The other man it is believed is known, and is expected to be apprehended. It is also declared that the pair did not attempt to get away, as before stated.

Moving Pictures

One of the many incidents that grip the heart in the new Marguerite Clark picture, "The Valentine Girl," produced by the Famous Players, and released on the Paramount program, is the scene in which the wistful little Marian Morgan, 12 years old, is fingering the wedding finery of Lucille Haines, and realizing that when her own wedding day comes there will be no mother to help her with her wedding gown. The motherly Mrs. Haines comforts the child, and the little storm soon blows over, but it cannot help but leave a deep impression on the mind of the beholder. Marian Morgan and Mrs. Haines and the other characters in this delightful "human" photoplay, will be the attraction at the Star tonight.
