At The Moving Picture Shows

Maxine Elliott in Fighting Odds. Goldwyn Pictures

In the big motion picture production, "Fighting Odds," written by Roi Cooper Meigrue and Irvin S. Cobb, which is presented as the attraction at the Star Sunday, Goldwyn Pictures has brought back to American audiences the international favorite, Maxine Elliott, who is making her first appearance as a screen star. Maxine Elliott has not been seen on the stage in several years. In resuming dramatic work as a star in motion pictures, she has been appropriately equipped with a role which makes demands upon her emotional talents. In emotional possibilities it surpasses anything she has hitherto attempted. "Fighting Odds" tells a story of big business ventures in the automobile industry. Miss Elliott is seen as the wife of a millionaire manufacturer, a beautiful and loyal woman who, by her wit and her loveliness, brings his powerful enemies to account.

The Brunswick

A Music Lover's Discovery New Delights

A well-known musician entered a well-known phonograph shop yesterday. He had heard of The Brunswick.

"Is it possible," he asked, "that you have the phonograph I've always wished for? One that plays all records?"

Then his favorite records were played — some of the well-known makes. He asked for different artists — all were available.

"This is marvelous!" he said. "No longer will I be limited to one line of records, but I can hear all my favorites. And the tone — it is far better. The Brunswick is a triumph!"

This is not an unusual incident. Nearly every visitor expresses the same delight.

Can you afford to overlook this great sensation in your selection of a phonograph?

Hear and compare The Brunswick before you decide.

Dearest Public:

We wish to take this opportunity to thank you for your patronage, and also to tell you that we appreciate said patronage more than our vocabulary will emit.

You did not buy enough to confirm our leaving town, but hope you can see your way clear to do so in the near future.

People who live in glass houses should address in the cellar.

Of course, you could address any place today, as the fog is so thick one couldn't see one if one wanted to.

We do trust that New Year's Day will see that slimy and atrocious old monster, the Kaiser, securely planted in hell.

We have with us Mr. Monroe Clyborn, the champion watchmaker of the world and Oregon. We want to solicit your watch work, and assure you of first class workmanship and prompt service.

We can mark your silver and ivory with letters or monograms that you will not be ashamed of, and, dearest, we have some silver and ivory that we will sell at bargains. Better have your umbrella recovered, 'cause it might rain.

How beautiful the existence of the merry duck—south in the winter and north in the spring, without a change of clothes.

We have some bargains in everything in the house at "laughing gas" prices.

If you are interested in cut glass we have a fine big stock, and we will save you money.

Don't forget if your watch or clock is out of repair we fix them promptly. Wrist watches should be worn on the bureau while bathing and in the arms of Morpheus.

Love you? Well, I guess. McHattan's, at 605 Main street, between Sixth and Seventh.

Miss Clara Elmer has returned from Redding, where she spent Christmas.
