LANING SHOWS UP COUNT VON BERNSTORFF

Series of Letters Exposed Showing Proposed Destruction of Canadian Pacific—Names of Children of American Cities Mentioned as Suitable Men to Forward the Inhuman Work.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10.

More of the diabolical machinations of the German government have been brought to light in the publication of a series of astonishing letters between the German government and Count von Bernstorff in January of 1916. The correspondence shows that von Bernstorff received a message from Secretary Zimmerman, expressing the desire of the general staff for energetic action in the proposed destruction of the Canadian railroad at several points with a view of complete protracted interruption of traffic.

He was instructed to inform the military attaché and to provide the necessary funds.

He later wired the names of Joseph MacGarrity of Philadelphia, John P. Keating of Chicago, and Jeremiah O. Heary of New York as men who could give the names of persons suitable for carrying on sabotage in the United States and Canada.

Allies Closing In On Feeders to Sub Bases

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10.—Germany's U boat bases along the Belgian coast will be throttled if good weather returns to the Flanders front. That epitomizes Secretary Baker's official war prediction, based on confidential reports to the war college.

Germany, massing her troops most heavily to resist the British drive, begins to see the handwriting on the wall, declares the report. But the allies, even stronger in men, and having the preponderance in aircraft and shells, are pushing steadily, surely and irresistibly thru to the railroad feeders of the U boat bases.

All that is now needed to smother these submarine nests, in the opinion of the secretary and his military aids, is open weather. In that winter sets in early on the grim west line. When it comes, the British dogged, smashing must cease. But before that time the British expect to continue their

GERMAN DECLARES U. S. INVINCIBLE

HERR GOTHEN, MEMBER OF THE REICHSTAG, SAYS THERE IS NO HOPE OF CRUSHING ENEMIES OF GERMANY ON LAND

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 10.—George Gothen, progressive member of the reichstag, is quoted in a Berlin dispatch as having said at a meeting of the central committee of his party that altho the military situation was satisfactory, there was no hope of crushing Germany's enemies on land. As for the submarine campaign, 7,000,000 tons of shipping had been sunk, he asserted, but no disposition toward peace on the part of England was discernible. A rationing system for foodstuffs had not even been introduced, and no one was able to say when the U boat would make England more inclined for peace. "America cannot be forced to make peace," Herr Gothen continued. "We cannot force America to pay a war indemnity. There remains only England. But should we, in order to obtain an indemnity of 10,000,000,000 marks, sacrifice 50,000,000,000 and another half million men?"

Germany's allies, Herr Gothen continued, were not inclined to continue war for pan-German plans of conquest but were striving for peace by understanding and conciliation, while the pan-German clamor for annexations was finding a bad reception among them. He asserted that the long working hours and insufficient feeding at home increased the desire for peace among the workers, and that strikes might be expected if the war should be continued for aims of conquest.

FURTHER SPREAD OF FIRE NOW IMPROBABLE

BIG LAKES BOX COMPANY PLANT ESCAPES

Ewauna Box Company Plant and the Klamath Iron Works Totally Destroyed—Freight Cars Standing on Tracks Melted to Ground—Future Plans of Ewauna Company Not Announced—Martins' Loss Small

A scene of desolation today marks the place which yesterday was humming with industry. The Ewauna Box company and the Klamath Iron Works are as completely wiped out as it is possible for fire to remove them, and it was only by a miracle of chance and untiring effort on the part of the fire department and many citizens of the city that the Big Lakes Box company plant and the other surrounding buildings were saved.

Fire is still smoldering in many places, and fire hose is being used constantly to prevent further spread of the flames. About twelve freight cars were standing in the yards at the time of the fire, and the only way that a number of them could be recognized is by their position on the track. The intense heat in some cases even melted the wheels, while on others the trucks stand with the middles collapsed. Great holes are burned in the switch crossing on sixth street, which is filled with piling under the oil surface.

The loss to Martin Brothers on their new warehouse walls adjacent to the Klamath Iron Works, will not be serious. Very little damage will be suffered by the Big Lakes company.

Officials of the Ewauna company are not prepared to announce what their future plans are at this time, but these will probably be given out in the near future.
