Tomorrow afternoon the members of the Philanthropic Department of the Library Club will meet in the club rooms at 2:30.

J. A. Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Houston have arrived from their ranch in the Silver Lake country for the winter. Mrs. Leo Houston expects to make an extended visit in San Francisco shortly.

Judge Lionel R. Webster of Portland arrived last night and left this morning for Lakeview, where he will make a brief business visit. Judge Webster is well known in Klamath Falls, where his inimitable addresses have delighted audiences on numerous occasions.

MAN RE-ARRESTED HERE YESTERDAY

YOUNG MAN SECURES BIG BAIL ON ONE CHARGE, AND IS SERVED WITH WARRANT ON ANOTHER AS HE LEAVES JAIL.

To be released on a serious charge after furnishing cash bail to the amount of $750, and as he walked out of the jail door to be re-arrested on another charge, was the experience of Jess Millet here yesterday.

Both charges are for illegal relations with young girls of this city. Millet's father is reported to have arrived from Fossil and furnished bail for the first charge. The young man's bonds for the second charge were placed by Justice E. W. Gowan at $1,000.

N. D. Ginsbach, who operates the government sawmill at the Klamath Agency, is here for a day or two. He plans to make a short business visit to Portland before returning. Ginsbach declares that the roads between this city and the Agency are in bad shape, and would be materially improved if gone over with a drag now.
