

COUNTY AND CITY SCHOOLS TO OPEN

Six teachers will preside over the eight grades in the Riverside school this year, instead of a teacher for each grade, as has been the custom in the past. Schools throughout the city and county will open Monday for organization. The instructors who will have charge of the city schools this year are as follows:

Central School
Augusta Parker, principal.
Lena Stoecker, eighth grade.
Twyla Head, seventh grade.
Nellie McAndrews, sixth grade.
Augusta Lindblom, fifth grade.
Pearl Talley, fourth grade.
Mary Reith, third grade.
Rachael Manneman, second grade.
Laura Mayer and Golden Lincoln, first grade.

Riverside
Mary Stewart, principal and eighth grade.
Hazel Hardenbrook, seventh grade.
A. Delight Forbes, sixth grade.
Alice Johnson, fourth and fifth grades.
Gertrude Parker, second and third grades.
Helen Paxton, first grade.

Mills
Agnes Bryan, principal and fourth and fifth grades.
Amiel Rush, first, second and third grades.

The sixth, seventh and eighth grade scholars from Mills Addition will attend the Central school.

Pelican Bay
Norma Barbee, principal and fifth to eighth grades.
Marjorie Detsell, first to fourth.

Special Teachers
Music, Elizabeth Houston.
Domestic Science and Art—Clara Elmer.
Manual Training, H. A. Staples.
Superintendent, R. H. Dunbar.

Moving Pictures

George Walsh, acknowledged as the best actor in film comedy drama, will appear in another rollicking picture at the Star tonight. It is Wm. Fox's "High Finance," a story which gives Mr. Walsh a rare opportunity to display his prowess and fun-making ability. Md. Walsh plays the role of Preston Platt, a young spendthrift, who, because he is threatened with being disinherited, hires out as a valet with a scientist about to go West to explore a deserted mine. On the trip he meets Patricia West (Dorris Pawn), a young girl, who, to assert woman's rights becomes private secretary with the same scientist. Preston falls in love with Patricia. To show his father he has some business ability, he "salts" the abandoned copper mine, starts a run on the stock, and sells it to his father for $100,000.
