LIQUOR INTERESTS AID PROHIBITIONISTS

SANTA FE, N. M., Dec. 15.—"We money"—that is funds contributed by liquor interests—helped defeat the pro-liquor proposition thru the state in the recent campaign over a constitutional amendment, which was approved by the people.

This became known recently, when Jacob Levy of Santa Fe, treasurer of the pro-liquor organization, let it be known he had turned over to the prohibitionists the balance remaining in his treasury to aid in effecting a defeat in the "dry" budget.

"Carry On"

This command of the trenches truly is the spirit of 1917 Christmas. "Carry on," you bringers of Christmas cheer and happiness. Do this Christmas as you have always done. The children, the soldiers, the sailors, the girls, the boys, the men and women of the nation need your presents, your cheery words, your substantial proofs of friendship. "Carry on."

Your country needs wholesome, generous Christmas trade. Patriotism demands you "do your bit" towards maintaining normal business. "Carry on," you Christmas shoppers. On your wisdom and generosity rests a greater than ordinary responsibility this Yuletide. "Carry on."
