FASHIONS

Idea for a Dainty Blouse.

A very dainty blouse of some sheer material, such as voile,orgette, tulle or organdie, has a very deep collar with two-inch hemstitched edges. The collar is crossed over in the front in a surprise effect and the ends are fastened in the back, being drawn thru wide slots attached to the blouse under the arm at the waist line. The ends may be left hanging after being drawn thru the slots. This is a very new idea.

Purple.

Purple is as popular this fall as it was in the spring and summer, and is used not only as the color touch in dull colored suits and frocks, but is used extensively to develop entire outfits. One very pretty and striking combination is a suit of champagne color, with collar and cuffs of purple. A purple tulle hat with drooping brim was worn with it. The sheer blouse was of champagne color with a touch of purple embroidery in the fronts. Champagne hosiery and purple kid slippers completed this costume.

Men Find Life At Camp Lewis Pleasant

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—That the boys of the national army are rapidly adjusting themselves to camp life and are enjoying it is indicated by practically all the letters which are written home. The following is from "veteran" of the first contingent who is training at Camp Lewis, near Tacoma, Wash.:

"Camp Lewis has changed rapidly in the last ten days as a result of the thousands of new men pouring in. The first quota of 5 per cent with which I came, barely made a showing at the lower end of the big parade ground; now it is necessary to have each company assigned to a small area, so as not to run afoul of another group of recruits, with about 25,000 men drilling at the same time.

The "vets" of two weeks had an opportunity last week to see what they looked like. Commencing on the 15th and continuing for practically a week, special trains were pouring in from all sections of the West with thousands of men daily. Upon arrival of the cantonment the men were directed to a long shed, divided into runways or sections for men from different states. At the rear of the runway on an elevated platform was the officers who called off the names. The recruits were then formed into double files and marched off to barracks to which they had been assigned.

It seemed as if the procession would never end. At all hours of the day and night one could see or hear marching columns. Recently the regiment recruited some buglers, and thus far we have learned everything except the "Pay Day March." Guess that will come shortly, as the first arrivals were mustered in this morning and signed the payroll. Later, when Uncle Sam has 46,000 men to pay and about $1,500,000 is handed out each payday, things should be lively. Buildings continue to spring up here and there like mushrooms, but the camp is practically complete now. A couple of days ago the carpenters finished our regimental hospital and regimental Y. M. C. A. building. The latter is not occupied yet, however. The Y. M. C. A. is doing a wonderful work for the men in the camps and the country in general. The big tent being used temporarily is jammed nightly by the men of the 363rd. On certain nights each week there are movies. At the tent the men find writing materials and tables, magazines and candles. A few nights ago one of the latest comic reels was being thrown on a screen stretched in the open. The audience stood up and comment was not lacking. A good pianist and several trained voices contributed to the amateur entertainment.

LEGISLATORS WILL VISIT HAWAII SOON

HONOLULU, T. H., Oct. 8.—Hawaii is to be visited this month by a congressional party consisting of between fifty and sixty senators and representatives, according to a cable message received here by Delegate to Congress Kalanin'ole from his private secretary, Jack Desha, in Washington.

The last legislature, which adjourned in May, appropriated $40,000 to pay the expenses of a congressional party, the idea being that the members of congress should come here and see for themselves what are the needs of Hawaii that the national government can supply.

BE PRETTY TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

TRY GRANDMOTHER'S OLD FAVORITE RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, gray or streaked. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it, and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

TAKE A GLASS OF SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS IF BLADDER BOTHERS YOU

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acids in meat excite the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation. The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to clean, thus avoiding serious kidney keep the kidneys and urinary organs disease.—Adv.
