DIES FROM SKULL FRACTURE

Word has been received here of the death on Christmas morning of Harry Ernest of Portland, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. H. Orem of this city. An operation was performed upon Mr. Ernest on December 24th, in hopes of saving his life. Mr. Ernest is survived by his wife, who was Miss Orva Orem, and one child. They were married six years ago. It is thought that his illness was caused by a severe fall, suffered while skating last winter, and which it is believed fractured his skull. Mr. Orem and Roy Orem are now in Portland.

CHARGES DISMISSED

Mrs. Ray Madill, who was recently found guilty of having liquor in her possession, in the justice court, yesterday paid her fine of $200, and costs which amounted to $58.75.

Two other counts against her have been dismissed. A charge against Ray Madill of having liquor in his possession has also been dismissed for lack of sufficient evidence.

RED CROSS GIFTS ARE WELCOMED

CHANCES BRIGHT FOR LOCAL GIRLS WHO CAN BAKE GOOD CAKES—BLEEK APPEARANCE OF DRUGGIST IS EXPLAINED

Among the many Christmas boxes prepared by the Red Cross workers in Klamath Falls, was one sent by Mrs. E. E. Magee and Miss Waive Jacobs. That it fell into appreciative hands is evidenced by the following letter:

"Camp Lewis, Washington.
"December 23, 1917.
"Kind and generous Mrs. Magee:
"A wish—we've wished it many times before, But to-U-two I wish it more and more— That God will call in your lonely hours With roses, his favorites, and leave the flowers.

OH, YOU!
My Tuesdays are restless
My Wednesdays are wantless,
I am getting more restless each day,
My home it is heartless,
My bed it is sheetless,
They're all sent to the Y. M. C. A.
The barrooms are restless,
My coffee is sweetless,
Each day I grow poorer and wiser,
My stockings are footless,
My trousers are seatless,
My God! How I do hate the Kaiser!

Moving Pictures

In reply to many inquiries received by Manager Houston of the Star, as to when the second George M. Cohan photoplay, "7 Keys to Baldpate," would make its appearance at this popular film house, he announced yesterday that the new Artcraft picture will be shown tonight. Labeled as a "mystery farce," this production, it is promised, will disclose something entirely new in the motion picture world.

KLAMATH MAN WEDS IN NORTH

YOUNG BANK OFFICIAL WHO RECENTLY LEFT THIS CITY TO VOLUNTEER IN SERVICE, WEDS AT VANCOUVER

News that W. F. Wahrer, who very recently left a position as vice president of the First State and Savings bank of this city to enlist in the quartermaster's service of the aviation department, is married, is received here with considerable surprise. The ceremony by which he was united with Miss Antonia Bauer of Lexington, Ore., was performed at Vancouver, Wash.

A host of Klamath Falls friends will wish the young couple every happiness.

BIG TIME AT DAIRY DANCE

PROMINENT PIONEER STOCKMAN GIVES FRIENDS IN TRACT DISTRICT A HUGE TIME CHRISTMAS NIGHT
From all reports it was certainly some big time they had at Dairy. Reference is made, of course, to the big dance given by Dave Shook to celebrate the completion of his new two-story stone cellar.
At least a hundred friends and neighbors assembled at the Shook ranch on Christmas night in response to the host's invitation, and altho the cider served was strictly fresh, there was an unlimited quantity of it, as well as the fine feed, to which the guests did justice.
They danced until 6 o'clock Wednesday morning, and would have probably been at it yet if the Cool brothers, who furnished the music, had not given out from weariness. People at Dairy are hoping that Dave will build another cellar.
