Enemy Will Cross Islands of Oesel, Dago and Others, and Gain Landing On Mainland Shore, Where Railroad Starts for Riga and Capital. Troops Now Distant From Petrograd About 200 Miles.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—With the believed intention of making a drive against the Russian capital, German troops are now being landed on the islands in the Gulf of Riga, according to a Reuter's dispatch.

The island of Oesel is situated outside the mouth of the gulf proper, and by means of Dago Island adjacent, easy access can be made to the mainland over small intermediate islands.

A railroad runs from the mainland shore direct to Riga, the Russian naval base on the Gulf of Finland, a short distance away, and thence on to Petrograd.

A dateless dispatch by the Associated Press says that the British have paused momentarily in their operation in Flanders. The Germans attacked the French north of the River Aisne several times, but have been repulsed, according to announcements from Paris.

California Land Show Opens This Evening

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—More than a square block of land in the heart of this city has been converted into a forest of fragrant native redwoods, interspersed with miniature growing gardens, the choicest fruits and other products of the state. This evening, amid these surroundings, the big California Land Show, which has been in preparation for the last two months, will be thrown open to the public.

More than twenty-five carloads of redwood bark and branches from Mendocino and Humboldt Counties, have been utilized in preparing the tented city for the big exposition, and the forty county's exhibits, as well as the livestock, poultry, industries, and other exhibits, if reduced to cold figures, would represent something approaching two hundred carloads. The state is epitomized in the land show and the visitor who sees this show and learns all there is provided for him knows his California from Siskiyou to San Diego more thoroughly than he ever could know otherwise.

Dean Hunt of the University of California will tell the people of land analysis, as what to purchase, which will soon be as essential as land ownership.

Luther Burbank will show what a knowledge of the soil and intelligent handling can accomplish with his rare exhibit of plant creations. Everything from the raising of poultry and livestock to the making of shirts will be demonstrated and analyzed.

Klamath County is to be represented at the California Land Show by George Bradnaek of Merrill, who has charge of the Butte Valley exhibit, and has also arranged one from this district.

New Date Developed In Imperial Valley

EL CENTRO, Calif., Oct. 13.—A new variety of date, declared to be larger, of finer texture and of a more delicious flavor than the well known Deglet Noor, has been developed from a Persian seed at the Imperial Valley experiment station of the University of California. I. B. Surry, date propagator at the station, who has cultivated dates in Persia, said that he knows of no better fruit similar to the new variety, and that he has tasted few of a better flavor.

There were growing in the Imperial Valley this year 20,546 date palms of all varieties, according to the report of the county assessor. While F. W. Waite, county horticultural commissioner, estimated that not more than 4,500 of these were in bearing, it was believed the total crop would be 450,000 pounds, valued at $90,000.

The summer season in the valley is too short for the ripening of dates naturally on the trees, and with the coming of cool nights the bunches of fruit, weighing from 50 to more than 100 pounds, are cut and ripened artificially in ovens.

Chicago—J. Collins fled to Fletcher. Jackson singled to left. Felsch singled to left, Jackson taking second. Jackson and Felsch scored on Gandil's double to right fence. Weaver grounded to Fletcher. Gandil taking third. Schalk walked. Lynn batted for Williams. Rariden's throw to catch Schalk stealing second got away from Fletcher and Gandil scored. Lynn fanned. Three runs.

Fifth Inning—New York—Fletcher fled to Jackson. Robertson singled to right. Holke fled to Weaver. Robertson stole second. Rariden walked. Salee fanned. No runs.

MOVE FOR BETTER ROAD ACROSS MOUNTAIN

PETITION TO COMMISSION IS CIRCULATED

Inadequate Highway Between Eastern Oregon and Rogue River Valley Has Diverted Much Trade to California Which Should Have Remained in State—Commission Requested to Provide Good Road.

With the idea of getting an improved road between Southeastern Oregon and the Rogue River Valley, a move has been started by the Ashland people and others of Jackson County, which will also be taken up and forwarded in Klamath and Lake counties, to get the state highway commission to do something along this line.

Altho it is too late this fall to start actual construction, it is believed that arrangements might be made so that work could begin at an early date next spring. Petitions pointing out the need of a better highway have been prepared and signed by a large number of Jackson County residents, and these will now be circulated in Klamath and Lake counties. It is the idea of those promoting the movement, when the petitioners have been secured, to send a representation of three counties personally to the highway commission.

It is indicated in the petition that the road between Klamath and Jackson counties, which has been the exclusive artery of commerce between Eastern Oregon and the Rogue River Valley since 1874, has been maintained by the counties and private subscription, at a heavy expense, but that it is inadequate to handle heavy commerce, and by reason of this much of the traffic that naturally would go back and forth between the two eastern counties and the Rogue River Valley has been diverted from Oregon to California points. It recites that a heavy loss has been caused to Western Oregon as a result.

"Jackson County produces fruit and other products greatly needed in Klamath and Lake, while these counties are rich in many things not produced west of the Cascades. With suitable highway facilities a splendid

Postal Rates Increase On November Second

Notice has been received of the new rates of postage which go into effect on November 2d, as provided in the new revenue bill. A substantial increase is noted in the new schedule under which it will require three cents to send the ordinary letter instead of two cents. The new rates include one cent additional on ounces or fraction thereof on first-class mail, except in the case of drop letters, and also on this delivered from the same postoffice.

These will be continued at two cents an ounce. All postals and postcards will require a two cent stamp. An additional rate of one cent for every 35 cents of postage required on parcel post packages will also be required after November 2d. The postoffice department has further announced that members of the United States army and navy on foreign duty will be permitted to send this country free of charge.

Big Mass Meeting On Tuesday Night

Arrangements are being made here today for a big patriotic gathering at the Houston opera house Tuesday night, when the auto squad of Liberty Bond speakers from Portland will be in the city and present this vital subject. The speakers on this occasion, who are among the state's leading orators, will be introduced by President H. D. Mortenson of the Pelican Bay Lumber company. E. R. Reames of the First National bank, who is forwarding the arrangements, has also announced a meeting for Wednesday at Klamath Falls, which is expected that a large number of speakers will also be in attendance at this gathering.
