TY AND TAKEN OVER BY DIF-PERENT OUTFITS-GREAT DE. MAND FOR LABOR

The lumbering operations in Klamath County, which have previously confined to a large extent to eight or nine months of the year, will probably be a year 'round industry from this time on, as the winter logging work will be undertaken on a scale which will utilize all the laborers when the mills have closed down ed on an extensive scale this coming season. To aid in this work twentythree large sleighs designed especially for logging purposes have arrived consigned to the Pelican Bay Lumber company. These are to be divided between the different camps as follows: Eight to the Pelican Bay company, three to the Lamm Lumber company, J. J. Steiger and four to the any difference whether
