Red Cross Mission Entertained In Japan

TOKIO, Aug. 23.—Cordiality and sympathy marked the luncheon given by the Japan Red Cross Society to the American Red Cross Mission, which was on its way to Russia. The American mission, of which Dr. Frank Billings is chairman, was met on its arrival in Japan by a large delegation of Japanese workers, including Baron Ishiguro, the president of the society, and many others. Baron Ishiguro made an interesting address at the luncheon. He voiced Japanese appreciation of the warmth of the reception accorded in the United States to Japanese Red Cross missions on their way to Europe, and added: "The emblem of the Red Cross has wiped out all the boundaries of state as well as the distinction of races. Co-operation in this human work, as a matter of nature, cannot be otherwise than in deep sympathy with each other. I feel, therefore, as if I meet old friends here today."

Famous Russian Woman Joins Ranks Of Fighters

PETROGRAD, Aug. 23.—Marya Sphidonovo, famous from the revolution of 1905, has joined the ranks of women champions of "war till victory." Mile Spiridonova, a 19-year-old student at a secondary school, was so horrified by the fogging of Tamboff peasants by Assistant Governor Lushenowsky that she shot the oppressor dead. She was arrested, dragged from place to place in a cattle truck, and tortured. The gendarme officer who acted as jailer stripped her naked and held burning matches against her skin. Her case provoked international protests. Mile Spiridonova has been in "katorga," the most terrible form of penal prison, and spent three years in chains. After her release by the revolution, she lay ill in Tchita, East Siberia, the inhabitants of which invited her to become a candidate for election as mayor. On her way home to Europe, thousands of Siberians met and acclaimed her at the railroad station, and she, replied by begging the men to fight for liberty, and begging the women to incite their husbands to battle. Speaking at Dmsk, she told deserting soldiers that America's entry into the war should make them blush with shame, as American liberationist sentiment had been a powerful factor in her favor.

Potato Riots Are Disturbing Holland

(Correspondence of Associated Press) THE HAGUE, July 29.—The potato riots at Amsterdam and Rotterdam this month have given the Dutch government one of the most severe jolts it has experienced. The trouble began with a request on the part of Germany that the export of new potatoes should be permitted immediately they began to reach the market. As it was backed up by the intimation that only thus could be obviated a reduction of the ration of German coal of 350,000 tons a month, on which the country and its industries so vitally depend, the minister of agriculture, F. E. 'osthuma, gave way. The standing agreement provided that 12,000 tons of potatoes must be delivered to Great Britain before any further export to Germany, and as the British authorities insisted on the strict fulfillment of this obligation, the result was that the home market, for two or three weeks preceding the arrival of the new crop in any quantity, was bereft of its supplies of the old, and was practically bare. Finding themselves suddenly deprived of such a conspicuous item in their daily menu, mobs of indignant housewives at Amsterdam and Rotterdam raided any boats or wagons containing potatoes they could get at, and apparently managed to plunder a certain amount destined for Great Britain, though they neither knew nor cared where the food was bound. Indeed, there was no suggestion what ever of the riots being of an anti-British character. The British authorities were the more displeased with the course things had taken as seeming to throw on them the odium of taking supplies which Holland herself needed, while, owing to shipment delays, the

CARE MUST BE USED IN DRINKING TEA

LONDON, Aug. 23.—"Has it been noticed that since the anti-treating epoch and since alcoholic liquor came to a vanishing point, men invite one another to cups of tea and get quite feverish over their potatoes?" asks the Daily Express.

"Yesterday afternoon an actor who is 'resting' confessed that he had consumed nine cups of tea since breakfast time. They had certainly changed his condition. He was terribly restless. Glittering eyes, rapid, nonsensical volubrious talk, high temperature, an uncertain temper, a fluctuating pulse, hands nervously clenched—all these are the signs and tokens of tea drunkenness."

High Heels Put Corns on Toes

Who cares? Corns or calluses lift off without any pain.

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heeled footwear, they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw, and women are warned to stop it. A few drops of freezone applied directly upon a sore corn or tender callus gives quick relief and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, lifts off without pain. Ask the drug store man for a tiny bottle of freezone, which costs but a few cents, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Freezone dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn or callus without even irritating the surrounding skin. Women! Keep a bottle of freezone handy on the dresser, and never let a corn ache twice.—Adv.

BE PRETTY TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

TRY GRANDMOTHER'S OLD FAVORITE RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, gray or streaked. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it, and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attract. live.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.
