"Over the Top" Man

SERGEANT ARTHUR GUY EMPEY

Sergeant Arthur Guy Empey of the British army, author of the book "Over the Top," which has attracted such wide attention, is now in the United States lecturing. He did much hard work also helping the Liberty Loan campaign.

JEWEL CAFE TO CHANGE QUARTERS

WILL MOVE TO JACOBS BLOCK AND OPEN AS FIRST CLASS RESTAURANT ABOUT FIRST OF DECEMBER

A new first class restaurant will be open for business on the first of next month, when Jess Bailey, who has conducted the Jewel cafe at the corner of Sixth and Main, will move to new quarters in the Jacobs block previously occupied by the Ers Drygoods company.

Mr. Bailey has leased the rooms for a substantial term, and will proceed at once to remodel the interior. A dining room, lunch counter and boxes will be installed. The accommodations will be considerably superior to those of his present quarters. He declares, however, that business has been unusually good, and he feels warranted in going ahead with an increased investment.

WILL WORK TONIGHT

Klamath Lodge No. 137, I. O. O. F., meets tonight in regular session. There will be work in the initiatory degree, and members are urged to turn out and see the new work under Captain Fell's management. Visiting brothers cordially invited.

CARROTS DISPLAYED

A string of fine carrots from the Shook ranch at Dairy are exhibited in a window of the Swansen barber shop adjacent to the Hall hotel.

SHEEP BROUGHT IN FOR THE WINTER

A fine band of sheep belonging to Wilson brothers and Frank Ward passed thru town this morning from their summer range in the Aspen Lake district. They will be fed this winter in the Merrill district. The band, which numbered between 2,000 and 2,500, appeared in the best of condition.

TURKS RETREAT IN PALESTINE

LONDON, Nov. 9.—A general retirement northward by the Turkish troops in Palestine is indicated.

Moving Pictures

Marguerite Clark as a "stunt man" is a new feature in pictures, but in "The Amazons," her latest Paramount picture, director Joseph Kaufman and cameraman William Marshall have featured the dainty star as hardest of "stunt men." This is quite literal, for during most of the five reels the star wears boy's clothes. She jumps out of a thiry story window onto a nearby tree, swings along a branch and down the trunk as cleverly as any trained athlete, and as for her daring ride and jump from her horse into the arms of her sweetheart in a passing automobile—well, you'll have to see it for yourself at the Star tonight.

DIVORCE SUIT IS FILED

Alleging cruel and inhuman treatment an action for divorce was filed yesterday with Circuit Court Clerk George Chastain by M. D. Weeks against Eugene Weeks. Fred H. Mills is the attorney for the plaintiff.

FIRST AID CLASS TO MEET

The First Aid Class will meet at the Central school Wednesday, November 14, at 4:15 p. m.

The text books are now here, and those desiring to get an idea of the course are requested to view the window in the Star drug store devoted to this matter.

RED CROSS DANCE TONIGHT

It is expected that there will be a large crowd out this evening at the Red Cross dance at the Elks Temple. The proceeds of this affair are to be used for buying Christmas presents for the boys at the front. The ticket sale conducted by members of the society during the past few days has already assured a large gathering.

The largest accident company in the world—The Travelers. See Chicago.

ELECTION JUDGES APPOINTED

The judges and clerks were appointed by the county clerk yesterday for the election of the Klamath Drainage District, which is to be held early in December.

ADMINISTRATOR APPOINTED

A petition was filed yesterday with County Clerk C. R. DeLap for an administrator for the estate of Cyrus J. Sweet of Spokane, who owned property in Klamath County. Perry DeLap was appointed by the county court as administrator. Renner Kent are the attorneys retained in the case.

HELLA BOOZE TO INDIANS

J. W. Thresher of this city, who was arrested at Dorris for dispensing of liquor to Indians, pleaded guilty to the charge, and has been removed by federal authorities to Sacramento, where he is now in jail.

MILLET BOUND OVER

Following an examination yesterday in the justice court, Jess Millet, charged with a criminal action against a 16-year-old girl, was bound over to the action of the grand jury, and has been released on bonds of $1,000. He is also out on bonds on another similar charge amounting to $750.

LOCAL CHURCH WINE CUP

The Emanuel Baptist church of Klamath Falls won the silver cup at the state convention held recently at The Dalles for having the largest delegation from the longest distance.

The Pirate on a Desert Island with Sacks of Gold died of hunger.
The value of all things must be gauged by their use. So with shoes.
It is apparent that there is no all-purpose shoe, no all-purpose leather.
What is the purpose for which you need shoes?
To wear on the streets? For dancing? For dinners—or the opera? To wear on a long "hike"? On a gunning-trip? For riding?
Tell us this and we will furnish you the shoes you need, which, for the purpose for which they are designed and intended, will render you one hundred cents of satisfaction for every dollar invested.
