Cincinnati Pacifist Who Was Horse Whipped By Mob

HERBERT BIGELOW

Herbert Bigelow, the Cincinnati pastor and pacifist, was horsewhipped by a mob which kidnaped him and took him into the hills of Kentucky. The charge against him was his attitude on the war. But the act has aroused a storm of protest in many parts of the country.

RETURNS FROM EXTENDED VISIT

Mrs. Clarence Underwood has returned from a seven weeks' trip in Washington and Oregon. A large part of the time was spent visiting her sister, Mrs. Wayne Bridgeford at Olympia, Wash. Tacoma, Seattle, Portland and Albany were among the other places visited.

LOCAL HUNTERS AFTER DUCKS

Postmaster W. A. Delsell, Dr. J. S. Saurman, Paul Bogardus and W. M. Montellus composed a party of hunters who spent the early hours this morning after birds in the vicinity of Bellman's pond.

RANCHER HAS PAINFUL TIME

C. G. Hunt, a prominent rancher of the Plevena district, has been having a serious time with an abscess on his right arm. He has been undergoing treatment for several days at the Blackburn hospital, and is now some what improved, although very weak from the effects of his painful time.

KEEPS HIM DODGIN'

"Doc" Powell is back from a trip of several months thru his old stamping grounds in the East, looking like a fightin' hound and feelin' mighty sassy. Just to save them trouble we will inform the officers that "Doc" is past the drafting age, even if he don't look it.

Moving Pictures

Charles Ray, who won a personal triumph in "The Lodhopper," will appear in the biggest role he has yet essayed in the Triangle play "Sudden Jim," the Saturday Evening Post story by Clarence Budington Kelland, which will be shown at the Star tonight. Millions have read the story, either in serial or novel form, concerning the boy who was given $50,000 by his father and told to play or work, just as he might choose. Playing didn't appeal to "Sudden Jim. He took over his father's clothespin factory up in Michigan, made things hum, fought down a combine that was trying to force high prices on the market, and earned the title "hell on wheels." Those who have read the exploits of "Sudden Jim" and learned to love him for his quick, decisive action, his altruism with a punch, will see him perfectly realized in Charles Ray. In fact, Ray's own personality is so identical with that of "Sudden Jim" that the Triangle producers purchased the story particularly to feature him.
