

RUSSIAN BATTERIES MAY BE BOTTLED

WILL BE TRAPPED BY MOVE OF GERMANS

ACTION EXPECTED IN GULF OF RIGA

Advances South and East of German Troops on Osel Island Places Batteries on Cereol Peninsula in Embarrassing Predicament—Invasion of the Mainland is Now Expected. Life Sentence for Korniloff.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 15.—Germans who landed Saturday on Osel Island are pushing forward to the east and south, which places the Russian forces and batteries in the Arensburg district on the Cereol peninsula in a difficult position.

Actions in the Gulf of Riga are predicted followed by invasion of the mainland.

The northern group of German warships have reported the torpedo boat squadron between Osel and Dago islands as pressing back the Russian patrol. Russian naval forces reinforced the patrol, which then escaped battle, whereupon the German ships returned.

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—Rapid progress has been made by the Germans on Osel Island. Warships have shelled the Russian land batteries and silenced them. The Sword Peninsula has been cut off from the north part of the island.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 15.—General Chablovsky, president of the commission of the inquiry into the Korniloff rebellion, has returned and declared his belief that the action was high treason, as Korniloff committed no act of any nature to weaken the fighting front.

He thinks that life imprisonment is the greatest sentence possible to inflict on Korniloff.

FIRST WEDDING BY JUDGE HANKS

CEREMONY PERFORMED EARLY SATURDAY—JUDGE REPORTED TO HAVE BLUSHED FURIOUSLY DURING SERVICE

Saturday was a red letter day for County Judge Marion Hanks, as he performed his first marriage ceremony. The contracting parties were W. H. Thibby of Portland and Beatrice Baker of Klamath Falls.

Being new at the business, it is reported that the Judge blushed even more than the bride, and was uncertain before the ceremony was finished that he was not one of the contracting parties.

PRETTY WEDDING EARLY YESTERDAY

POPULAR KLAMATH FALLS GIRL WEDS W. H. McPHERREN OF MILLS IMPLEMENT CO.—TO RESIDE IN MAGUIRE APARTMENTS

A pretty wedding ceremony was performed here at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, when Justice of the Peace E. W. Gowan united Miss Clara Adeline Schubert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schubert, with Mr. W. H. McPherren, at his home on Pine street.

The wedding was very simple, the bride being unattended. She carried a large bouquet of white roses. The ring ceremony was used.

Mrs. McPherren is well known in this community, where she has resided for many years. The groom is a former resident of Portland, having been in this city for the past two years. He is an employe of J. S. Mills & Son.

The young couple spent the day yesterday with the bride's parents in the Spring Lake district, and will be at home in the J. F. Maguire apartments.

FOUR HAVE LEFT AND FOUR GO LATER IN WEEK WITH LUMBERMEN'S BATTALION—SERGEANT McDONOUGH HERE UNTIL THURSDAY

Sergeant D. E. McDonough of the United States army recruiting service is again in Klamath Falls recruiting men for the Twentieth Engineer Forestry regiment, of which one battalion has already left for Overseas service in France.

Since his return Sergeant McDonough has sent the following men to Fort McDowell, Calif: Carl G. Dodde, George E. Schram, Walter H. Gorley, Oscar Jolly.

The following men have signed to go later in the week: Oliver O. Boyd, Godfrey J. Rambo, Virgil B. Hawley, Irving E. Bradford.

These men comprise some of the best lumbermen in the region, and are bound to make a mark for themselves in the branch of the service for which they enlisted.

Sergeant McDonough will be in the city until Thursday.

COUNTY SECTIONS AID RED CROSS

LADIES OF BLY AND BONANZA SHOW ENTHUSIASM WHEN VISITED BY MRS. ADDIE WALKER. BONANZA SCHOOL BUSY

Mrs. Addie Walker returned yesterday from a trip to Bly and Bonanza, to start the Red Cross work among the ladies of those places. Mrs. Walker reports great success in the work, as the ladies are all very enthusiastic and anxious to accomplish as much as possible. She held two meetings in each place, and then left the work in charge of a competent worker. Mrs. Walker took material for the work with her for Bly, and had some more forwarded to her at Bonanza.

