MAIL BOXES URGED ERRECTED

Patrons of the new rural route are urgently requested by Postmaster W. A. Dehml to get their mail boxes erected at once, as he will be required to certify that the required number has been erected before the new route can be started. Failure of patrons to do this would greatly delay the service, and might cost the loss of the route entirely. All farmers living west of the main road to Merrill are under this route, as well as residents of Hills Addition.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Arant left yesterday for Ashland and Rogue River and Umpqua valleys. They will spend several weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Reid and little daughter left yesterday for their home in Seattle, after spending Christmas with Mrs. Reid's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Matt of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Satterlee of this city expect to spend the coming two months motoring in Southern California. Mr. Satterlee left yesterday, and his wife left on the noon train today, planning to join him at Wood.

CITY AND COUNTY LEVY

WILL TOTAL 46 MILLS

The Herald last week in summing up the tax levies of the city and county gave the total of the city resident's taxes at 50 1/2 mills. The county road tax, however, is not borne by the city resident, in view of the paving assessments with which he is taxed.

The road tax should be deducted from the aggregate amount, therefore, and would place the levy for the Klamath tax payer at 46 mills.

The Post Woman Has Arrived In New York

Mrs. JOSEPHINE NORTON.

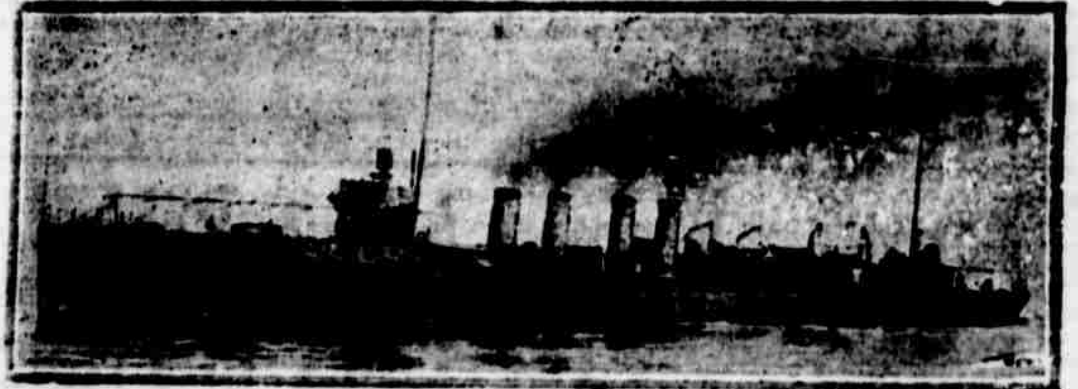

The post woman, who has appeared in other American cities, has arrived in New York City, where she may have harder work than in any other. Mrs. Josephine Norton is here shown starting on her first trip from the large branch postoffice near the great Pennsylvania railroad terminal. Her husband enlisted in the army, and she took his place. She receives 25 cents per hour for eight hours work, six days a week.

The Season's Greeting

MAY 1918 bring to each of you happiness and prosperity and success to our country in its great fight for democracy. May the sacrifice we will be called upon to make during the year be given cheerfully, ever bearing in mind that we at home cannot hesitate in our duty to our flag, if we are to realize a successful termination of the great war for the Freedom of the world :: ::

YOUNG MAN HAS CLONE CALL

R. A. Pickell of the Golden Rule store, who was operated upon recently by the the Blackburns hospital for appendicitis, and who has had a very close call since, is reported to have rallied and to be getting along unusually well.

Moving Pictures

Mme. Petrova's first Paramount picture is a startling combination of the ancient and the modern—a story of Egypt and the Sphinxes, with all the alluring, witching mystery of that fascinating country in present day times, as well as centuries ago, when "Father Nile" swept on his way across the desert, but thru a land as yet untraversed by the steam train or the automobile, and undisturbed by the whistles of factories and the honking of motors. As a child of ancient Egypt, Mme. Petrova is gloriously beautiful in her pagan jewelry, sandals and queer, filmy garments, and it is easy to imagine her as a Pharaoh's daughter, wandering about the palaces on the banks of the Nile. This princess unfortunately falls in love with a mere shepherd lad, but of course the dignity of her rank will not allow them to marry. Thus it is that in plighting their troth after the manner of lovers in those days, they break in two a rare scarab, symbol of enduring affection, and each keeps half, altho they are destined never to see each other again. At the Star tonight.

What bids fair to be one of the most attractive combinations on the screen is contained in the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature, "The Money Mill," which was directed by John Robertson, and which is at the Temple tonight. Evert Overton plays the male lead opposite the popular star, Dorothy Kelly. This pair work remarkably well together, and bring out points in one another which have previously been unrecognized. Then, too, in this particular production, both are cast in roles well suited to their types and capabilities.

Electricity is life. Beauty Parlors.

JUSTICE TIES MANY COUPLES DURING YEAR

RECORD OF 1916 IS PASSED BY ONE, TO THE GREAT RELIEF OF THIS OFFICIAL—THIRTY-SEVEN KNOTS TIED

The look of satisfaction noted these days on the face of Justice E. W. Gowen has replaced the careworn expression which had been evident some time previous. It looked for a time as tho the justice was going to fall down on his marriage record for this year.

Cupid, however, who had been growing a little lax in his duties, took note of the Judge's predicament, and secured a new set of arrows immediately. As a result the record of thirty-six weddings during 1916 has been equalled and eclipsed by thirty-seven in 1917.

MACHINE SHOP CHANGES HANDS

AUTO REPAIR SHOP ON WEST MAIN STREET GOES UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT THIS MORNING—FINE NEW EQUIPMENT

A business change went into effect here this morning, when S. T. Summers and W. Templer took over the machine shop and battery department operated by the Telford Brothers, on West Main street.

The new concern has ordered a new 20-inch lathe and new cylinder grinder, declared to be the only tool of this character this side of Sacramento. It is capable of grinding six cylinders at one setting.

The new management expects to equip the plant thruout in a most up-to-date manner, and to be able to handle a great deal of the sawmill repair work of this district. Mechanics employed are men of extensive experience and technical training.

FOR SALE—Three room cottage; two large lots, $750; $100 cash, $15 per month.
