

United States Fighting For Permanent Peace

To Be Satisfied Now With Agreements Which Might At Any Time Be Regarded As Scraps of Paper By Adversaries Would Be Height of Folly, Declares Wilson in His Reply to Pontiff

That the peace pact which follows the terrible world slaughter now going on must be something of a binding nature representing the will and the faith of the nations behind it, and not a mere scrap of paper, to be thrown to the rubbish pile when irresponsible rulers become tired of the terms, is courteously but firmly made known to the pope by President Wilson in his reply to the peace offers recently made.

Reasons for the United States now being in the war are given.

"The purposes of the United States in this war are known to the whole world—to every people to whom the truth had permitted to come. They do not need to be stated again. We seek no material advantage of any kind. We believe that the intolerable wrongs done in this war by furious and brutal power of the Imperial German government ought to be repaired, but not at the expense of the sovereignty of any people—rather a vindication of the sovereignty both of those that are weak and those that are strong. Punitive damages, the dismemberment of empires, the establishment of selfish and exclusive economic leagues, we deem inexpedient, and in the worse than futile, no proper basis for a peace of any kind.

least of all for an enduring peace. That must be based upon justice and fairness and the common right of mankind.

"The object of this war is to deliver the free peoples of the world from the menace and the actual power of a vast military establishment, controlled by an irresponsible government, which, having secretly planned to dominate the world, proceeded to carry the plan out without regard either to the sacred obligations of treaty or the long established practices and long cherished principles of international action and honor; which chose its own time for the war; delivered its blow fiercely and suddenly; stopped at no barrier either of law or of mercy; swept a whole continent within the tide of blood—not the blood of soldiers only, but the blood of innocent women and children also, and of the helpless poor; and now stands balked, but not defeated, the enemy of four-fifths of the world.

"We cannot take the word of the present rulers of Germany as a guarantee of anything that is to endure unless explicitly supported by such conclusive evidence of the will and purpose of the German people themselves as the other people of the world would be justified in accepting."

Dearest Public:

September morn will do her stunt at Shippington at dawn tomorrow. No, we don't rent fold glasses.

Say, Gladys, I am going to tell you again that I have some very swell diamonds, and if he has something around him you like make him spend some of it, and remember:

Early to bed and early to rise, And you'll not meet none of the regular guys.

And, Girlie, if you have to write to this guy, why, we have the cutest little fountain pen for a dollar that you could ever imagine.

No, these pens don't lie; of course, if you insist, I imagine they might.

No car is complete unless it is equipped with a pair of Thermos bottles in a case. We have reading, shooting, snoring, smoked, yellow, looking and empty glasses for every body, so if you want to be exposed to the truth real close, we have the glasses that will arrange it for you.

We are going to recover umbrellas this fall.

No, Mr. Smarty, we don't go out and hunt for the lost ones. If you have a perfectly good frame we can put a cover on it for you. Get me?

The latest thing—vases for automobiles.

Of course, I realize peaches are nice to have in the car, but a bunch of beautiful flowers leads enchantment to the scene.

If you are in need of a watch come in and see us, as we can save you money. I was out to the shapenodium and there I saw a "Boating rib." Oh, you Eve, why did you do it?

There are others who thot they were picking a "Pippin," and when the drawing was over it was a beautiful "Lemon."

No, we have no lemons, but we have lingerie claps in the season's newest. Clothing should be worn with these.

Sometimes I think we could never get along without the wind.

Cutie little skirt On her shape so grand;

Lovely little ankle Tripping down the strand.

Merry little saphyr came from out the West, sir,

Grabbed hold this cutie skirt and darn near undressed her.

Glide over to 605 Main street and see our stock if you need jewelry. Between heaven and earth and Sixth and Seventh. Fly over, Birdie. McHattan.