The pupils of the Bonanza school are making comfort bags for the soldiers under the direction of Miss Nichols, one of the teachers. The bags will be filled with necessary articles and complete in every detail, and will be sent to the Red Cross chapter here.

EXPLOSION AT DUPONT WORKS

NITRO STARCH DRY HOUSE GOES UP, SHAKING WINDOWS OF PHILADELPHIA TWENTY MILES DISTANT—NO SUSPICIONS ENTERTAINED

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—An explosion in the nitro starch dry house of the Dupont Powder Works at Gibson, N. J., resulted in the instant death of two workmen. A third man is missing and probably dead. Another is seriously injured.

The building destroyed was small, and was removed a considerable distance from the rest of the plant. Only four men were there at the time of the mishap.

The company declares that there is nothing suspicious about the explosion. Windows were shattered in Philadelphia, twenty miles away.

Chicago White Sox Win World's Championship

By Defeating the Giants on Their Home Grounds Today the White Sox Secure Necessary Four Games to Entitle Them to the World's Championship for 1917

POLO GROUNDS, New York, Oct. 15.—The Chicago Americans marched triumphantly off with the world's series championship, by winning four to two games from the New York Giants. Red Faber pitched superb ball for the White Sox.

Thirty-three thousand saw the Giants' defensive blow up in the fourth inning, when Zimmerman's wild throw, Robertson's muff of a fly and a hit by Gandil were responsible for three scores. The Giants got two tallies by two passes and Herzog's triple. Today's game made the series four to two, giving the Sox the championship for 1917.

ROUSING MEETING TOMORROW NIGHT AT OPERA HOUSE

PROMINENT SPEAKERS FROM PORTLAND

Men Are Taking Valuable Time to Assist Uncle Sam in Floating Liberty Loan—As Patriotic Community, Klamath Falls Should Turn Out an Enthusiastic Crowd to Welcome and Encourage Them.

It is hoped by those who are making arrangements, that every representative citizen of Klamath Falls will be on hand for the big mass meeting tomorrow night at Houston's opera house, when the delegation of Portland speakers will be present to outline the reasons why Oregon should get behind the Liberty Loan bonds.

J. W. Siemens of the First State and Savings bank, who returned Saturday night from a conference with William McAdoo at Portland, declares that the people there are roused to the necessity of strenuous actions and have been subscribing liberally, but that only a very small percent of Oregon's quota has been raised thus far.

The public spirited men who are coming to this city on a trip thruout Eastern and Southern Oregon, are giving their valuable time from motives of patriotism, and it is up to Klamath Falls to show that these efforts are appreciated by giving them a rousing reception. The speakers will be introduced by E. D. Martenson. A meeting will also be held some time Wednesday at Medford.

PUBLICATION OF TROOP MOVES HOUSES OFFICIALS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—The war department is aroused by the publication in some parts of the country of private cablegrams from former national guard officers in France to governors of states, announcing the arrival of troops.

Steps will be taken to prevent repetition of these announcements, which are not believed to be for the best interests of the army by the department officials. The department, says, however, that all casualties will be given out promptly.

U.S. Buys Pacific Island For Aviation Purposes

HONOLULU, Oct. 5.—(By mail)—Authorization for the purchase of Ford Island as a site for a big aviation branch of the Hawaiian department has been received here. The island contains 361 acres, and will be devoted solely to the development of aeronautics and aviation. Plans for the enlargement of the army aero base, the Sixth Aero squadron, have been officially approved. It is planned to have 22,228 aeroplanes in service.

Ford Island is located near Pearl Harbor, Hawaii's naval base.

England to Start Reprisal Air Raids

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The morning papers suggest that the government is ready to begin carrying out reprisal air raids on Germany.

The belief is based on the assignment of Lieutenant General David Henderson, director general of military aeronautics, to special work, and sending Major General W. S. Bragg, director of the air organization, to a command abroad.

Klamath Campers Are Cautious About Fires

The people of Klamath County are shown by the following letter of appreciation just received from Forest supervisor L. Erickson, stationed at Medford.

"Editor of the Klamath Falls Herald: Dear Sir—This year there have been hundreds of campers and huckleberry pickers at Lake of the Woods. The season has been unusually favorable for huckleberries, and many
