the Pelican Bay Lumber company, where he has been employed for several years, and made known his decision. He has two brothers now at the front from the old home in Montenegro, where his mother still resides, while his father is with him here. Ilich declares that he has purchased his liberty bonds and subscribed substantially to the Red Cross, and will go to the front rather than have any stigma attached to his name, although he believes he has ample cause to stay at home.

WANT AD GETS QUICK RESULTS

LUMBERMAN SAYS IT CERTAINLY PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE EVENING HERALD—IMMEDIATE RESULTS FOLLOW

The quickest results ever received thru an advertisement were secured yesterday by Marion Nine, a local lumber man, thru want ads placed in the Evening Herald. Mr. Nine declares that he has always believed in advertising, and has always secured good returns from his money invested in this way, but never experienced such immediate benefits as those secured here. Late yesterday, being in dire need of lumber millers at his mill near Fort Klamath, the shortage being so severe that it would have been necessary to have closed operations within two days without more help, he ordered small space in the Herald columns, making his wants known to the public. Within less than two hours after the paper was on the street he had his vacancies all filled, and the men are now at the mill at work.

LANDS BIG FISH AFTER STRUGGLE

C. A. ALLEN GETS 12-POUND TROUT FOLLOWING FIGHT OF AN HOUR AND A HALF AT ROCKY POINT

A notable struggle was enacted at the fish banks at Rocky Point yesterday, when C. A. Allen of Klamath Falls landed a 12-pound salmon trout with a seven ounce rod and a line with only a 17-pound test. It took an hour and a half of strenuous work on the part of Mr. Allen to bring the big fish to the gaff. Mr. Allen, who has been at the Point for about ten days, has been quite successful, doing still fishing almost exclusively, using minnows as bait.

RUSSIA NOT FAVORABLE TO PEACE PROPOSALS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 23.—

Rejection by Russia of the pope's peace proposal was foreshadowed in an official statement issued at the Russian embassy. The statement follows: "The answer to the vatican's peace proposal has not yet been formulated by the Russian government, but there is a feeling in Russia that the proposal has been made with some inspiration from the central powers. It is considered in Russia that the very basis of the vatican's proposal is inconsistent with the democratic aims of the Russian people in this war and non-acceptable from that point of view." The vatican's proposal, it is said, ignores the most vital principle proclaimed by Russia—the right of each nation to determine its own destiny, and thus leaves the fate of certain subject nationalities in the hands of other powers.

FALLS FROM HAYSTACK

Henry Gordon of the Fort Klamath country had the misfortune to fall from a haystack a few days ago, striking on his head and shoulders. He was laid up in bed for a short time, but beyond a stiff neck and bruises he is no worse for the accident.

GOOD BILL TONIGHT

As this is the last night of the Gladstone Sisters bill in Klamath Falls, a special program with a complete change will be given at the Star theater tonight. A more extensive program is announced than on the two previous nights. A special feature will be the Grecian barefoot dance, which has brought the sisters much fame in the city vaudeville.

She's a Mayor, But She Dislikes the Job

Mrs. George Horwitz of Moorehaven, Fla., and Philadelphia, has been elected mayor of the former city, but she does not think she likes the job, and she frankly admits she doesn't know much about the duties. She isn't even a suffragist. When she found she, as mayor, would have to sit as magistrate in the police court, she realized it was serious New York city to get some advice from police court magistrates. "Since the court work is part of my duty," she said, "I am going to do myself for it."

TUESDAY TO BE MEATLESS DAY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 23.—

America's "meatless day," if it finally is ordered, is to be Tuesday. Plans for the publicity campaign of the food administration to conserve the food supply of the nation during the war are rapidly coming to a head. The campaign will be launched very shortly. While the food administration can restrain to some extent the sale of these foods, the consumption of which it is desired to cut down, that step will not be taken unless other means fail. The public will be asked to regulate itself. Hotels, restaurants and dining cars all over the country and clubs in very many cities will serve no meat on Tuesdays after the appeal is issued. Patriotism and neighborhood influence will be counted upon to bring about observance of the day in private homes.

DANCE IS POSTPONED

Because of the exceptionally good pictures to be presented at the opera house tonight, the dance at the Klamath Falls Academy scheduled for this evening has been postponed.

EVERY Artist, every Dramatist, every Musician, every Writer knows the importance of the setting.

Take the rooms of a home as a setting, any room, nook or corner when out of proportion will detract from the general effect.
Many a good housekeeper is born to remain unrecognized as such because of a poorly planned home.
Many a woman that would be considered an ordinary housekeeper becomes an authority in matters pertaining to housekeeping because of a cleverly planned, step-saving, convenient home.
There is no way in which a woman can show her individuality and so exercise the particular sort of power that is her's, as when she gives expression in the things about her.
The influence of a well planned home is positive, direct and sure.
